

Aggies Renew Victory Search At Army

By Richard Campbell
Battalion Sports Editor

All the ingredients for a real rivalry will be present Saturday afternoon in West Point, N.Y., when the Texas Aggies renew their victory search against the Cadets of Army.

Although this is the first game between the two schools the rivalry will be heightened because both are concerned with the training of service officers. Army, of course, is a full-fledged service academy while A&M is ROTC-oriented.

Army Coach Tom Cahill will be seeking his fourth straight winning season, the first two of them 8-2 and last year a 7-3 mark. A sell-out homecoming crowd of 41,000 will be in Michie Stadium to see the Cadets try for their third consecutive victory of 1969. In their first game they beat New Mexico 31-14 and last week they defeated favored Vanderbilt 16-6.

The Aggies, under the guidance of Coach Gene Stallings, have yet to notch their first win of the young season. They fell to the LSU Tigers 35-6 in their first contest and lost to Nebraska 14-0 last week.

Army has a pair of 100-plus rushers after their two encounters. Halfback Hank Andrzejczak has rushed for 238 yards and fullback captain Lynn Moore has 221. Junior Bernie Wall will open at quarterback for the Cadets and his credentials for 1969 are also impressive. He has thrown 29 passes and completed 17 and he completed 12 of 18 last week against Vanderbilt.

The Aggies will open this week with a few changes as quarterback Rocky Self, a sophomore passing whiz, will be starting his first game at the Aggie controls after his performance last week against the Cornhuskers. Senior tailback Larry Stegent will also be starting his first game of the season after recovering from a pulled hamstring.

Other changes could be in the offensive line where both junior Mike Fields and sophomore Ted Smith will get a shot at the weak tackle slot. On the other side Joe Shaw, a 6-3, 230-pound junior, at this point is running ahead of sophomore Andy Philley at strong tackle.

Mike DeNiro will again anchor the Aggies' defensive unit from his linebacker post. He has been credited with 34 tackles in the first two games and he will be joined by defensive end Jim Piper and halfback Dave Elmendorf, who returned a Nebraska punt 55 yards last week.

Self, after his performance in the Nebraska game, is third in the Southwest Conference in total offense with 219 yards passing and 35 rushing. He has completed 23 of 49 tosses for one touchdown and had three intercepted. Barney Harris is leading Aggie receiver with 10 catches for 104 yards and Marc Black is the leading rusher with 36 yards on 12 carries.

A SMOTHERED FROG

Even if you don't trust anyone over 30, that's no reason for not seeing Tenneco. We're only 26.

You were probably born in the late 1940's. We were born just a few years earlier — in 1943. Which makes Tenneco a company of your generation.

And yet, in our short 26 years, we have grown in assets from nothing to the nation's 16th largest industrial corporation.

We're big in a number of major areas. Oil. Chemicals. Natural gas pipelining. Land use. Packaging. Manufacturing of automobile components, construction and farm machinery. And shipbuilding. Which means that we can offer you just the career you're looking for. And just about anywhere in the U.S.

If you want to experience the challenge and satisfaction of building, Tenneco could be for you. Our representative will be on your campus. He wants to see you regardless of your draft status. Hear what he's got to say.

We're coming to Texas A. & M. University, October 6-7 and October 31.

Contact your Placement Office for an interview appointment. Or write Jerry May, Recruitment Manager, Tenneco Inc., P.O. Box 2511, Houston, Texas 77001.

Ag Fish Hang On For 27-26 Victory

The Texas Aggie Fish stopped a crucial two-point conversion play to preserve a 27-26 win over the Texas Christian Polywogs here last night.

The game was divided into two halves with the Aggies winning the first half and the Wogs winning the second. The Aggie offense and defense combined to score 27 points in the first half while yielding only 6.

The Wogs played an inspired second half and came within inches of winning. The game was marred by 27 penalties by the high-spirited teams.

The Aggies started the scoring spree with a two-yard dive by fullback Jimmy Aycock. The tally was set up by a pass interception of a Don Bodenhamer aerial by safetyman Brad Dusek. The Wogs countered with two 25-yard field goals to tie the score.

Early in the second quarter after a 42-yard Dusek punt, Wog safetyman Danny Colbert was racked inside his ten yard-line. The Fish recovered his fumble, and three plays later Dusek took a pitch-out and clipped the flag for the score.

The Aggie scoring train got back on the rails with 1:07 remaining in the first half. Quarterback Lex James hit split-end John Swedeen with a 45-yard touchdown toss. Buster Callaway kicked his second of three extra points and the Fish led 20-6.

Seconds later, Aggie linebacker Grady Hoermann intercepted another Bodenhamer pass and the Fish were in business on the Wog 25-yard line. Two plays later James fired a strike to split-end Glen McNatt for a 25-yard touchdown play.

The Wogs completely dominated play in the second half. They scored again in the third quarter as Raymond Rhodes went the last six yards to cap a 46-yard drive. Early in the fourth quarter, Hodges Hitchell skirted the Fish left end for six yards and a touchdown. With the extra point, the Wogs closed the gap to seven points.

With 1:22 remaining in the game, Mitchell returned a Dusek punt for 88 yards and a score. But the Fish snuffed out the try for the two-point conversion, and the Wogs fell one point short.
