

Two Decorated For Service

Army Maj. James G. McKnight of Bryan and Capt. John A. Adams of Cisco were decorated last week at Texas A&M for outstanding service in previous military assignments.

Both officers are studying for master's degrees through the Army's advanced degree program.

Capt. Adams, 28, received the Joint Service Commendation Medal for exceptional achievement during two years with the Defense Intelligence Agency in Washington, D. C.

A 1959 A&M graduate, Major McKnight was awarded the second and third Oak Leaf Clusters to his Commendation Medal and the Vietnamese Gallantry Cross with Silver Star. Col. Jim H. McCoy, commandant, presented the medals.

One of McKnight's clusters recognized bravery in subduing an intruder in a neighbor's apartment. He held the intruder, who was under influence of narcotics, until police arrived.

The third cluster cited his coordination and administration of logistics while executive officer of the 502nd Supply and Transport Battalion of the 2nd Armored Division.

Heroism in battle was cited by the South Vietnamese government decoration. The quartermaster officer was wounded in advising South Vietnamese officers in defense of a city, but continued fighting eight days until evacuated to a hospital.

The former battalion adjutant in the A&M corps served in Vietnam in 1967 following two years assignment at West Point. He was with the 2nd Armored Division at Fort Hood before enrolling at A&M last year.

McKnight is studying for a master's degree in computer science. The Aggie who studied insurance as an undergraduate, his wife, Barbara; nine-year-old daughter Jamea and six-year-old son Lee reside at 1606 Jersey.

Associate Prof. Dr. R. G. Anate of Hardin-Simmons where he was commissioned, is studying for a master's in operations research through the Industrial Engineering Department.

He received an M.B.A. at American University last year and was in Vietnam in 1965-66, with Headquarters of the 1st Logistics Command. The officer, his wife Patricia and two daughters, Jami 4 and Juli six months, reside at 1106 Westover.

Extension Courses Will Be Offered

Texas A&M's Department of Chemical Engineering will offer five graduate-level extension courses in different Texas locations during the fall term.

Associate Prof. Dr. R. C. Anthony said each of the courses have been accepted by the Graduate College and may be used as credit for a Master of Engineering degree.

The courses and areas they will be taught include: Chemical Engineering 608, Heat Transfer, at Freeport; Chemical Engineering 606, Advanced Unit Operations, at Galveston; Chemical Engineering 626, Transport Phenomena, at Victoria; Mathematics 610, Numerical Methods of Differential Equations, at Corpus Christi, and Mathematics 417, Numerical Analysis, at Kilgore.

The classes will start in September and continue with the regular university schedule through Jan. 16.

Students Prove Desire

Juanita and Jerry Wright are completing degree work at Texas A&M this summer, proving not all the idealism, enthusiasm and desire to institute meaningful change belong to those on the teenage side of 30.

The Arkansas school teachers expect to graduate with master's degrees this month.

It's taken sacrifice by the 51-year-old graduate student and his wife. They taught during the school year and studied summers at A&M four years.

"We can't complain," the energetic Arkansas Senior High science teacher of Texarkana commented. "In fact, it's been wonderful. Everything worked out so both of us could use my grant."

Common sense, careful planning and limiting luxuries enabled the former Cotton Belt Railroad yard clerk and his wife to achieve their degrees on Wright's assistantship. It is sponsored by Southwest Electric Power and the Schlumberger Foundation.

They stretched it further this year, sharing College View apartment study space with their 20-year-old son Tim, youngest of three children.

Juanita had her master's degree oral examination last week and has only to present a sociology term paper for her elementary education degree with a specialty in remedial reading.

"We're going to miss not packing for A&M study next summer," he remarked. "We are thinking about enrolling later for one session each summer, but not for a couple of years."

First, he says, will be putting in an irrigation well for the family garden. Then there are some Red River fish that have been missing the Wright influence.

Arkansas Senior High's 1969-

70 school year promises more challenge. Jerry, who decided as a high school sophomore that education was vital, has been made science department chairman on the basis of his advanced degree work.

Mrs. Wright is a remedial reading specialist for Pleasant Grove and Oak Grove schools. She will have more curriculum and testing program responsibility.

The silver-haired teachers established a policy of sharing studies since he worked nights in a Shreveport railroad yard and studied days for an associate degree at Texarkana Junior College.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

What makes them happy?

In our experience there is one place where you can be sure of seeing happy faces.

It isn't the bank—though certainly we have great respect for our banks. There people look intent, busy, serious with the financial responsibilities of life.

Nor is it at the ball game. There is no joy in Mudville when mighty Casey strikes out.

But when you go to church you see so many happy faces! It is as though people had left their troubles behind them . . . their fears . . . their worries . . . their little sadnesses and great sorrows.

Yet we know that no one can really leave these behind him. They are part of our life—and our life goes with us wherever we go.

But church is a place where men come to share their burdens with Someone Else . . . someone who cares . . . who helps . . . who strengthens.

And this kind of sharing—between man and God—has always been the root of true happiness.
