In 1965, we first offered graduating Aggies the popular plan of 100% financing at bank rates and other unique features. Now, for the first time by any dealer, we offer car leasing at even lower monthly rates than car payments.

See us about our plan now.

What Chevy car leasing gives you is the pride of non-ownership

(and a few tax advantages, too)

Your gleaming new Chevy—you don't have to buy it, if you'd rather not. You can lease it from Chevyway.

Leasing may hold some advantages for you. Possible tax breaks, improvements in tax records, the depreciation factor—all reasons for considering leasing.

Come see us. As Chevyway/Chevrolet dealers, we offer total transportation—selling, leasing or renting. Now you can choose the way to drive a new Chevrolet.

YMCA Officers To Attend 'Human Development' Lab

YMCA student cabinet officers will head a delegation to a laboratory workshop in human development Friday, announced Logan Weston.

Weston, A&M religious life coordinator and YMCA general secretary, said the program is designed to "give insight into problems in communication, the use of power, decision making, participation and conflict resolution."

He added the meeting will help determine "why we get the different types of reactions we do from others."

Cabinet participants include David Howard, Gary Onderson, Chip Hill, Ed Donnell and Bill Mahomes.

A&M is one of 16 colleges and universities expected to take part in the April 11-13 workshop at the Baylor Recreation Camp near Waco.

Workshop trainer will be Dr. D. Maitland Huffman, assistant professor of management at the University of Texas, at Austin.

Weston said Huffman is described as a "young, dynamic professor who has had extensive experience with social agencies, business and industry in developing skill in creating and utilizing human resources." Weston described Huffman as an experienced trainer in sensitivity development and decision making.

"Problems, with which students are dealing every day, will be handled by...experienced in-put within the weekend," added Weston, "and stimulated by exercises which have been developed and tested over the past several years."

He said the program will help develop student's capacity to realize what forces are at play in a group, how their behavior influences what happens with others, and what they can do to make a group more effective.

"Questions about student power, black identity, white racism, the generation gap and sex attitudes will be discussed, or whatever issues are uppermost in the minds of the students in each group," he added.

Sessions start at 7 p. m. Friday ending at 11:30 a. m. Sunday.

The regional YMCA meeting will include students from Arkansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana as well as Texas.

Baptist Church Here To Hold Revival Services This Weekend

The Rev. James V. Hamblen of Houston will conduct revival services at the First Baptist Church of College Station this weekend.

He will be joined by Edwin M. Markham of Brownwood who will direct music during the three-day special emphasis service.

Services will be at 7 p. m. Friday and Saturday and at 10:45 a. m. and 7:20 p. m. Sunday.

The services are part of a gigantic Western Hemisphere simultaneous revival emphasis involving North, Central and South America Baptist churches.

The Crusade of the Americas, it has become known, originated with an idea by a Brazilian pastor in 1965. It was later adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in cooperation with several other Baptist bodies.

Similar revivals will continue to be conducted at Baptist churches in the Western Hemisphere through May.

Hamblen has been pastor of the Oldham Memorial Baptist Church, Houston, since 1964. A native of Harlingen, he is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He has served churches as pastor in Oklahoma as well as Texas.

An active denominational worker, Hamblen has held several Union Baptist Association (Houston) positions and served on the Southern Baptist Convention's Arrangement Committee in 1968.

Markham, director of student promotion and alumni activities at Howard Payne College, is also a graduate of Howard Payne and Southwestern Seminary.
