NEW YORK (AP) — Majestic Prince, the strapping, red colt may get his shot at the Triple Crown after all.

The Canadian-owned, Kentucky-bred 3-year-old colt who beat late-charging Arts and Letters in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness in a couple of stirring stretch duels, was shipped from Pimlico in Maryland to Belmont Park Wednesday in a sudden change-of-mind by owner Frank McMahon.

If all goes well, the unbeaten, $3 million-valued blueblood will run in the gruelling 1½ mile Belmont Stakes June 7, the last jewel of the Triple Crown for 3-year-olds.

No horse has swept all three classics since the mighty Citation did it in 1948.

"We'll look at him for the next few days and if he looks right, he'll run," said owner Frank McMahon at his Palm Beach, Fla., home. "Personally, I think he has a good chance of being in the race.

"Of course he won't run if he's not healthy, but we'll be looking at him up to the day of the race."

McMahon said Johnny Longden, trainer of the nine-race winner, "concurs absolutely" with this thinking about the Belmont.

Previously both McMahon and Longden said the colt would skip the Belmont and would be shipped back to California. Then the planned flight of Majestic Prince to California was canceled.

"We were going to ship him to California because he had lost some weight," said McMahon. "There's nothing wrong with him in any other way. He did look like he had gone down hill some but he usually comes back fast."

Majestic Prince, a $250,000 yearling buy, has lost about 100 pounds.

Longden, winning rider of the Triple Crown aboard Count Fleet in 1943 and who could be the first ever to complete a triple Crown slam as jockey and trainer, previously had been opposed to starting Majestic Prince in the Belmont.

Van Breda Kolff Happy In Switch To Underdog

DETROIT (AP) — "I've always liked the underdog and I think I'm going to enjoy it here," Bill Van Breda Kolff said Wednesday as he switched National Basketball Association coaching jobs from the successful Los Angeles Lakers to a perennial loser, the Detroit Pistons.

"Detroit has the material and I think something can be done," Van Breda Kolff told a news conference, adding: "I know it's a cliché, but I think we might surprise a few people."

Known as "Butch" in the trade, the 46-year-old Van Breda Kolff was given a two-year contract at an estimated $85,000 annually and became the eighth in a parade of Pistons coaches over the last 12 years.

He succeeds Paul Seymour, who took over from Donnis Butcher 61 days before the end of the 1968-69 season and who now becomes a scout and adviser in the Pistons' player procurement program.

Seymour asked to be relieved from coaching duties "for personal reasons." The Pistons finished sixth in the NBA's Eastern Division last season with a 32-50 record.

Summer Work
Is Yours
As Kelly Girl

Summer objectives: fun, money, stimulation, freedom. Not a bad way to go.

They are all yours this summer as a KELLY GIRL in Dallas. Pay rates are excellent. You'll be able to make money for tuition, books, clothes, travel or just plain fun. You'll gain great experience and poise, meet new persons on many interesting assignments.

KELLY GIRLS are the nationally-known leaders in the temporary services field. If you are able to type well, take shorthand, or run office machines, we probably can keep you busy as you desire all summer. If you have only general clerical abilities there is a good chance, too, of extra money through occasional assignments.

Ask some of your coed friends who have been KELLY GIRLS! They'll tell you it's the greatest. There's never a charge to you of course.
