Texas Open Start Plagued By Weather, Lack Of Stars

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The forecast for continued foul weather, the absence of most of the top names in the game and the presence of some unwanted visitors — snakes — plagued the start of the $100,000 Texas Open Golf Tournament Wednesday. Only a handful of golf big guns, including Frank Beard, Miller Barber and Dan Sikes, were on hand for Wednesday's pro-am over the rolling, 7,138-yard, par 71 Pecan Valley course. The event was played under the threat of a tornado and low-lying skies, which have dumped week-long rains on the area. Flamboyant Lee Trevino, the grinning guy who owns the U.S. Open title, had to miss practice rounds and the pro-am because of other commitments, but was scheduled to be on hand when the field of 144 begins the 72-hole test Thursday. Tourney officials were dismayed by a flock of absentee top names whom Ray Creek, president of the sponsoring San Antonio Golf Association, said had made oral commitments and failed to put in an appearance. Among them are Julius Boros, who won the 1968 PGA title on this course; Billy Casper, still bothered by allergies; Bruce Devlin, winner of the Byron Nelson Classic two weeks ago; Gene Littler, the season's leading money winner, and Masters Champion George Archer, still nursing a burned hand. Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player had not entered the tournament and are not here. Player is vacationing in South Africa while Palmer and Nicklaus — each having trouble with his game — are taking a rest. That left the soft-spoken Beard; Barber, who formerly played out of this club; the long-hitting Sikes; Trevino, No. 2 in the money-winning list, and lefty Bob Charles of New Zealand as the top candidates with Beard figured the most likely to succeed. There also are a lot of snakes out there. Dozens of the reptiles, rattlers and water moccasins, have come out with the week-long rains that are forecast to continue.

Ag Car Club To Host Rally

The Texas A&M Sports Car Club has announced the "1968-69 ... It was a very good year rally". This will be the last event sponsored by the club this year. The rally will be scored two ways. One will be of the normal time/speed/distance scoring procedure of one point off for each second early or late into a check point. It will also be scored at the same time and will consist of the gas mileage of the car while on the route times the car's weight in tons. (a 2,000 lb. VW with 30 mpg will multiply out to be the same as a 4,000 lb. Cadillac getting only 15 mpg). Both parts will have equal weight in the scoring. Registration begins at 2:00 Saturday, in the parking lot across from Sibsa. The first car will leave at 3:00. There will be trophies through third place (participants permitting), and the cost is only $3.00 per car. There will be distinctive dash plaques for all entrants.
