SPLASH!

Ag Golfers Take 2nd Round Lead

With three Texas Aggie golfers tied for second place the Aggies took over sole possession of the lead Thursday in team medal play after two rounds of the All-American Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in Houston.

Bill Wade, Duke Butler, and Reggie Majors are all tied for second place with 143's after two days of playing the 6,690-yard, par 36-36-72 Pine Forest Country Club Course.

The Aggies broke an opening round tie with Texas and Arizona to take over the team lead after totaling 580. Steve Melnyk of Florida fired a five-under-par 67 to take over the second round lead by seven strokes over five others, including the A&M trio.

Chip Stewart of Texas, the first round leader, ballooned to a 78 coupled with his opening 68 to put him 10 off the pace with a 146 total.

Majors, a junior from Houston Waldrip, shot a two-under-par 70 to pace the Aggies in Thursday's play. Both Wade and Ellis shot identical 72's to go with their first round 71's in totaling 143. Deadlocked also at 143 were Drue Johnson of Arizona who had 69-74 and Charles Brownfield of Arkansas with a 72-71.

'Mural Action Picks Up Fast

In the intramural swimming preliminaries this week, Sq. 2 posted the best time in the freestyle relay and Crocker Hall was the fastest in the medley relay. Charles Hudson of A-1 leads in the backstroke, Robert Wink of F-1 in the breaststroke, Charles Brown of Sq. 2 in the butterfly, and Bob Smith of Sq. 10 in the 100 meter freestyle.

Law Hall's tennis team, composed of Dudley Vicker, Gregory Repose, John Shaw, Ken Alford, Steven Johnson, and Jim Smallwood, has gone undefeated into the finals and they will meet Phi Delta Sigma. Phi Delta Sigma is also undefeated. They are composed of Tim Fischer, Tom Howe, Ron Masterson, Steve Noack, Doug Smith and Charles Jones.

In Class A tennis, Sq. 13 and A-2 will meet to see who will play against the champion of League B. Sq. 9 meets F-1, Maroon Band meets Sq. 4 and D-1 meets the winner of League D.

Star Gets The Point
DENISON, Tex. (AP) — Catcher Ralph Elliott of Denison High School almost dropped his face mask Wednesday when he looked up to see a helicopter towing a sign that read: "TCU Wants Ralph Elliott to be a Fighting Frog."

The 18-year-old Elliott was an all-district end in football and also made the all-district basketball team. He is currently playing on the baseball squad.

Clendenon Rejoins Expos

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Don Clendenon reported to the Montreal Expos Thursday, hopeful he hadn't embarrassed baseball or himself in the muddled Expos-Houston Astros trade.

Clendenon was picked in the expansion draft by Montreal from Pittsburgh. The Expos in turn traded the first baseman to Houston for Rusty Staub and Jesus Alou. Clendenon then retired from baseball, and Houston demanded Staub back.

Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn had to step into the breach ordering Staub to remain with Montreal. Staub added to the confusion by saying he'd quit before returning to Houston where he was having problems with some Astros' brass. Court action was threatened by the Astros against the commissioner's decision.

Then, about three weeks ago, Clendenon decided to come out of his brief retirement and report to the Expos. He was left in the South with the club's minor league teams to get in shape.

Actually, the 32-year-old Clendenon has his cake and he's eating it. He quit to devote his time as a vice president of Scripto Ind.; to direct his new restaurant in Atlanta, and help with a $5 million apartment project he has an interest in.

"I'm still in business," he said Thursday after reporting to Manager Gene Mauch. "I'm still vice president of my company. All the things I retired for have been placed somewhat in order. I can play baseball and dedicate myself to baseball. No one can spend 12 or 13 years in a profession without loving it. I definitely love baseball. I wouldn't want to have anyone in baseball disgruntled at my retirement."

Clendenon, who hit .257 last year at Pittsburgh, but was sixth in the league with 87 RBI, can't understand all the excitement his retirement causes.

"I'm not a superstar and I didn't deserve all this fanfare," he said. "Perhaps my retirement was untimely."
