seated from the College of Liberal Arts, I offer nine objectives for a better Texas A&M University.

ELECTION REGULATIONS - We need either a new Election Code or a new Election Commission so that future Presidential Elections do not turn out to be a farce like the one of this year.

- SPEAKER'S POLICY - The speaker's policy should be liberalized so that speakers could represent a broader base of contemporary thought. Are Aggies too naive to listen to today's controversial issues from both sides?
- ACADEMIC PROGRAMMING - In order for A&M to become a true state university, it needs to expand its course offerings and degrees, ESPECIALLY in the College of Liberal Arts.
- WOMEN! - Texas A&M is a state university and is financed mainly by state taxes. Therefore, it should provide equal admission and housing for all qualified students. When will some people in high places acknowledge the fact that women have to sleep somewhere too!!!
- DEAD DAY! - Not only do Aggies need a dead week without quizzes and assignments, but we need at least one whole Dead Day without classes!

front of Henderson Hall. As far as I'm concerned, this is a regular football weekend." Torn added.

"We will be together during the pre-game ceremonies and the Aggie War Hymn, but when that's over, it's White against Maroon."

The game, which will start at 2:30 p.m., features the national champion Fish Drill Team in half time activities. Introduced at the intermission will be a number of the schoolboy blue-chip footballers signed by the Aggies this spring.

The game is looked upon as a test of Aggie spirit by the yell leaders.

"The students at A&M have always held the unofficial title of the most spirited in the conference. By turning out in mass we can demonstrate why Aggies will never lose it," Torn said.

thing about it before the problem gets out of hand.

Q. What other things would you like to see done next year if you are elected?

A. I would like to see a more unified campus. I would also like to see more activities for the student body on weekends.

Garry Mauro

Q. Why do you think you are qualified to hold the office of student body president?

A. I feel that because of the committees I've chaired this last year I've learned who or where to go to get action on student problems. While ideas are important, unless you can put ideas to work your efforts will be fruitless. If I am elected, I will be able to implement student ideas and work to eliminate student problems.

Q. What do you consider to be the major problems on the campus?

A. The major problem is the lack of communications between different interest groups. There is also the problem of Corps-civilian communications. Each of these groups seems to have a really distorted picture of the other which could easily be cleared by getting together and talking out their problems. Students and student government are often working in completely different areas. The sooner all interest groups come together and find out just what the other group is like, the sooner we can all start working together to make this a still greater university.

Q. What do you propose to do about these problems?

A. One of the major purposes of the Senate is to act as a communications link between students and administration. If
