McLain Reveals Threats On Life And Family

DENVER (AP)—Dennis McLain, star pitcher for the champion Detroit Tigers, said Tuesday numerous threats have been made on his life and on those of his wife and children.

He also said a bomb was placed in his wife's automobile last May. The explosive was found while Mrs. McLain was driving on a freeway, but was dismantled and disposed of before it could explode.

McLain, who won 31 games for the Tigers the past season, talked of the threats at a news conference.

McLain said he was returning from a television appearance in

New York a couple of weeks ago when an airline official told him that a telephoned threat against one of his children had been made.

McLain said some of the threatening telephone calls probably could be attributed to derogatory remarks he made about Detroit fans.

Hargett Nears SWC Career Marks

Texas A&M's Edd Hargett is on the verge of taking over Southwest Conference passing records in career attempts, completions, net yardage and touchdowns.

The Marietta, Tex., senior who played at Linden-Kildare High, needs to complete a nine-yard pass against Arkansas next Saturday to vault into the all-time SWC lead for passing yardage. He still is 29 completions away from taking over that phase of the records but if he attempts as many as eight passes he will become the throwing-est passer in the league's history. And, he needs nine more TD passes to reign first in that category.

Hargett completed 22 of 49 for 278 yards against Baylor last Saturday night in a 10-9 loss to the Bears. And, although he threw three interceptions, it should be noted that all three hit would-be Aggie receivers before bouncing into Baylor hands.

With four regular-season games remaining, Hargett in his three-year career at Aggieland has attempted 622 passes. Terry Southall of Baylor is the SWC career leader with 629 attempts. Eight more attempts will put Hargett first.

Hargett now has completed 300 which puts him in third place behind Southall's 328 and Don Trull (Baylor) with 325.

Hargett is second in passing yardage with 4,135. Trull leads by eight yards with 4,143 and Southall now is third at 4,100.

Hargett is third in career touchdowns passes with 30. Sammy Baugh of TCU threw for 38 and Bobby Layne of Texas threw for 31. Southall now is fourth with 29.

The Aggie quarterback with the quick wrists and scrambling moves would much rather be winning than setting any individual passing records and his feat against Baylor last Saturday was not at all satisfying since the Bears made off with a one-point win.

Now with their backs firmly against the wall with a 1-2 record in SWC play, the Aggies will have to fight their greatest battle this coming Saturday afternoon if they are to retain any hopes of winning or sharing in the crown they won last season.

And, one of the big weapons in their offensive attack will be the throwing of Hargett.

Auburn Tops Land In Defensive Stats

NEW YORK (AP) — When Auburn held the Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes to minus-85 yards rushing last week, the Plainsmen moved all the way from 15th to first in rushing defense among the nation's major college football teams.

In fact, Auburn held Miami to the second lowest running figure recorded against a major college in 21 seasons according to the records of the National Collegiate Sports Services. The record low was minus 106 yards in 1966 by San Jose State against Texas-El Paso.
