

A&M Fish Seek Fifth For Title

By RICHARD CAMPBELL
The Texas A&M Fish football team will hit the Kyle Field turf running Friday night as they meet the highly-touted Texas Yearlings in a showdown for the undisputed conference freshman title.

Coach Jim Keller's highflying Fish have coasted thus far to four straight wins while the Shorthorns have won three of four this year. If the Fish win this game, they have the undisputed league title in the bag with a 5-0 record because every other team has at least one loss.

The yearlings will enter the game after beating a fine TCU Wog squad, 42-27, with an inspired second half comeback behind quarterback Tony Adams. The Yearlings fumbled their way to a 20-point deficit before they could crank up their high octane running attack featuring freshman bruiser Jim Bertelson. They finally got going and ended the game with 297 yards rushing and added another 122 through the air.

The defense as a whole gave up more points in this game than in all of the three previous games added together. In all, the Fish have yielded only 23 points, an average of a touchdown per game. On offense, they have scored 63 to average 16 points per outing.

In last year's game, the Yearlings walloped the Fish, 34-22, in San Antonio for the fifth straight defeat of 1967 for the Fish. Texas went undefeated last year with a 5-0 record but this year the shoe is on the other foot as the Fish need only this win to take the undisputed title.

Expected to start for Texas on offense is: TE—Tommy Woodard; LT—Carl White; LG—Jerrel Bolton; C—George McIngvale; RG—Bob Huffman; RT—Travis Roach; SE—Sam Lawless; QB—Adams; LHB—Bertelson; RHB—

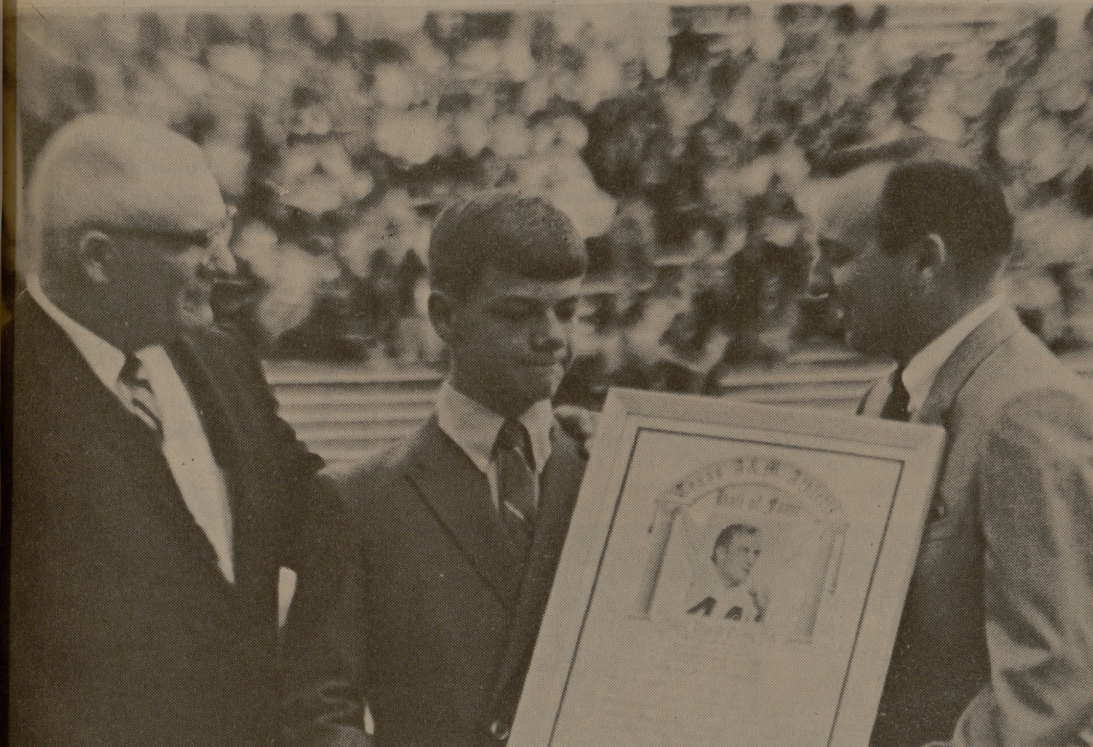

Robert Paine; and FB—Wayne Kirk.

The Fish will start on offense: WE—John Gardner; WT—Denyer Crawley; WG—Robin Davis; C—Ted Smith; SG—Leonard Forey; ST—Tom Ripple; SE—Joey Herr; QB—Joe King; TB—Steve Burks; FB—Doug Robbins; and WB—Joe Polasek.

The starters on defense will probably be: LE—Tom Evans; LT—Van Odom; MG—Mike Fuller; RT—James Dubcak; RE—Wayne Wheat; R—Corky Sheffield; LLB—Clifford Thomas; RLB—Steve Luebbehusen; LHB—Edwin Ebrom; RHB—Chris Johnson; and Saf—David Hoot.

A&M has defeated TCU, Baylor, Rice, and Tech. The Yearlings have defeated Baylor, Rice, TCU, and lost to SMU. The game will be a Shrine Benefit and all tickets may be purchased at $1.50 from any Shriner or at the gate.

Five Inducted Into Aggie Athletic Hall Of Fame

Five of Texas A&M's most illustrious athletes were inducted into the Texas A&M Athletic Hall of Fame Saturday at halftime of the Rice football game.

The five new inductees include: Charles B. Moran, deceased, athletic director and head coach of football, baseball, and track in the 1908-14 era. His six football teams had a record of 38-8-4 and his 1912 team set a season scoring record of 366-28.

The late Charles A. DeWare, Sr., class of 1908. Captain of both the football and baseball teams his senior year. DeWare Field House was named in his honor.

Barlow (Bones) Irwin, class of 1926. Texas A&M Athletic Director Emeritus. As a player, coach, and administrator, he served his alma mater well for 27 years. He was All-Southwest Conference in 1925.

James W. (Jimmie) Aston, class of 1933. Served as Cadet Colonel of the Corps and captain of the football team his senior year. Distinguished Alumni Award winner in 1967. He is now a Dallas banker of international fame.

John David Crow, class of 1958. Heisman Trophy winner in 1957; Walter Camp and Hartley Trophy winner in 1957; Texas Amateur Athlete of Year in 1957; All-SWC back in 1956 and '57

'Heidi' Draws Ire Of Football Fans

NEW YORK (AP)—Television's handling of tight scheduling problems caused by overtime ball games apparently will be revised as a result of Sunday's football game cutoff.

NBC dropped the New York Jets-Oakland Raiders AFL game with 50 seconds of play left and switched to the start of "Heidi" at 7 p.m. EST.

"They should have stayed on —no question about that," said Milt Woodard, president of the American Football League. "I have assurances now that there will be no such termination in the future . . ."

The 50 seconds the network cut proved to be crucial.

The Raiders came from behind, scored two quick touchdowns and won 43 to 32.

Millions of sports fans were ready to award NBC a goose egg for that decision. At least 10,000 outraged fans tried to call the NBC switchboard, and knocked it out of commission. Many others telephoned the police, jamming the emergency number.

Injured Meredith Will Be Back For Chicago Bear Tilt

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas Cowboy officials said Monday that quarterback Don Meredith, injured in Sunday's National Football League game with Washington, likely will be back in harness for Sunday's game with the Chicago Bears.

Meredith reinjured his left knee in a 44-24 victory over the Redskins, but a Cowboy spokesman said Meredith probably would be throwing again by Wednesday and is being listed as a probable starter.

and All-American back in 1957. Now playing pro football with the San Francisco 49ers.
