

Victory Champagne For The Detroit Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—The champagne bottles were cleared away and the grass and outfield fences at Tiger Stadium were repaired Wednesday in the wake of an emotionally exhausting celebration of the Detroit Tigers' first American League pennant in 23 years. Thousands of Tiger fans celebrated at the ball park and in downtown Detroit after the Tigers wrapped up their American League title with a 21 victory over the New-York Yankees Tuesday night. Usually sedate Tiger owner John Fetzer found himself dumped in the Tigers' whirlpool bath and Manager Mayo Smith got the same treatment as the Tigers celebrated by tossing players, newsmen and anyone else they could get hold of into the whirlpool or dousing them with champagne. Thousands of the 46,000 fans who saw the Tigers' pennant clincher rushed onto the field to mob the players. Tiger officials said large sections of sod were stripped from the playing field. Fans carried home in triumph an estimated 300 box seats. Still others knocked part of the right and left field lower fences loose. Detroit police posted two officers atop home plate and they repulsed a few fans who had designs on digging it up. The fans then tried to dig up a pitchers' warmup rubber but found it was in too deep. "These people were not mean... they were just out for a good time and a long awaited celebration," a Tiger spokesman said. Police would make no estimate of the number of Tiger fans who milled about on streets, stopping traffic and chanting "Go, Go, Tigers, Go, Go" in unison as they climbed atop car roofs, trucks or any other vantage point. All was peace and brotherly love in the Tiger dressing room as thoughts turned occasionally to the upcoming World Series and the St. Louis Cardinals. Tiger Manager Smith and his Tuesday night winning pitcher Joe Sparna, who had a minor tiff during the regular season, took turns saying nice things about each other.
