

4 Department Heads Named In New College of Education

Four new department heads have been appointed in the newly organized six-department College of Education.

Dr. Earl Knebel and Dr. Carl W. Landiss head Agricultural Education and Health and Physical Education Departments, respectively, as part of the new academic unit approved last summer by the Texas College and University System Coordinating Board.

Education Dean Frank Hubert announced the new departments and heads are curriculum and instruction, Dr. Glenn R. Johnson; educational administration, Dr. Lester R. Richardson; educational psychology, Dr. Arthur J. Roach Jr.; and industrial education, Dr. James L. Boone Jr.

In line with the organization that became effective this semester, Dr. Hubert appointed Dr. Earl Jones associate dean of academic programs; Dr. Charles E. McCandless, associate dean of student affairs, and Jerry J. Vincent, assistant to the dean.

Dr. Paul R. Hensarling is director of teacher placement and Dr. Donald L. Clark is research coordinator.

Three of the four new departments were organized from the former Education Department. The college's Industrial Education Department grew out of the former College of Engineering department.

Agricultural education is jointly administered by the Colleges of Agriculture and Education. Knebel, specialist in administration of teacher education in agriculture, is a full professor and received the Ed.D. from Oklahoma State. He has been a member of the A&M faculty since 1955 and became department head in 1961.

A 16-year veteran at A&M and department head two years, Landiss was awarded the Ed.D. at Pennsylvania State University. The professor's specialty is in curriculum and instruction in health and physical education.

Knebel and Landiss both earned master's degrees at A&M.

The Curriculum and Instruction Department head has been at A&M two years and is associate professor of education. Johnson took the Ed.D. at Teachers College, Columbia, and specializes in curriculum and instruction and teaching strategies.

Formerly A&M Consolidated Schools superintendent, Richardson has been on the A&M faculty three years. Recently promoted to professor of educational administration, he received the Ed.D. from the University of Houston. Richardson's primary field is public school administration.

Roach specializes in counseling and guidance and holds a Ph.D. from Notre Dame. He is an associate professor of education. The educational psychology head also came to A&M in 1966.

Associate professor of industrial education, Boone received the Ed.D. at A&M after bachelor and master's degree work here. The new department head and associate professor has been on the faculty 17 years and specializes in educational technology and instruction.

'Great Race' Opens Cinema

"The Great Race" opens the 1969-70 Aggie Cinema Saturday.

Jack Abbott, chairman of the Memorial Student Center activity, said 16 films including such "greats" as "Cat Ballou," "Good Neighbor Sam" and "Beau Geste" have been scheduled.

All Aggie Cinema movies will be screened at 8 p.m. Saturdays in the MSC Ballroom. Admission will be 35 cents per person, Abbott said. No season tickets are sold.

Tony Curtis, Jack Lemmon and Natalie Wood star in the Saturday Opener a comedy based on a worldwide auto race.

Succeeding presentations are: Oct. 4, "The Bedford Incident"; Oct. 11, "Father Goose"; Nov. 1, "The Chase"; Dec. 6, "Cat Ballou"; Jan. 10, "A Spook Spectacular" including among four films the original "Frankenstein";

Also, Feb. 7, "Wait Until Dark"; Feb. 28, "Good Neighbor Sam"; March 14, "Beau Geste"; March 21, "Advise and Consent"; April 11, "Harper"; April 18, "Torn Curtain" and May 2, "Notorious Landlady."

Aggie Bowling League Organizes Tonight

Organization of the Aggie All-Star Bowling League, the bowling subcommittee of the Memorial Student Center Recreation Committee, will be held at 7:30 tonight at the Triangle Bowl, 3808 Old College Road.

The league is open to male and coed A&M students, reports recreation chairman Jim Cain.

League teams will be assigned at the first meeting with league play set each Thursday night at the Triangle Bowl. Bowling chairman John Wright at 845-2800, can be contacted for further information.

West Point Trip

afternoon is the deadline to make final payments.

Students started making reservations the last week of school in May.

The flight will leave Houston at 6 p.m. Friday and arrive at Newark, N. J., at 10 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time. The return flight will leave Newark at 6 p.m. EDT Sunday and arrive in Houston at 8:20 p.m. CDT.

Dean of Students James P. Hannigan said Wednesday that the university had as yet no policy concerning excused absences for those traveling on the charter flight. He explained that it is first necessary for someone to apply for one on behalf of all those going on the trip.

"I will be glad to handle it for them if someone will come to me and discuss it," he said.

Each person, male or female, is responsible for game tickets and meals, with the exception of meals aboard the aircraft, Dunham pointed out.

Two nights lodging in New York City's Midtown Hotel with four persons per room is included in the trip cost. Married couples will have to pay $12 extra, Dunham said.

Transportation to the game at West Point will be provided by chartered bus.

It will be the first meeting of the two tradition-laden schools. A rivalry could develop, since A&M is already scheduled to meet Army at College Station in 1972.

The Cadets at the Point had better brace themselves for the Aggie 12th Man! A&M has produced more officers for the military than West Point.

Freshman Drill Team Tryouts Still Open

Corps freshmen may still try out for the Freshman Drill Team, senior adviser Richard Gonzalez said Wednesday.

Tryouts for the drill team started this week but only a few candidates participated. Gonzalez

Puerto Rico Scientist Here for Research

Dr. Jose L. Garcia de Quevedo, professor of electrical and nuclear engineering and chief scientist at the Puerto Rico Nuclear Center, has arrived here to spend a year as visiting research professor of geophysics.

Dr. Garcia de Quevedo will work with Dr. Robert R. Unterberger, professor of geophysics, on a research program supported by an international consortium of salt companies.

The research is directed toward learning more about the properties of earth materials, such as salt, and the propagation of electromagnetic waves through salt.

Foreign Service Applications Available at History Dept.

Applications for Foreign Service Officers examinations to be given Dec. 6 may be obtained from Dr. J. M. Nance, History Department head.

Completion of the exam can lead to career appointments as foreign service officers in the Department of State or the U. S. Information Agency.

"This examination should be of particular interest to young men and women who have special qualifications in international relations, public and business administration, economics, foreign commerce, journalism, political science, history, labor or any of a number of other related concentrations of study and interest," Nance said.

Officers are expected to be available for world-wide service. Families usually accompany officers living abroad on foreign assignment. Appointment, depending on age and qualifications, begins at levels with $6,900 to $9,200 salaries. Advancement to Class 1 can lead to salaries up to $30,239.

Officers abroad may have salaries supplemented by quarters, cost-of-living and dependents' educational allowances and hardship post differentials.

To be eligible, applicants must be 21 to 31 years of age, a U. S. citizen at least 7 1/2 years, if married, to a U. S. citizen and of high academic quality. Foreign language capability is not required on the exam.

Dr. Nance noted applications for the Dec. 6 exam, whether obtained at the department in 208 Nagle Hall or the State Department, must be postmarked by Oct. 24.

Additional information is available at the History Department.

Cast of Players Named In 'Dinny and Witches'

Aggie Players casting for "Dinny and the Witches" has placed Wally Bergquist of Arcadia in the lead role of the first 1969-70 production of the thespian group.

Female leads will feature Aileen Wenck of College Station, Lucy Gavett of Dickinson, and Melanie Haldas of Houston, announced Bob Wenck, director.

A satire on man in the atomic age, "Dinny" will be presented Oct. 14-16 and 22-24, Aggie Players Director C. K. Esten said.

Bergquist, as Dinny, becomes king of the world and encounters numerous pitfalls as he attempts to correct seeming wrongs brought to his attention. Bergquist is a junior animal science major.

The three fates of legend portrayed by Mrs. Wenck, Mrs. Gavett and Miss Haldas are the head witch, death witch and nit witch, respectively.

Dennis Turner of San Antonio plays the accountant Stonehenge and Paul Peterson of Beeville portrays Jake, a drunk. Three kings —Tom, Dick and Harry—with whom Dinny confers are by John Friedrich of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Randy Durham, Fort Worth, and Miles Massie, Westminster, Md.

Ben, a blind man cured by Dinny who sees things he doesn't want to see, is played by Travis Miller of West Winfield, N. Y. Irene Fazzino of Bryan appears as Amy, Dinny's girl friend.

"Sexy" chorus girls include Joanne Witte of Brenham, Hazel Pillans, Bryan, and Karen Buckland, Fabens.

Wenck noted the 14 parts were filled by A&M students, six of whom are new to the Aggie Players. Production dates bracket an Oct. 18 Corps Trip to Fort Worth and precedes the A&M-Baylor football game here Oct. 25.
