

In University's Yearbook

'Outstanding' Pair of Rice Students 'Appear' So

HOUSTON (AP) — Nude photos of two members of the Rice University June graduating class will appear in the school's yearbook, slated to make a delayed appearance next week.

The pictures of Marilyn Penelope Johnson and Ennis Rex Bahler, both 22, and both voted outstanding students, will appear in the "Campanile." The yearbook's publication was delayed by insistence of the publisher on guarantees against liability of invasion of privacy.

Conrad I. Boeck, co-editor of the publication, said to describe the two as nudes "is not quite accurate."

"The girl does have her picture taken without her clothes but the boy has his taken with his clothes," Boeck said. "However, there is an inset picture of the boy without his clothes."

"Penny thought she had only herself to give as outstanding girl student," Boeck added.

"There is no gimmick involved. She did not want it. The emphasis is away from everything but the human side."

Boeck also said there is "definite artistic value" to the presentation.

"Penny, herself, suggested that she appear in the nude," he said.

Reached at Buffalo, N. Y., where she is now a graduate student seeking a doctor's degree in English at State University of New York, Miss Johnson told the Houston Chronicle by telephone "I did it for Rice and the Rice community."

"But I don't want to talk to the Chronicle about it because that puts it in the class of a publicity stunt and that's not why I did it," she said.

Boeck said the yearbook had obtained signed releases from both Miss Johnson and Bahler and that the student senate at Rice had "voted to underwrite the discretion of the editors without looking at the material."

Dr. Frank Vandiver, acting Rice president, said while he did not approve of what the editors of the yearbook are publishing, he will defend staunchly their right to publish it.

"The student senate received editorial control over Campanile several years ago and with the control goes responsibility for taste and judgment," Vandiver said.
