

Grimsley Picks SMU, Hogs

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — You can't see it, you can't touch it, you can't smell it but emotion will tip the scales this week in traditional year-end games between old rivals.

In many cases, it's a flip of the coin but we like Harvard over Yale and Missouri over Kansas in our upset specials with Southern California standing off an underdog effort by UCLA.

Last week: 47-11 for .807.
Season: 368-107, .773.

Ag Tankers Tangle With TU Tonight

The Texas A&M water polo teams, both varsity and B squads, will tangle with University of Texas teams in P. L. Downs Jr. Natatorium tonight.

The B-team match will be at 7 p.m. and the varsity match will follow. Water polo matches are of 45-minute duration.

The Aggie varsity players are Larry Linn, John Greenhut, Tom Sparks, Don Boyd, Colin Dunn, David George, Hank Paup, Robert Dommel, Steve Henry, Glen Draper, Bill Stullkin and Jerry Deutsch.

'Bama Accepts Gator Bowl Bid

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Alabama's crimson tide was invited and immediately accepted Wednesday an invitation to meet Missouri in the Gator Bowl football game, the 10th straight bowl game for a "Bear" Bryant Alabama team.

Selection of Alabama for the Dec. 28 nationally-televized game was announced here by Nelson Harris Jr., chairman of the Gator Bowl Selection Committee. Acceptance came from Dr. Frank Rose, president of the University of Alabama, at Tuscaloosa.

Both Alabama and the Missouri Tigers have 7-2-0 records.

Harvard 19, Yale 7: This is the first time since 1909 these old antagonists have been headed with perfect records. Harvard's defense should stop Yale's spectacular Brian Dowling and Calvin Hill.

Ohio State 27, Michigan 24: The rugged Buckeyes slow up but don't stop Michigan's 1-2 punch, Ron Johnson and Dennis Brown.

Southern California 35, UCLA 14: Usually you can throw form out the window on this one, but who can throw out the great O. J.?

Missouri 35, Kansas 30: Two powerful teams with the Tigers having an edge psychologically on home grounds.

Penn State 43, Pittsburgh 8: If it were left to the Humane Society, they wouldn't permit it.

Arkansas 33, Texas Tech 21: The high-scoring Razorbacks make a bid for the Southwest Conference crown and a bowl bid.

Southern Methodist 29, Baylor 18: The Methodists and Jerry Levas make believers of the comeback Baptists.

Washington 14, Washington State 7: Defensive battles are rare this year but this looks like a grunt-and-groaner.

Duke 25, North Carolina 19: Leo Hart and Henley Carter should prove an unbeatable battery for the Blue Devils.

Clemson 20, South Carolina 14: South Carolina isn't as strong since Fred Zeigler was lost with a broken collarbone.

California 30, Stanford 23: The improved Golden Bears, at home, stand off a resurgent rival for a repeat victory.

Tennessee 23, Kentucky 17: The Wildcats traditionally play their best game against the Vols, but the Orange team is too good.

Intramural Round-Up

The intramural story:

In Class C basketball, the most exciting game was between Fowler and Moore, with Moore forging ahead to take the lead and the game, 31-28, to remain undefeated for the year. Both Law and Meteorology brought undefeated records into their game. Law was held to only 11 points in the first half but surged ahead to finish at 36-22 to take over their league lead.

Davis Hall, down eight points at the half, made an outstanding comeback to beat winless Hughes Hall, 34-24. Hughes could muster but two points in the second half. Phi Delta Sigma battled the Central Americans in a rough finish but finally pulled away, 35-24. Mitchell Hall, led by Kirk Maestri's 20 points, downed Puryear, 33-16. In one Class A game, Sqd. 10 walloped Sqd. 7, 37-17.

The standings for Class A including their first three activities, football, bowling, and handball are: 1. Sqd. 12, 210 pts.; 2. G-1, 190 pts.; 3. E-2, 185 pts.; 4. F-2, 180 pts.; 5. A-1, 175 pts.; 6. Sqd. 4, 172 pts.; 7. B-1 and A-2 (tie), 170 pts.; 9. five way tie, 165 pts.

Squadron 12 won both the bowling and handball titles while E-2 was the football victor. The standings for Class C will be posted at the intramural office upon completion of the handball playoffs.

Chemist Testifies That Dancer's Image Was Drugged

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A Nebraska chemist testified Wednesday that he ran a series of tests on a urine specimen sent him shortly after the 1968 Kentucky Derby and all except one produced negative results.

He told the Kentucky State Racing Commission that another test for the presence of phenylbutazone showed "a very weak positive."

Louis Harris of Lincoln, Neb., said he did not learn until sometime later that the specimen was from Dancer's Image, the Derby winner who was disqualified and placed last on the basis of a chemist's report.

Perkins Selected NFL Offensive Player-Of-Week

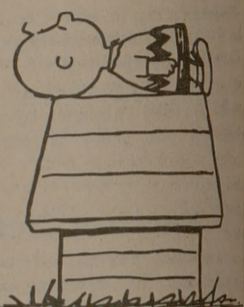

NEW YORK (AP) — Mention the Dallas Cowboys and people talk about Bob Hayes, Don Meredith or the Doomsday Defense. They usually overlook Don Perkins, the workhorse of the ball club.

Perkins, an explosive runner who makes the most out of his 5-foot-10, 204-pound frame, has been among the National Football League's rushing leaders for seven years. He missed his first year because of injuries.

When Perkins ran for 103 yards in 13 carries Sunday in Washington he moved into the No. 5 spot in the all-time rushing charts of the league. He is No. 1 among the active players with 5,962 yards since Jim Taylor decided to retire at New Orleans.

Perkins' feat earned him the Associated Press' nod as NFL offensive player of the week.

It might be an identity crisis...
