

CADET SLOUCH by Jim Earle

"You must have had a lot of experience building bonfires!"

Editor, The Battalion:
On December 4, 1968, the Class of '72 will have its first opportunity to elect its representatives to student government. The Unity Party, a group of Fish dedicated to eliminating the friction between civilian students and the Corps of Cadets, has selected us as their candidates for the Student Senate. Our goal is to represent the Fish Class the way they want to be represented! Through our knowledge of the Student Senate and our present activities in the various organizations on campus, we feel we are qualified for these positions. We would appreciate your support December 4.

Sincerely,
Bill Hartsfield

Editor, The Battalion:
It goes without saying that things are done somewhat differently at A&M than they are at other schools in Texas, or anywhere else for that matter. A&M has a set of customs and traditions which are, for the most part, all their own. We civilians, for the record, stand by these traditions wholeheartedly, though this subject has been railed back and forth for years.

However, I'm writing this to register a complaint, so here it is. I don't know how many people noticed it, but at the last two A&M football games, a player of the other team has been seriously "shaken up" or injured on the field. Now, Col. Adams and the yell leaders take every opportunity, at time-outs, to play the Aggie War Hymn—we all know this, and I believe we all take pride in singing it. But when a man is hurt on the field, it is not the time to strike up those familiar and well-loved chords. I noticed at the SMU game, when our players were hurt, it was not played, but when one of the SMU boys was hurt—ta ta ta dum, ta dum, ta dum...

I feel that this practice is unsportsmanlike and should be discontinued.

BONFIRE

Saturday morning and continue through Tuesday afternoon. The stack will then be turned over to Firemen Training Center personnel for fueling.

Youngkin said the stack will probably be between 80 and 90 feet tall, and 100 to 150 feet in diameter. THOSE UNABLE to work on the bonfire due to physical reasons, or anyone interested, is asked to volunteer as a guard. The guards restrict entrance to the stacking area to students who are working on the bonfire. Safety as well as a security is involved. Those who desire to guard should contact Bill Ashworth at 5-5248, or go by Moore Hall (20), room 301.

Youngkin cautioned students to use good judgement.

"One of the few ways we could have the bonfire cancelled would be to have a bunch of accidents. Safety negligence could cost us the Aggie Bonfire."

What's Happening At The MSC

By PAT LAFFERTY

MSC begins its activities for the week at 8 tonight in the Assembly Room with Part V of the Great Issues Seminar Series presenting Dr. Blair Justice, speaking on "Hate—Unrest—Why?" In his speech, Dr. Blair, expert sociologist and advisor to the mayor of Houston, will analyze the minority group problem in Texas.

Anyone interested in the world scene is invited to the MSC Cafeteria at 6 p.m. Wednesday for an unusual presentation by the Experiment in International Living Supper Club, featuring students who have traveled or lived in Czechoslovakia, Poland, Yugoslavia, and Germany, who will speak on their experiences in the various countries.

For those interested in politics, the Political Forum will present Richard M. Scannon at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the MSC ballroom giving his "Election Analysis." Scannon, a political scientist, is the nation's leading expert on voting behavior. He will discuss the political, social, economic, and ethnic questions behind the results of the Nov. 5, and its effect on the "rebirth" of the Republican Party since 1964.

The Contemporary Arts Committee will bring novelist and critic Larry McMurty to A&M Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Assembly Room to lecture on "Contemporary Texas Literature." Incidentally, McMurty is the author of the book on which the movie "Hud" was based.

That leaves Friday with nothing to do but work on the Bonfire in preparation for next Tuesday night's "blast." But for after the Bonfire, Town Hall has engaged another great special attraction—"The Union Gap." So plan ahead. Tickets are on sale now.

ESCAPE MOBILE

Dragged down by exam cram? Bugged by a roommate? Fed up with dorm meals?

Escape from the ordinary. Escape in an Olds Cutlass S.

With a Rocket 350 V-8 your escape will be quick and easy. And economical.

Or order it up with a console-mounted Hurst Shifter, and really get in sync with what's happening.

Or better yet, go directly to the head of the class with W-31 Force-Air Induction and put everybody down.

Custom Sport Wheels, GT stripes, buckets—you can get as far from the ordinary as you care to go.

The main thing is to escape, baby. And there's only one way to go.

Cutlass S. The Escapemobile.

Olds ads for college students are created by college students.

YOU'RE HERE TO GET AN EDUCATION. PERIOD.

With a full academic load, and maybe a job on the side, you need all the time you can find to get what you came for . . . a college education.

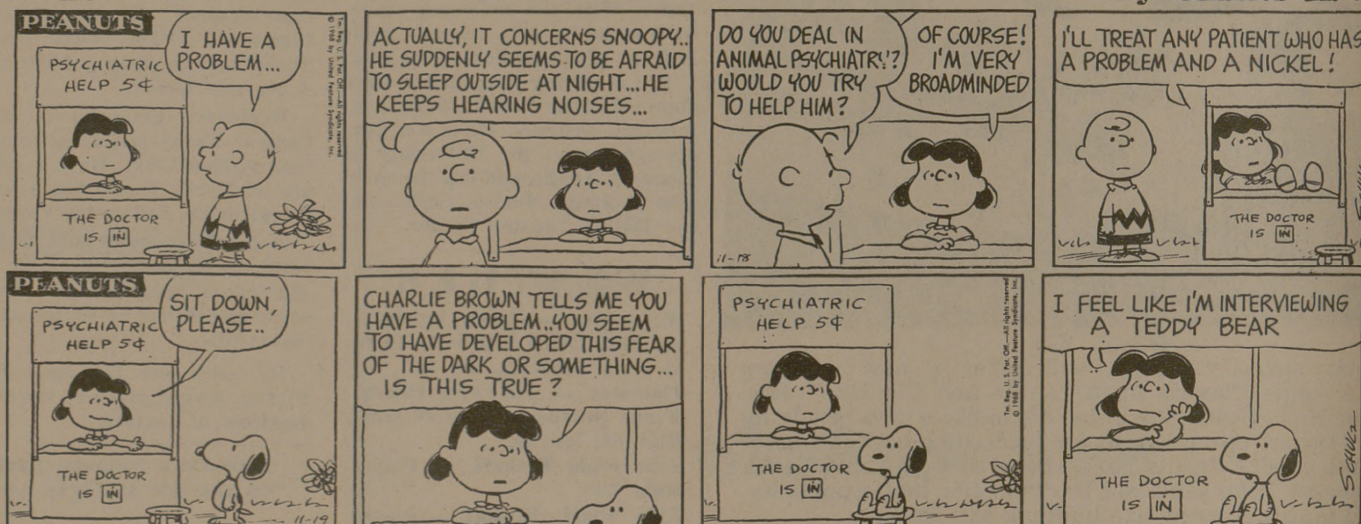

Marine Corps officer programs don't require on-campus training. Students enrolled in Platoon Leaders Class receive their training in the summer, either in two 6-week sessions or one 10-week session. And you can enroll in PLC as early as your freshman year, concentrate on your studies and look forward to serving as an officer of Marines after college graduation.

Ask a Marine. Talk to Major Pool who will be in the M.S.C. from 8:30 to 4:00 on the 19th, 20th, & 21st of Nov. 68.
