

AP Picks Sooners

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MEXICO CITY (AP) — "No se puede ganar siempre".

No matter the language, it's the same: "You can't win 'em all". Despite the sabotage of Mississippi and Syracuse, we scored 47-13 for '784 last week and a season's average of .786.

Now reports are in from all the scouts across the border and it looks like a gold medal week across the board:

Purdue 35, Ohio State 17: The Buckeyes are on the rebound but the bounce is not enough to hurdle Leroy Keyes and Mike Phipps.

Oklahoma 14, Texas 10: This is the one that starts hearts and oil wells pumping in the Southwest. The Sooners win the one that got away in 1967.

California 25, Army 7: The Golden Bears finally have the scoring punch they lacked in recent years.

Alabama 28, Vanderbilt 14: Absence of strong running speed has taken much of the whip from the Crimson Tide.

Texas Christian 21, Southern Methodist 18: Count on the Horned Frogs to build a fence around Jerry Levias.

UCLA 17, Penn State 14: The rugged Bruins can't afford to lose two in a row to eastern rivals.

Navy 20, Air Force 13: The Midshipment have a knack of rising over their heads against service academy rivals.

Notre Dame 38, Northwestern 7: Ara Parseghian expends a little mercy on his former team.

Michigan State 19, Michigan 17: We must go with the improved Spartans, but don't be surprised if it's the other way around.

Southern California 24, Stanford 20: A prediction that the Trojans' O. J. Simpson will have one of his roughest days of the season.

Tennessee 21, Georgia Tech 14: The Vols' defense is far too strong for Tech's sluggish runners but Larry Good may toss a couple of TDs.

Georgia 18, Mississippi 14: The Bulldogs, who escaped Dietzel by a point, are always tough between the hedges at Athens.

Cross-Country Meets Set For This Weekend

The Texas Aggies will compete in two cross-country meets this week, at Austin today and here Saturday.

A&M Cross-Country Coach Ted Nelson announced that his squad would run against Texas and Baylor on Thursday and would host Texas Tech in a dual meet Saturday morning.

The Saturday meet will be at 10 a.m. on a one-mile course behind G. Rollie White Coliseum and east of Kyle Field. The contestants will make three laps around the course.

A&M's seven-man squad includes one senior, John Heffner; two sophomores, Paul Shimon and Michael DiFlice and four freshmen, Charles Barton, Stephen Gonzalez, John Wes Buckler and Jonathan Allen.

Chuck Leske Leads Aggie Golf Try-Outs

Chuck Leske, a sophomore letterman from San Antonio, led the qualifying for the 1968-69 Texas A&M golf team.

Leske posted an eight over par 718 for the 10 qualifying rounds completed this week at the A&M course.

Runnerup was junior Richard Ellis with 720. Bruce Williams (721), J. M. Jones (728), Erik Brand (730), Reggie Majors (731) and Bill Wade (731) rounded out the top seven.

Brand had the best round with a 65.

The team opens play Oct. 30-31 and Nov. 1 against Houston.
