Sheffield In Charge

Being exposed for a year to the wizardry of Edd Hargett has to be a big plus for Texas A&M quarterback Jimmy Sheffield. But it wasn't Hargett's passing prowess which most impressed the Houston junior.

"Edd was a great passer al- we all knew that Jimmy wa right," Sheffield says, "but his ing to be the quarterback." leadership was the thing that impressed me. Edd took charge on the field, and the players did what he said."

Sheffield wants to become technically proficient, of course, but his main goal now is taking command of the offense. If comments from fellow players are any guide. the 6-0, 180- pounder is reaching footballers reported for opening workouts Monday (Sept. 8), according to freshman coach Jim Keller.

Keller said the Fish team worked in shorts for a week before starting contact work Sept. 15. The Fish open the season Oct. 2 in Kyle Field against the TCU Wogs.

This year's highly-regarded recruits will be shooting for a second consecutive undefeated campaign. The 1968 Fish team posted a 5-0 record, the first in the school's records.

The 1969 Fish are: Jimmy Aycock, Fort Worth; Boice Best, Houston; Bruce Best, Houston; Max Bird, Amarillo; Thomas Burk, Houston; Buster Calloway, Ennis; Dennis Carruth, Dallas; Garland Childers, Odessa; Todd Christopher, Beaumont; Mike Coy, Boys Ranch; Brooks Doughtie, Pasadena; Brad Dusek, Temple; and Mike Faulkner, Victoria.

Andy Ferguson, Houston; Kent Finley, Abilene; Robert Gerasimowicz, Dickinson; Tommy Goodwin, Fort Worth; Gregg Hall, Houston; Roy Heifrin, Lancaster; Hoermann, Seguin; Eddie Hooper, Olton; Michael Ray Dorough, Paris; Lex James, Houston; Butch Kamps, Bellaire. V Kerbow, Corpus Christi; and Steve Kirk, Omaha-Naples.

senior center Jack Kovar. "I was as a sophomore when Larry Steon the other side in the spring game, but in the last couple of days before the end of spring training he really took over and we all knew that Jimmy was go-

"He's sure of himself," senior tight end Ross Brupbacher says. "He can run and he can throw and he believes he can score. We think a lot of Hargett here, but I have as much respect for Jimmy. If he does anything better than Edd it is run."

"Sheffield's not a bad quarterback," coach Gene Stallings comments. "I think he is going to be a better quarterback than a lot of people think."

The Houston Waltrip product is one of a host of Aggies from the Gulf Coast area, another factor which worked in Sheffield's favor. "Jimmy Adams and Tommy Sooy lived near me this summer so I got a lot of practice throwing to them," Sheffield said. Adams and Sooy are split ends for the Aggies.

Though Sheffield is a junior letterman, his monogram does not denote any quarterback experience. In fact, he has not had any game experience at the manunder slot since high school. He BATTALION CLASSIFIED gent was injured.

The year at tailback gave a good indication of Sheffield's running ability, a talent which A&M's offense hasn't had for several year. Jimmy came off the bench to post a 63-yard run against Texas Tech last year, and he gained 129 yards in his first full game at tailback.

Sheffield's talent carrying the ball is also a tipoff that the Aggies won't be throwing the ball 37 times a game as they did last year. "We'll have a more balanced offense," says Stallings.

"The only thing that concerns me about Sheffield is that he has not been tested in a game," Stallings says. "It takes a quarterback a little while to get accustomed to playing in front of a lot of people."

The first test will come Sept. 20 when the Aggies open against LSU in Baton Rouge. That one game in front of 68,000 screaming fans should be test enough.
