

Hargett Tops In Stallings' Book

"I don't think there is any in the country better than Edd," says Texas A&M Coach Gene Stallings about his record-breaking, cool-headed quarterback Edd Hargett. "If he doesn't make someone's team (All-America), it'll be a great shame."

Stallings is realistic enough to recognize that won-lost records have a lot to do with a player's making honor teams. "If Edd were on a winning team or on a good football team, he'd be a cinch All-America. But, he led us to the Southwest Conference title and Cotton Bowl win last year and we didn't have a good team. We just made a lot of big plays, something we haven't done this season."

What Stallings hesitates to mention, for fear of it being taken as an alibi, is the rash of injuries that all but ruined his team this year. Tailback Larry Stegent, fullback Wendell Housley, wingback Bob Long, linebacker Bill Hobbs, defensive tackle Harvey Aschenbeck and split end Tommy Maxwell—all of them first-class players—have missed from one to three full games this year. And there are nearly a dozen others, like offensive tackle Carl Gough, out for the season with a knee injury that required surgery, who have been sidelined.

Yet, Hargett has had a sensational year throwing the football. Now, with the Texas game coming up on national TV Thanksgiving, the brilliant (142 I.Q.) signal caller has these national standings and SWC records in hand.

NATIONAL ALL-TIME

Total Offense (career)
5,258 yards, ranks sixth now and needs only 33 yards to move into fifth ahead of Steve Spurrier of Florida fame.

Passes Completed (career)
381 . . . ranks fourth now and needs only 12 to pass Spurrier. He is 24 behind second-place Billy Stevens of University of Texas at El Paso.

Passing Yardage (career)
5,158 yards . . . ranks third now and is 314 yards behind second-place Jerry Rhome of Tulsa.

Consecutive Passes

Without Interception
Hargett now has 171 in the last 3 1/4 games. The national mark is 198 set by Rhome at Tulsa.

HARGETT'S SWC CAREER RECORDS
Most Passed Attempted..... 776

Most Completions..... 381
Most Passing Yardage.....5,158
Most Offensive Plays.....1,037
Total Offense Yardage.....5,258

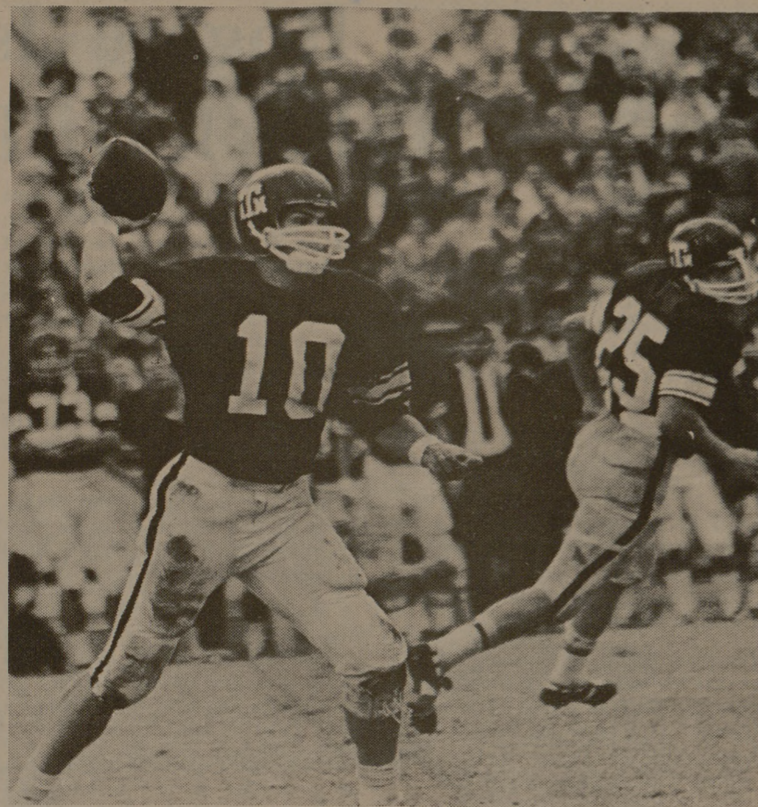

He is now tied with TCU's famed Sammy Baugh with 38 career touchdown passes. The SWC has produced such great passers as Baugh, Bobby Layne, Don Meredith, Don Trull and Terry Southall and yet Hargett has passed all of them in all categories of throwing the football.

It goes without saying that Hargett owns all the A&M school records in passing and total offense.

And, if honors are doled out on individual performances, rather than on team success, Hargett must get serious consideration from all the All-America teams.

NAVY TAKES STOCK
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Mike Stock is a new face on the Navy coaching staff this fall. The former Big 10 fullback from Northwestern is working with the Middle receivers.

Stock was freshman coach at the University of Buffalo for two seasons before moving here last spring.

Shriners Sponsor Aggie Fish Game

The Bryan - College Station area will have the appearance of a Shrine convention on Friday as Shriners from Houston, Waco and Austin make their appearance for the A&M Fish-TU Shorthorn game on Kyle Field.

The undefeated Fish tangle with the Shorthorns in a night game beginning at 7:30 p.m., a game sponsored by the Brazos Valley Shrine Club in cooperation with the Athletic Department of Texas A&M University.

According to D. A. "Andy" Anderson, of the local Shrine Club, Potentates from Arabia

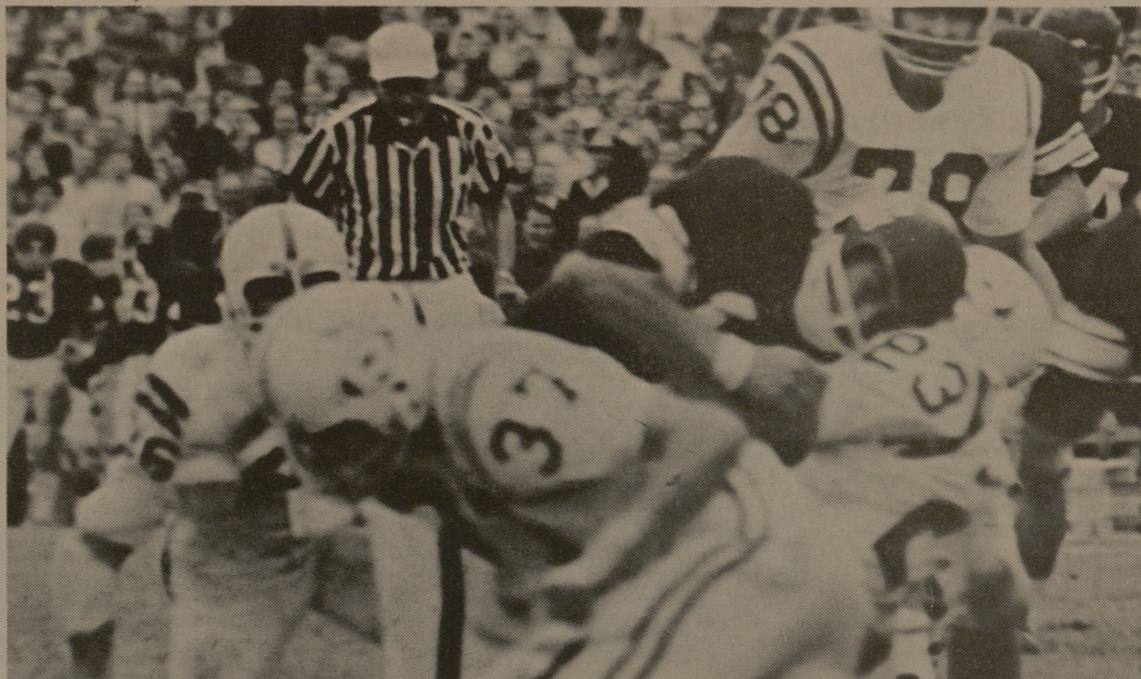

Temple in Houston and Ben Hur Temple from Austin will be present for and participate in the activities.

Over 150 Shriners and their ladies will join with the local Shrine group, Anderson said, in helping to make the preliminary and half-time activities one that participants will not forget.

The pre-game activity will include a flag raising ceremony by the Legion of Honor Unit from the Arabia Temple in Houston, all members of which are members of the V.F.W.

Also on the schedule at mid-game, according to Anderson, is a performance by the National Exhibition Champion Motor Drill Team of Arabia Temple. The Allen Academy band will also come in for their share of attention, he continued.

Tickets are available from any Shrine member, at local banks, or at the game for $1.50 per ticket.
