Regalia for the January 1970
Commencement Exercise
All students who are candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy or Doctor of Education are required to order hoods
as well as the Doctor's caps and gowns.
The hoods are to be left at the University
Exchange Store for delivery by a representative of the Exchange Store to the Registrar's Office on Thursday, January 13, 1970. The Ph.D. or D.Ed.
hoods will not be worn in the procession since all such candidates will be hooded on the stage on the ceremony.
Candidates for the Master's Degree will wear the cap and gown; all civilian students who are candidates for the Bachelor's Degree will wear the cap and gown;
ROTC students who are candidates for the Bachelor's Degree will wear the appropriate uniform. All military personnel who are candidates for the degrees, graduate or undergraduate, will wear the uniform only.
Rental of cap, gown, and hood for the Ph.D. candidate should be arranged with the Exchange Store between 8:00 a. m.
Monday, December 15, and 5:00 p. m.
Friday, December 19. Only Doctor's caps, gowns, and hoods will be available on a rental basis. The Master's and Bachelor's caps and gowns may be purchased at The Exchange Store after January 5, 1970.

Former Student Asks Help For Viet War Prisoners

An Aggie-ex now flying Air Force jets has entered a plea for concern over Vietnam prisoners of war with A&M students.

Lt. Frank Ray of Conroe, whose brother James was shot down and captured by the North Vietnamese, believes American opinion can bring about better treatment of POWs.

The 1967 A&M graduate left reprints of an October "Air Force Space Digest" article with Memorial Student Center student leaders, from which interested persons can get a clear picture of POW treatment and how they can improve it.

A copy of the limited number of reprints of Louis R. Stockstill's article, "The Forgotten Americans of the Vietnam War," can be obtained from J. Mac Spears, MSC Council and Directorate president, at the MSC.

"It should shake the conscience of the whole free world," Congressman Roman C. Pucinski, D-III, said in preliminary remarks to reading the article into the "Congressional Record."

In the article, Stockstill describes prison routine, conditions and maltreatment, supplies proof of Hanoi's use of POW releases as propaganda devices and suggests how a letter campaign can help turn world opinion against the North Vietnamese government's failure to observe Geneva Convention rules in treatment of prisoners.

Addresses of key officials of several countries and foreign press outlets are included.

"By human standards," the position of North Vietnam is "totally inexcusable," Stockstill quotes Secretary of State William Rogers. "I don't understand why we have not become more excited about the prisoner question."

Lieutenant Ray is in advanced pilot training at Vance AFB, Okla. His brother James, who was once president of the MSC Council and Directorate, was shot down and captured May 8, 1966. The family has had only two letters from the 1964 A&M graduate who was flying an F-104 out of Korat, Thailand.

One arrived last December and the other just before Christmas. The Dec. 2, 1968, letter was the first communication from the captured pilot. A Hanoi radio transmission monitored in Japan had been the only previous indication that James was still alive.

Coffee Loft Offers 2 Films, Singers

The Coffee Loft will present two films and a folk music festival for the next two weekends announced Jim Fenner, a spokesman for the United Campus Christian Fellowship.

A French film, "The Olive Trees of Justice," will be shown at 8 p.m. Friday.

The 90-minute feature was made in 1961 during the Algerian War. It provides a contrast between the war and a simple man's dream of handing on a peaceful heritage to his sons, Fenner said.

After the showing, a panel of Richard Stadelman, assistant professor of philosophy; Omer Jenkins, assistant professor of Business Analysis; and Father Bernard Mahoney of the Catholic Student Center will have a discussion session.

A folk music festival at 8 p.m. Saturday will feature performances from Ted Jordan, a professional musician from Dallas who plays a 12-string guitar, sings blues and other songs which has written about life, Mance Lipscomb, a famous guitarist and blues singer who learned his music in the cotton fields of the Brazos river bottom, and a new student singing group the Third Generation.

An eighty-five minute motion picture, "The Golden Age of Comedy" will be shown Jan. 16. The show is an anthology of the silent comedy era.

It will give samplings of the works of such famous comedians as Mack Sennett, Hal Roach, excerpts from Laurel and Hardy, Will Rogers, Ben Turpin and Harry Langdon.

Admission to both shows this week is 50 cents and for the film of Jan. 16, 25 cents.

Vittrup Elected 1970 Head Of Brazos County A&M Club

John B. Vittrup, 1951 Texas A&M graduate, has been elected to head the Brazos County A&M Club in 1970. He will succeed Jim Forehand.

Vice president for membership this year, Vittrup heads a slate of 11 officers elected to serve the 300-member club. He is an industrial engineer with Alenco.

Also elected were vice president for activities, John White; associate vice president-activities, Fred Kristiansen, and vice presidents for high school relations, James W. Stegall; fund raising, Bob Galloway; membership, Larry Locke; public relations, John West, and community relations, Forehand.

New directors elected to the nine-man board are Jim Earle, Jim Butler and Chub Eddy, whose terms expire in 1972.

The club's 1970 officers will be installed Jan. 21 by Dr. Whitney A. McFarlin, A&M's Cyclotron Institute associate director who also will present the program. The 6:30 p.m. meeting will be at the Chicken Shack.

Mrs. Lorene Roby Rogers Dies Over Christmas Holidays

Mrs. Lorene Roby Rogers, a dynamic figure in the Department (now college) of Education during her three years here, died during the Christmas holidays.

She was originator at A&M of the state's first Texas Education Agency approved program for the preparation of kindergarten teachers, first adviser for University Women and wrote the history of the Education Department in thesis form.

Services for the educator were conducted Monday in Tulsa and Broken Arrow, Okla., where her of young children in use in the schools of 37 states.

The 1940 Brown University graduate was member of the Texas Education Agency committee for the master state plan for early childhood education.

She received the master of science in education at A&M and had completed course work for her doctorate.

Mrs. Rogers taught in Houston, directed Spring Branch schools information services seven years and had experience in radio-television production and executive secretarial training in Dallas.

C. F. Richardson, 59, Retired A&M Employee Dies in Arkansas

Charles Francis Richardson, 59, retired laboratory stores and procurement officer for the Biology Department, died in a Little Rock hospital over the Christmas holidays.

He was buried Dec. 31 in El Dorado, Ark.

Richardson is survived by his wife, Dorothy, of 1013 Foster, College Station. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson had been visiting relatives in El Dorado when Richardson was stricken.

The East Texas native was born Nov. 17, 1910. He received a bachelor's degree from SMU and served as an enlisted man in the U. S. Navy during World War II.

He joined the Biology Department at Texas A&M in September, 1947, and retired Aug. 31, 1967. He was a member of the College Station Kiwanis Club.

Stage Center Now Casting for Play

Parts are being filled for the play "Inherit the Wind," to be produced by StageCenter Inc. next month, announced Sol Klein, producer.

A casting call will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight and Wednesday for the 34 parts of the play, Klein said, adding that casting was also held on Monday night.

The play requires eight major characters, but there are 24 townspeople and additional jury members that play important roles, Klein said.

The townspeople are essential, and a mixture of all types and ages of people are needed to achieve the proper atmosphere for the play, he said.

Klein said, that the casting call and play will both be at Stagecenter Theatre, at the Old Country Club on College Ave.

Directors of the play are Harry Gooding and Florence Farr.

Production dates for the play are February 26, 27 and 28 and March 6, 7, 13 and 14.

Mrs. Lorene Roby Rogers

mother and two brothers reside. Mrs. Rogers died of a heart attack during a holiday trip to Mexico.

Married last November to retired Army general officer Andy Rogers of Dallas, she also is survived by two sons and a daughter. Bill Roby resides in Houston, Mrs. Jim Foster at 2311 Truman, Bryan, and John Roby is an A&M senior.

Mrs. Rogers was assistant professor of early childhood education at Texas Woman's University.

During three years at A&M, she directed several institutes, worked Business and Professional Women and local secretaries, served in top posts of Texas and National School Public Relations Associations and had several publications, including "Twenty Steps," a handbook for parents
