Marine Delegation Here Monday to Explain Programs

A Marine Corps officer selection team will visit the campus next week to explain commissioning programs to interested students.

The delegation will be headed by 1st Lt. Ronald E. Crane, who will be making his first official visit here since assuming duties as officer selection officer for the Central Texas region. He was formerly an artillery officer in Vietnam.

Corps team will operate an information booth in the Memorial Student Center. Later in the week, Crane will be joined by one or two other officers who hope to establish a second campus information center.

Lt. Crane said the team is particularly interested in explaining the Platoon Leaders Class (PLC) program to freshmen and sopho-

The PLC program offers students the opportunity to receive Marine commissions upon graduation by successfully completing two six-week periods of summer training at Quantico, Va. The summer training, Crane noted, can be conducted in one 10-week session if the student is an upperclassman when selected for the program.

In addition to conferring with

12 Seniors Named to March In Bugle Rank of Aggie Band

Twelve seniors who will march on the bugle rank of the Texas Aggie Band during 1969-70 have been named by Lt. Col. E. V. Adams, director.

Senior-booted cadets on the band's front row traditionally carry silver bugles and responsibility for starting precision maneuvers of the famed marching military organization.

Drum majors this year are John C. Otto Jr. of Dayton; Richard D. Garrett, Freeport, and Daniel W. Gower Jr., El Paso.

Marching on the bugle rank will be Band Commander Edwin Lamm III of San Antonio at right guide; Richard G. Sanchez, Maroon Band commander of San Angelo; George M. Williams Jr., San Antonio; Charles B. Barrett, supply officer, Cuero; Marion D. McNair, band scholastic officer, Corpus Christi.

Also, Richard H. Sweaney, Eagle Pass; William G. Fuller Jr., band adjutant, Poteet; John F. Small, band operations officer, Bandera; Marc V. Fergus, Abilene; Kenneth C. Bresnen Jr., band executive officer, Dallas, and Roland F. Bonewitz, White Band commander of Houston.

Though every member of the band must be prepared to lead maneuvers, the bugle rank usually guides intricate movements such as split band criss-crosses, minstrel turns and folded entrances.

Selection for the key positions is based on marching ability, military bearing and other criteria.

The longest word in the language? By letter count, the longest word may be pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis, a rare lung disease. You won't find it in Webster's New World Dictionary, College Edition. But you will find more useful information about words than in any other desk dictionary.

Take the word time. In addition to its derivation and an illustration showing U.S. time zones, you'll find 48 clear definitions of the different meanings of time and 27 idiomatic uses, such as time of one's life. In sum, everything you want to know about time.
