

Sheffield Passes Maroons Past Whites

Jimmy Sheffield, junior quarterback from Houston, ran for one touchdown and passed for two more in sparking the Maroons to a 36-0 victory over the Whites in a controlled scrimmage that marked the sixth session of Texas A&M's spring football drills Wednesday.

Sheffield scored on a four-yard run off the quarterback option. He hit tight end Ross Brupbacher with a 65-yard scoring aerial and then came back to hit the split end with a 39-yard touchdown heave. He completed 6 of 7 for 154 yards for the afternoon.

Robert Stansberry, junior from Eden and Rocky Self, sophomore from San Antonio, also guided the Maroons to touchdowns. Tailback Steve Burks, the workhorse in the running department, scored once with Self at quarterback and against with Stansberry at the reins. Both were short plunges. Burks for the afternoon gained 100 yards on 24 carries.

Linebacker Mike Caswell, senior from Houston Smiley, scored the other touchdown when he intercepted a White pass and raced 70 yards.

Brupbacher had a big afternoon in catching passes as he grabbed 6 for 127 yards and the one touchdown. He had another apparent touchdown but was caught from behind after a 29-yard gain.

White passes while end Jim Piper of Brownwood recovered one fumble.

For the Whites, wingback Joey Herr turned in a fine job as a receiver. The Fort Worth youngster caught four for 65 yards, three thrown by Kyle Gary and one by Joe Mac King.

The Aggies will resume drills Friday and will stage another scrimmage Saturday afternoon.

The Texas Aggies covered virtually all phases of play Tuesday as spring football drills resumed this week.

Punt coverage was one item and redshirt sophomore Mitch Robertson of Abilene Cooper was booming 'em high and far during that session. The Aggies lost ace punter Steve McNeal after a three-year stint and Robertson leads the list of punting candidates.

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Arts and Letters and Traffic Mark head a field of six in the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes Thursday at Keeneland.

purse winner, Forward Pass. Arts and Letters runs for Paul Mellon's Rokeby Stable. Going against the favorites will be Poplar Hill Farm's Mr. Coincidence, D. W. Scott's Hot Coals, Benjamin and Jones' Walking Stick and A. R. Donaldson's Dondougold.

This campus is crawling with leg men

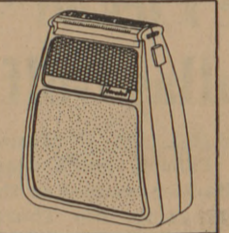

Your legs get the once-over every time you turn around. And they'd better look great. Once over with the sleek new Lady Norelco, and they will.

The rest of you will, too. Because the Lady Norelco isn't just a fast, close, comfortable leg shaver. It's a fast, close, gentle underarm shaver too. And it's even an easy-to-handle trimmer that takes off those wispy little neck strands that sneak up on Sassoons between appointments. It's a whole new way to stay great looking.

So is the new Norelco Ladyshave pictured at right. It comes in a purple and white travel purse and does a good job of pampering your legs, underarms and pocket-book.

Lady Norelco and Norelco Ladyshave. Two fabulous new ladies' shavers. For the benefit of man.
