

Intramural Round-Up

The intramural story went like this Wednesday:

In Class B football yesterday, A-1 came back from a 6-0 deficit to defeat winless C-2. B-1, still looking for their first victory after two losses, were defeated again by D-2 on penetrations after the game ended in a deadlock, 6-6. Squadron 1 moved into second place in their league by beating Sqd. 10, 13-6.

H-2 and Sqd. 6 battled to a scoreless tie, but H-2 won it on penetrations. H-1 continued their undefeated streak by walloping Sqd. 2, 16-0. They have the most potent offense in the league averaging 22 points per game.

In Class A basketball, B-1 dropped their second game last night in a tight battle to G-2 by the score of 25-23. F-2, led by Howard's 15 points, beat A-1, 42-31.

In Class A horseshoes, the games on Nov. 11 & 12 were: B-1 beat G-2, Sqd. 1 over Sqd. 12, Sqd. 2 over H-2, Sqd. 3 over Sqd. 13, F-2 over A-1, Sqd. 13 over Sqd. 8, and Sqd. 9 over the Maroon Band.

In Class C basketball, a new team, the Sbisya Waiters, surprised Mitchell Hall by the score of 43-21. Kyrish led the waiters with 14 points. Law Hall bombed McInnis, 34-15. Moore beat College View, 31-19, and Fowler Hall downed the Baptists Students, 39-22.

Five To Be Inducted Into Hall Of Fame

Five athletic greats of the past will be honored here Saturday at the A&M-Rice football game as the Texas A&M Athletic Hall of Fame adds them to its cherished list.

The five new inductees are:

1. Charles B. (Uncle Charley) Moran. He was athletic director and head coach of the Aggies in football, baseball and track from 1908-thru-1914. His six football teams had a record of 38-8-4 and his 1912 team set a season scoring record of 366-28.
2. Charles A. (Charley) DeWare, class of 1909. All-Southern end in 1908. Won four letters in both football and baseball and was first Aggie to captain two teams in one year. DeWare Fieldhouse is named in his honor.
3. Barlow (Bones) Irvin, class of 1926. Texas A&M Athletic Director Emeritus. As player-coach-administrator he served his alma mater well for 27 years. He won football letters in 1923-24-25 and was all-SWC tackle in 1925. He was retired last January and now lives in Bryan.
4. James W. (Jimmie) Aston, class of 1933. He won football letters in 1930-31-32, was captain of 1932 team and was Cadet Colonel in 1933. He went on to become Dallas City Manager, an Army colonel in World War II; entered banking and now is an international figure in that field in Dallas.

5. John David Crow, class of 1958. Heisman Trophy winner in 1957; Walter Camp & Hartley trophies in 1957; Texas Amateur Athlete of Year in 1957; All-America back in 1957; All-SWC back in 1956 & 1957; won football letters in 1955-56-57; co-captain in 1957. He now is playing pro football with San Francisco 49ers.

Of the five, only two—Irvin and Aston—will be on hand to receive their honors. Moran and DeWare are deceased. Tyre Bell of Dallas will accept Moran's citation for Moran's family. DeWare's citation will be accepted by Mrs. Charles DeWare, Sr. and son, Charles DeWare, Jr. Crow's father will be here to accept his citation.

Guy King, Jr., class of 1952 and president of A&M's Athletic Hall of Fame, will handle the induction ceremonies on Kyle Field.

Hobbs Wants Two Wins

Texas A&M's defending Southwest Conference champions have been stymied and frustrated all year long by injuries to key players and one who has been hampered since two-a-day drills in early September is All-America linebacker Bill Hobbs.

Hobbs, who was virtually all-everything in the SWC last year as the Aggies won the title and beat Alabama in the Cotton Bowl, reported for fall drills a muscular 218 pounds and rarin' to get after someone.

But, he received a torn muscle in the lower part of his back before the first game and it has gotten worse and worse. He played in spots against Texas Tech and didn't even see any action last Saturday against SMU.

A completely healthy Hobbs could have made a big difference this year as A&M has lost 6 games by a total of 29 points.

Hobbs hasn't complained. "You have to learn to play when you're hurt," he says. But, even in pain, Hobbs has had some big games this year. One wonders just how great he would have been this senior season had he not been hurt.

Today, Hobbs won't scale 200 pounds. "I'm wearing clothes I haven't worn in a long, long time," he frowns.

Hobbs, along with such seniors as Wendell Housley, Bob Long, Edd Hargett, Harvey Aschenbeck, Tommy Maxwell all were looking toward a great year in 1968. All of them have missed action because of injuries. The list of juniors and sophs hurt numbers more than a dozen.

"We won't quit," Hobbs says. "We still have two to play and we need to win them."

Although coach Gene Stallings takes the blame for losses, saying he didn't prepare the team properly, Hobbs won't buy all of that. "We haven't played well in a lot of games. In some, we couldn't beat a good high school."

Hobbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hobbs of Amarillo, was a split end at Amarillo Tascosa High. He also ran on the school's mile relay team that was second in the state track meet and he finished second in the low hurdles at the state meet.

He's a real contact football player, one with good speed and good hands. Going into this year he had intercepted 9 passes and returned them 177 yards. This year he has intercepted 2 for 18 yards.

But, he has two more games to go and a fighter like Hobbs is apt to turn in two great performances.

Rest was the only prescribed cure for his back ailment. Whether missing one game was enough time remains to be seen.

Kennedy Sold By N.Y. Yanks

NEW YORK (AP)—Infielder John Kennedy was sold by the New York Yankees Wednesday to the Seattle Pilots of the American League. It was a straight cash deal, believed to be slightly in excess of the $20,000 waiver price.

Aggies, be sure and read "The Proudest Squares" in this week's issue of Sports Illustrated.

Now Available The All-New Texas A&M University Directory

More than 15,000 student, faculty and staff listings (including home addresses, classifications, majors, titles, etc.)

- University Calendar
- Campus Map
- Student Senate Listings

(Note: The University Directory is more valuable than ever this year. With the addition of the new Centrex Telephone System, almost all students now have telephones in their dormitory rooms. Also, all administrative numbers changed when the new system was introduced. The temporary directory is now obsolete.)

Directories Available At:

- Shaffers University Book Store North Gate
- Student Publications Office 216 Services Bldg.
