gest tip on how strong they really are have come from coach Adolph Rupp, who was an unhappy man the first time his troops slipped under 100 points.

Kentucky rolled to the top spot in the first regular season poll by The Associated Press, grabbing 16 first-place votes and 472 points after running up 106-87 and 115-85 victories over West Virginia and Kansas, respectively.

But Monday night, after the poll was announced, Kentucky failed to hit the 100-mark in a 94-87 triumph over fifth-ranked North Carolina and Rupp said rather pointedly:

"This was not our best game." Whether Rupp was unhappy or not, the sportswriters and sportscasters balloting in The AP poll were impressed with Kentucky's early season play enough to put them into the top spot by an overwhelming margin over UCLA's defending national champions.

The Bruins slipped into the No. 2 spot with three first-place votes and 383 points after whipping Arizona 90-65 and edging Minnesota 72-71 in overtime. New Mexico State followed in third place with two votes for the top spot and 317 points.

While Kentucky was moving up one notch from its pre-season ranking, pre-season favorite South Carolina had to settle for the No. 8 spot in the first regular season balloting after splitting its first two games. The Gamecocks defeated Auburn 86-64 but lost to Tennessee 55-54.

King Moves To AD At Tech

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — JT King, who took over Texas Tech's football fortunes one year after the Raiders officially entered the Southwest Conference in that sport, moved upstairs Tuesday to become athletic director.

He said in a news conference that he alone will be in charge of finding a new head football coach.

"I and I alone will conduct the search for a new head coach at Texas Tech," King said.

"And, being in that capacity, I am the only person who can speak officially on the matter."

In a question and answer session at a news conference, King said no one had been contacted about the job, offered the job or hired.

He said he has a working list of his own but does not want to "move too quickly for fear of overlooking someone who might be available."

King said he expected to complete his search within "one to two weeks, and certainly before the end of the year."

King was appointed athletic director Tuesday at the same time Polk Robison was moved from the post to that of administrator of finance and development for the athletic department.

King had a won-lost record of 44-43-3 at Tech.

The team had varying seasons under King, dropping to 1-9 in 1962, with a high mark of 8-2 in 1965. This season's record was 5-5.

The move left the Tech coaching job wide open, stressed Retha Martin of Lubbock, chairman of the Tech regents.

Tech regents met Saturday and refused to act on the renewal of King's and Robison's contracts, each with one year to run.

Tech's banner year under King came in 1965 when quarterback Tom Wilson, now a Raider aide, and All-American Anderson led the Raiders to an 8-2 season and a Gator Bowl berth.

Tech lost the Gator Bowl to Georgia Tech 31-21 and in 1964 lost to Georgia 7-0 in the Sun Bowl. King was named the Senior College Coach of the Year by Texas sports writers following the 1965 season.

Robison has been athletic director at Tech since 1960, when he guided the Raiders to their first SWC basketball championship and a third place finish in the NCAA regional tournament.

Robison has been associated with Tech for 34 of the school's 44 years as player, coach and administrator.
