

SOC Still Leads Schoolboys

— Dallas South Oak Cliff held its hair thin margin over Galveston Ball Monday as the No. 1 ranked team in the Dallas Morning News Schoolboy Football poll.

Henderson, Iowa Park and Poth also remained atop their respective classifications. All other teams in Class AAAA came through as expected except Port Arthur, which dropped from the top 10 and was replaced by Alice as the No. 10 team.

The first seven teams, led by Henderson, remained intact in Class AAA. The only change was the disappearance of Corsicana, which was replaced by Sweetwater.

Iowa Park continued to dominate the Class AA list but Crane, ranked No. 2 last week, dropped all the way out of the top 10. Klein moved in to fill the gap.

Clarendon, No. 3 behind Poth and Honey Grove last week, fell from the Class A rankings and was replaced by Grapeland.

Tigers' Title Hopes Fade As Kemp Lowers Boom, 12-7

By RICHARD CAMPBELL
The Maroon and White of A&M Consolidated saw their title ship sail out of sight Friday night as the otherwise toothless Kemp Bears gnawed them out of contention with a 12-7 victory.

Strong defensive play by the Bears in the breathless cold of Tiger Stadium wore down the host team as they were all but eliminated from the battle for the North Zone flag in District 10-AAA. Both teams now have identical 4-5 season records and both stand 2-2 in the district race.

Tiger quarterback Paul Madeley was held to only four completions in 16 attempts for a mere 24 yards and the Tigers' ground game was limited to 41 for the lowest offensive output this year for the Tigers. Kemp's tailback John Lewis ended as the game's leading rusher with 117 yards in 17 trips.

On the Bengals' first march, tailback Mike Litterst and fullback Richard Marshall alternated toting the pigskin until they reached the Bear 27 where they faltered and the Bruins took over. All of a sudden, both teams were plagued by costly fumbles and after the dust cleared, the Bears had the ball on the Tiger 27. It took but two carries for Lewis to slash his way to the end zone, traveling the final 23 for the score. The kick was wide and the Bears led, 6-0 with 1:33 left in the first period.

In the second quarter, the Tigers had two big chances but again fumbles shut down the offense. First, Leroy Clark recovered a Bear fumble on the Kemp 10 but a Tiger fumble wiped it out just as quick as it came.

Next, the Tiger defense forced the Bear punter, Jerry Guydien, to rush his kick and picked up the 11-yard boot at the Bruin 20. But Madeley was stifled on two passing attempts after a run produced only two yards and again the Bears took over for the last possession of the second half.

Consolidated started the second in the same type of trouble as the first with the Bears camped on their own 44 following the kickoff and a stalled Tiger drive. On an important third down and seven, Lewis broke off tackle into the Tiger secondary and sped 43 yards to the Bengal line. After two running plays and a 15-yard penalty, reserve quarterback Edward Hall zipped 22 yards for the second score of the night. A pass attempt for two points was incomplete and it was 12-0.

The Tigers were hampered much of the fourth quarter by a wet field and the cold weather as they fought back through the air to try and tie the score. Their only score came on another Litterst to Clark reverse on a punt return with the swift tailback Litterst taking the ball 71 yards for the score. Rob Schleider added the PAT and the scoreboard read 12-7.

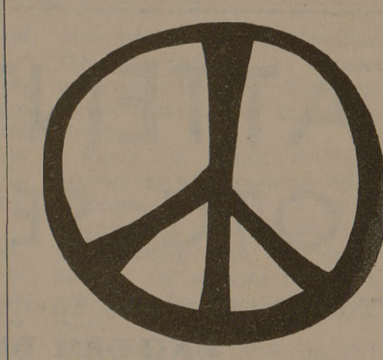

An onside kick by the Tigers failed but the Bears were forced to punt with 1:12 left. But here the stiff pass defense of Kemp rose to the occasion and stopped the Tigers cold on four straight passing attempts with only 0:36 left. From here the Bears ran the clock out and the Tigers fell for the fifth time this season.

Next week the Tigers are at Huntsville for their final game of the year.
