

SWC Leaders Tangle With UH Tuesday At Delmar

By JOHN PLATZER
Coach Shelby Metcalf's Aggie basketballers take time out from their Southwest Conference wars Tuesday night to challenge arch-rival University of Houston at Delmar Gym in Houston.

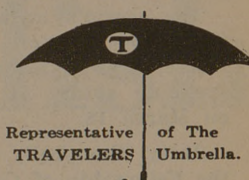

Texas Christian Saturday night at G. Rollie White. Mike Heitmann connected from the corner with only five seconds left in the game to give A&M the Cinderella victory.

half for 24.1 percent and went to the dressing room trailing 42-31. In the second half the Aggies quickly narrowed the margin to 5 points before the Frogs quickly increased it back to 13. The Aggies started chipping away at the lead then until Heitmann's last second shot sent them ahead for the first time since the first three minutes in the contest.

Peret paced A&M's scoring with 16 points apiece while Heitmann had 15 and Harry Bostic contributed 12. Bostic hurt his ankle while scoring a basket in the second half and is not expected to see action Tuesday.

Four Aggies are currently averaging in double figures for the season with Barnett leading the way with 18.3 while Peret is at 16.8, Benefield at 12.8 and Heitmann at 11.8.

Fish Travel To Austin To Test Texas Yearlings

By RICHARD CAMPBELL
The Texas Aggie Fish will put their four-game winning streak on the line Saturday, Feb. 1, when they tackle the Texas Yearlings in their first game since the holidays.

parade with a 17.5 average and 5.3 rebounding norm. Rick Duplantis is third in scoring with a 12.8 average and second in rebounding with 10.8 per game. The other starter in double figures is Robert Threadgill with an 11.5 norm and 8.8 rebounds per contest. The last starter is Frank Farnsworth with a 7-0 point output and 5.3 rebounds.

ed down 15 rebounds. Watkins is hitting 65 percent of his shots from the floor and also has connected on 83 percent of his free throws to lead the Fish in both categories.

The Yearlings are also undefeated for the year averaging over 90 points per game. Their big gun for the season so far has been Scooter Lenox, brother of former Aggie great Bennie Lenox, who has been burning the nets at a 25 points per game pace.

The Fish game will follow the varsity contest between the Longhorns and Aggies.

11 cures for student unrest.

The brooding palace and beehive tombs of Mycenae. The royal apartments of the Sun King. Tutankhamen's treasure. The Temple of Venus at Baalbek. The Labyrinth on Crete. The teeming bazaars of Cairo. The Blarney Stone. Archaeologists who tell you more about a ruin than just who ruined it.

That's just a small sample of what's included in Olympic's 11 Student Tours. We figured that students are a lot more adventurous and curious than most travelers. So we weren't afraid to be a little far out when we planned our itineraries.

But of course we didn't neglect any of the more down-to-earth details. Like deluxe or first-class hotels throughout. Departure dates that fit right into your spring or summer vacation. From 15 to 60 days. And, of course, Olympic's special student prices.

Mav Owners Seek Coach

DURHAM, N. C. (AP) — The head of a sports organization which has bought the Houston franchise in the American Basketball Association says a new coach will be named at the end of the season, and that Press Maravich, Frank McGuire and Bones McKinney are being considered.

Maravich is head coach at Louisiana State, McGuire coaches at the University of South Carolina, and McKinney, an official with the North Carolina Department of Corrections, formerly coached Wake Forest University.

Jim Gardner, president of Southern Sports Corp., said that Jim Weaver will be released as head coach and that the team will be completely revamped, but it will finish the season in Texas.
