

Southern Cal Widens Lead; Penn State, Kansas Move Up

Idle Southern California widened its lead over runnerup Ohio State in the weekly Associated Press major college football poll Monday while both Kansas and Penn State closed ground on the leaders.

The Trojans (5-0), who resume activity at Oregon this week drew 24 of the 43 first-place votes from a national panel of sports writers and sportscasters. Southern Cal had 21 first a week ago.

Ohio State, 31-24 winners over Illinois for its fifth straight, attracted 12 firsts, bumped to 15 last week. The Buckeyes will be at home to Michigan State, No. 16, Saturday.

Kansas made Iowa State its sixth straight victim, 46-25 and picked up six firsts to hold third place ahead of Penn State, which drew one first place ballot after bombing Boston College 29-0 for its fifth in a row.

The point total, based on 20 for first and a graduated scale down to one point for 15th place, gave Southern California a 64-point lead over Ohio State, 786-722. A week ago they led by only 16 points. Kansas was a strong third with 686 and Penn State a solid fourth with 592.

The major casualty of the weekend was Notre Dame, upset by Michigan State, 21-17, and dropped all the way from No. 5 to No. 12.

Tennessee, Purdue and Georgia, all moved up a peg to take over fifth, sixth and seventh places. Tennessee had an off day. Purdue downed Iowa 44-14 and Georgia beat Kentucky 35-14.

California, Michigan and Missouri all moved into the first 10. California thumped Syracuse, Michigan clobbered Minnesota 35-20 and Missouri ran over Kansas State 56-20.

The top 10, with first place votes, records and total points:

1. South. Cal.	5-0	786
2. Ohio State	5-0	722
3. Kansas	6-0	686
4. Penn St. 1	5-0	592
5. Tennessee	4-0-1	442
6. Purdue	5-1	420
7. Georgia	5-0-1	394
8. California	5-1	336
9. Michigan	5-1	260
10. Missouri	5-1	197

Royal Dizzy Plotting Ponies

By ROBERT HEARD
 AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Coach Darrell Royal says his University of Texas Longhorns will need all week "just to learn where to line up" when they play Southern Methodist University Saturday.

"They've been in 42 different formations already — 42!" Royal said at his Monday news conference. SMU game films that Royal has seen show the league-leading Mustangs used 38 formations in just one game, the Rice game, he thinks.

Royal especially fears SMU's pass-catching wizard Jerry Levias. "Lievias can break up a game more ways than probably anybody else around," he said. "And they're not stillborn when they throw to those other people."

The Longhorns, with a 2-1 league record, challenges SMU,

3-0, here Saturday. The game matches Texas' powerful ground attack against SMU's brilliant passing machine, which uses the short, down and out aerial the way a rushing offense uses the off tackle play.

How does Royal plan to stop those quick passes in the flat, particularly the Longhorns' leaky left flat?

"They're going to complete some passes. The only way to break even is to hope they miss a few, overthrow a few and have a few intercepted. One interception wipes out quite a few short passes. We came up with three interceptions the other night (against Rice)" he said.

Texas came out of their 38-14 victory over the Owls with no new injuries, Royal said.

Halfback Chris Gilbert's 213 yards rushing against Rice, which gave him 2,729 career yards and broke the SWC record of 2,618 set by TCU's Jim Swink in 1954-55-56, prompted Royal to plug for him for All-American.

Gibson Wins Cy Young Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Gibson, the St. Louis Cardinals' pitcher who set a major league earned run average record low of 1.12, was named winner of the National League Cy Young Award Monday by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Gibson, a 22-9 performer for the pennant-winning Cards, was the unanimous choice of the 20-member panel, two from each league city.

Gibson is in Japan with the Cardinals who are on a goodwill exhibition tour.

Although Gibson had two previous 20-victory seasons he never received a Cy Young vote until this year. He is the second Negro to win the award. Don Newcombe of the old Brooklyn Dodgers was the first winner in 1956.

Gibson's earned run average of 1.12 broke the National League mark of 1.22 set by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Phillies in 1915. He also topped the American League record for a pitcher with 300 or more innings.

Southwest Conference Football 1968

Here is the 1968 season. The zany, unpredictable Southwest Conference season. Where underdogs become topdogs on any given Saturday. Where comparative scores, home field advantage and other prognostic devices are thrown to the winds. Where on the day of the game it's just us versus them and to hell with what happened last week or last year. Yes, the Southwest Conference has tradition — anyone can win, anyone can pull the big shocker of the season and fate doesn't play favorites.
