

WORLD'S RECORD HOLDER

Junior Curtis Mills, the defending world record holder in the 440-yard dash with a time of 44.7, returns to the Aggie track squad in 1970. Mills holds the Aggie track hopes as they try to capture the SWC track title.

Spring Sports On The Move

The spring of the year should bring more to Aggieland in 1970 than just spring fever.

The spring looks like it could bring a conference champ in any of the spring sports but after last season it seems as though 1969 may be the year of the cinderman for the Aggies.

With a little added depth on the squad, the Aggie track team could well challenge Texas and Rice for the SWC crown next year. Bolstered by strong performances from sophomores Curtis Mills and Rockie Woods, A&M enjoyed a third place finish in the 1969 SWC meet in Waco in May.

Woods, a high jumper-turned-sprinter, was the 100-yard dash champ with a time of 9.4 and if last year is any indication, he has speed to burn. His running mate, Mills, is the current world's record holder in the 440-yard dash after defeating Lee Evans in the NCAA meet in June. Both Mills and Woods are important cogs in the relay events for the 'fast' Aggies.

The 1969 edition of Aggie baseballers hope to improve on their disappointing fourth place finish in the conference race. The 1970 Cadets will be paced by junior pitcher Doug Rau and All-SWC outfielder (and footballer) Dave Elmendorf. If the Aggies are going to gather all of the marbles then they will have to deal harshly with the Texas Longhorns, 1969 champs, because they will again be favored.

The 1969 SWC golf champs will try to repeat their performance of last year with three of four of their top players returning. Only Bill Wade graduated from the foursome of Duke Butler, Reggie Majors, and Richard Ellis.

The swimming team will again field a strong conference contender but should finish no higher than third or fourth because of the superiority of both SMU and Texas Tech. A&M with many lettermen returning, should better their fifth place SWC finish last year.

Tennis is definitely on the upswing at Aggieland and a strong nucleus returns from a 21-15 squad. Jon Ragland, half of the SWC champion doubles team, returns to captain the team with help also expected from Mike Hickey, a junior letterman.
