

New Air Force Assignments Received By A&M Graduates

Four Texas A&M graduates have received new Air Force assignments.

Two of the officers, Capt. Clayton B. Lyle III of Dallas and 2nd Lt. Charles F. Offholter of San Antonio, recently received their wings. Second Lt. Terence L. Casteel of Waco has been assigned at Reese AFB, Texas for flight training.

Capt. Alton F. Fischer of New Braunfels arrived at Tinker AFB, Okla., from Thailand for duty as a communications - electronics staff officer.

Lyle will be a Tactical Air Command pilot at McConnell AFB, Kan., and Offholter will remain at Mather AFB, Calif., for navigator-bombardier training.

EFFICIENCY AWARDS

Custodial Awards Given Six

Efficiency awards have been presented to six Texas A&M custodial workers by President Earl Rudder.

The awards, in recognition of selection as "Custodial Worker of the Month," went to Dennis Watson and Mrs. Verna Carroll for May, Alvin Jefferson and Mrs. Beatrice Johnson for April and Berry Lester and Mrs. Rose L. Washington for March.

Watson has served the university 23 years, while Lester has 10 years service. Mrs. Carroll has eight years to her credit,

Mrs. Washington, six, and Jefferson and Mrs. Johnson, three each.

President Rudder assured the custodial workers they are on the team that is working toward excellence throughout the university.

He said he had been told by numerous visitors that A&M has the best-kept campus and buildings in the state.

The awards were presented at the workers' quarterly meeting in the Biological Science Building.
