Counseling Center Offers Reading Aid

The start of a new semester is a good time for students to improve study habits, a spare-time possibility through a Counseling and Testing Center program.

A student can improve his reading rate and comprehension even if time is not available to take reading courses offered, center officials said.

The center, directed by S. Austin Kerley, sponsors a speed reading-comprehension program in residence halls and dormitories.

"Dorm presidents or scholastic sergeants are familiar with the program and have reading machines and material in the dorm for individual use," explained Jim Davis.

He said the entire reading program can be completed in a month or sooner, by participating in the program for 30 minutes two or three times per week.

Additional information may be obtained from Davis or Fred Dodson at the Counseling and Testing Center, Academic Building.

Student Income Tax Procedures Outlined

Working students who earned more than $600 in 1969 must file an income tax return, even if he is claimed as a dependent by his parents, according to Archie A. Cathers Jr., administrative officer of the Internal Revenue Service in Bryan.

Students who earned less than $600 and had income tax withheld, should file a return to get these taxes refunded, he said.

Cathers said a single student should claim one exemption for himself even if he is also claimed as a dependent by his parents.

The combined tax is usually the same whether a joint or separate return is filed by a husband and wife, he said, but in order for parents to claim them as dependents, married students must file separate returns.

Dances, Sweetheart Selection Highlight Sophomore Weekend

Two dances and the selection of a class sweetheart will be the highlights of the Sophomore Ball to be held the weekend of Feb. 13 and 14, according to class president John Sharp.

Sharp said the sweetheart will be presented at the dance Saturday at Duncan Dining Hall. The semi-formal affair will feature the Countdown Five from Houston.

Another dance scheduled for Friday at DeWare Fieldhouse will feature The Cornerstone Blues, and dress is casual, Sharp added. Tickets good for both sell for $5. Both dances are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. and continue to midnight.

"Tickets can be purchased at the Student Program Office in the Memorial Student Center or bought from representatives in each dormitory," Sharp said.

Sharp also said that the deadline for filing for sweetheart has been extended to Friday.

Contest rules also require that a full length snapshot and a 5x7 photograph of each candidate be submitted to the Student Program Office Sharp added.
