

Aggies Invade Ozarks For Clash With Unbeaten Hogs

Richard Campbell
Aggie Sports Editor

When you speak of football in Arkansas, speak with reverence. Cause deep in the Ozarks, those Razorback supporters take the subject of their football seriously. Yeah, seriously.

When the Aggies arrive in Fayetteville, Ark., a small town right beside of Fayetteville where they will be staying, Friday, chances are that there will be lots of Hoggers in red and white attire ready to let them know that the 7:30 p.m. kickoff Saturday is the thing going on in Arkansas at week.

Frank Broyles has been the head coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks for 12 years now and guess you are either Bear Bryant, Bob Devaney, or even Earl Royal you wouldn't believe a career record. He has a 91-22 mark and 86 of those wins came in Fayetteville with his 1964 season winning the national championship with an 11-0 mark and eventually stretching that to 16 games through 1965.

Picked in all the preseason polls to be a favorite in the Southwest conference and one of the top teams in the nation, the Hogs are more than measured up. They breathed a little harder against Baylor and TCU, but they gave you the impression that they were only catching their second wind when they beat both in late rallies. They are number one in most polls this year after going off five straight wins and that is without the fulltime services of two of their heavy offensive cannons, quarterback Bill Montgomery and split end Chuck Dicus. Montgomery has been bothered with some bruised ribs while Dicus suffered a slight shoulder separation against Baylor. Tentatively both will be ready for Saturday's homecoming clash with the Aggies.

The Aggies rebound from their finest hour with a little momentum going themselves after chalking up a 24-0 whitewashing of the Baylor Bears last Saturday. It was a day where nothing could go wrong for A&M after a string of go-wrong Saturdays all year. They are now 2-4 for the year and 1-2 in conference play.

Rocky Self, the sophomore quarterback for A&M, moved into the tenth slot in conference rushing with a fine performance against the Bears. He reeled off a 35-yard jaunt against Baylor, the longest Aggie run of the year. He is also in third place in both total offense and passing behind Chuck Hixon of SMU and Steve Judy of TCU. The 6-1, 180-pounder has hit 54 of 125 passes for 658 yards and three touchdowns.

Larry Stegent, the Aggies' workhorse tailback, is still bothered by that pulled hamstring he got in fall practice but he still has run well enough to hold down the No. 3 position in SWC rushing. He has toted the pigskin 112 times for 365 yards and two touchdowns. Marc Black, the 6-3, 210-pound sophomore fullback, has 141 yards in 44 carries and Self has 227 yards in 66.

Barney Harris leads the Aggies' receivers with 21 catches for 278 yards while senior tight end Ross Brupbacher has caught 14 aerials for 241 yards and three touchdowns. Dave Elmendorf, a junior safety, will return punts for the Aggies and team with Stegent to return kickoffs.

The Razorbacks are a complete team with no glaring weaknesses anywhere and even more importantly, they have experience at the big positions, and contrary to most other Arkansas teams, they have size. The offensive line measures about 6-4 by 235 pounds and that is a lot of beef up front to give Montgomery time to throw. Slingin' Bill, who set many Arkansas records in passing last year as a sophomore, is a pinpoint passer, especially to Dicus. But don't get the idea that the Hogs are a must-throw team because they're not. Their stable of running backs are among the best in the conference. With Burnett, Maxwell, and sometimes Montgomery, the Hogs can vary their attack to take advantage of any opponent stacked against their passing game and they have thought their first five games because they lead the SWC in total offense.

The Aggies' stingy defense will try to shut down the Razorbacks' potent offense which is averaging 421 yards per contest. With a new defensive alignment, the Aggies hope to get a better rush on the passer than they have in past games. The new formation moves Mike De Niro to the front on the right end and moves Billy Bob Barnett into a tackle slot.

The Odom brothers, Lynn and Van, will handle the middle and Jim Piper, the other end. Buster Adams and Mike are the linebackers and Steve Luebbenhusen the rover. Ed Ebrum and David Hoot are the halfbacks and Elmendorf the safety.

High Scoring Marks 'Mural Basketball And Bowling

High scores marked midweek intramural athletic results with two bowling teams busting the 1,000 pin mark in six games and Company F-2's fish netting 61 points in 16 minutes of regulation play.

Squadron 11, most impressive bowling team so far in Class A play-offs, posted 563 and 490 series by Al Gibbs, Bill Richards and Ken Reiningger to beat Squadron 4, 1,053 and 982.

Rob McDonald, Jim Grant and John Bancroft also topped 1,000 in A-1's win over G-1. In other matches, D-2 downed Squadron 10 and C-2 took D-1.

F-2's Class B basketball offensive surge was fashioned on 14 and 12-point performances by Charles Cole and Tom Hoysa. Even in defeat Squadron 1 showed well with a 45-point production.

A three-way flag football tie between Moore A, Law and McInnis B is shaping in League B. Moore A maintained the day's offensive explosion with 22 points in a shutout win over Hart. League A also has a close race going between Moses and Hughes Hall despite Moses' 20-13 loss to strong-finishing Davis-Gary Hall.

Parks and Recreation took second behind Physics in their flag football league by shutting out Entomology, 6-0, in their finale.

Squadrons 12 and 11 play for their league championship Tuesday, 12 making the playoff by a narrow margin. Gerald F. Perryman's outfit made it on penetrations when their game with Squadron 10 ended at 6-6.

AGGIE MAN-UNDER

Rocky Self, a 6-1, 180-pound sophomore from San Antonio MacArthur, will be the starting quarterback for the Texas Aggies Saturday when they meet the undefeated Arkansas Razorbacks at 1:20 before homecoming and regional television audience.

Aggie Rodeo Here Tonight, Saturday

The Church..For a Fuller Life..For You..

The concert is over. The artist takes a bow. Or, perhaps the curtain rings down on a smash hit. And hands slap, smack, pat, or tap. Hands do other things besides applaud. Some write on blackboards, others perform miracles of surgery — some type, some sew, some plant. Hands drive trucks, make music or diaper a baby. There are crippled hands and wrinkled hands, soft ones and smooth; hands flung up as a shield; others stretched in supplication. In God's Church are praying hands. These hands translate compassion into action. They find homes for the homeless and food for the hungry. They teach, as well as preach, and bring hope to hearts long lonely. They, literally, become the hands of God. Today, as never before, mankind needs the assurance and comfort of God's love. Won't you help your church reach out? Offer your heart and your helping hands.
