

Hebert Leads At Jacksonville

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Lionel Hebert, 41, paunchy, and recovering from arm ailments that threatened to knock him off the tour, fired an almost flawless five-under-par 67 Thursday for an opening round lead in the $100,000 Greater Jacksonville Open Golf Tournament.

His position wasn't comfortable.
Eighteen players were within two shots of him — seven a stroke back at 68 and eleven two shots off the pace at 69, one of them Lionel's older brother, Jay, 44, playing with calcium chips in his shoulder big as a half dollar.

Also in the 69 group were Lee Trevino, the wise-cracking U. S.

Open champion, and always formidable Jack Nicklaus.

Spurred by the brightest weather of the winter tour — sunshine, temperature in the 70s and little wind — half a hundred players cracked the 72 par of the 7,221-yard Deerfield course, a relatively flat layout spotted with lakes and short-cut doglegs.

Tied at 68 were the veteran Gardner Dickinson, Ray Floyd, Bert Weaver, Bob Smith and Jerry Heard.

Heard is a 21-year-old ranch-er's son from Visalia, Calif., who quit college at San Jose State last fall, typical of the new young Turks fighting the established stars for the $6 million in gold on the tour.

It was just an average day for some of the golfing millionaires and headline heroes as the tough, brash newcomers continued to assert themselves.

Bill Casper, the top money winner last year couldn't sink his six to eight-foot putts and settled for a 71. Arnold Palmer, playing with a lame back, shot 70 while South Africa's Gary Player, one of the diminishing figures in the once big three, scrambled to a 72.

"My hip doesn't bother me at all, but I was always conscious of it," said Palmer, who withdrew from the tournament at Orlando, Fla., two weeks ago because of a hip ailment. "But I felt better than I have in a long time."

Wooden Named Coach-Of-Year

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—John Wooden of UCLA was named Coach of the Year Thursday by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Wooden, whose top-ranked Bruins seek their third consecutive national title this weekend, received the award at the coaches' annual honors luncheon.

Wooden, whose team has lost only two games in three years, previously was named Coach of the Year by the Associated Press.

Bill Callahan of American International College was named the college-division Coach of the Year.

Realignment Topic Of Grid Meetings

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)— The American Football League, its owners probably more unified than at any time in its nine-year history, carried their thoughts on total realignment for 1970 to the National League Thursday after discarding the possibility of maintaining the status quo.

No one, not even Commissioner Pete Rozelle, was talking much after the morning session.
All a spokesman for Rozelle would say was, "They discussed several things."

The joint session was the first on realignment since Monday, the first day of the winter meeting, when the 26 owners of the two leagues received the alternatives for 1970.

The six-man joint study committee unanimously recommended retention of the present 16-team NFL and 10-team AFL with the addition of interleague games. AFL owners, led by Paul Brown of Cincinnati, and Gerald Phipps of Denver, have eliminated that possibility by their unified stand.

They want total realignment, and NFL owners appeared resigned to capitulating to some form of reshuffling of the teams.

"What else did they pay $18 million for" one unnamed NFL owner commented.
The $18 million is the indemnity the AFL agreed to pay the NFL when they agreed to merge on June 8, 1966.

Brown, who has emerged as a strongman of the AFL at these meetings, said the morning session was spent "laying the groundwork."

"The AFL people are interested in gaining realignment," the Bengal boss said. "They're open to how it should be done, and they're interested in listening to whatever ideas anyone has. The NFL people have a lot of experience in these matters, and we want to hear their thoughts."
