Big Crowd Expected For Ag-Frog Clash Here

By Richard Campbell
Battalion Sports Editor

Currently the hottest team in the Southwest Conference, the Texas Christian Horned Frogs invade G. Rollie White at 8:00 tomorrow night in hopes of extending their unbeaten string to six.

The defending champion Aggies have a chance to alter the SWC race as they attempt to put a screeching halt to the winning ways of the Frogs, who have won five straight since an opening loss to SMU. A&M is two games down to both TCU and Baylor with a league mark of 3-3 and 8-8 overall.

They have all the momentum a team could have," Aggie coach

Shelby Metcalf said. "They've won some big games. They beat Baylor by 19, Texas by 25 and they beat Texas on the boards by 23 rebounds."

"To beat them we have to stop them on the boards and contain their fast break. They have three seniors starting with Whittenbraker (Rick), Boyd (Doug), and Harp (Jeff) and CoCo Villareal and Ricky Hall are coming along too."

A&M's only win since returning from the semester break was an 84-74 thumping of SMU on regional television but Metcalf thinks that the Frogs will have their work cut out for them.

"Our kids have a lot of pride and we had a real good practice Wednesday," he said, "so I believe that it's going to be a good game."

Boyd seems to be the big spoke in the Frog winning wheel this year, especially his board strength. Against Baylor he dragged down a record 27 rebounds and against Texas he pulled down 24 and thus far he is averaging 20 plus for six SWC games.

Mike Heitmann leads the scoring parade for the Aggies with a 20.2 norm through 16 games while 7-0 junior Steve Niles continues to trail with a 13.9 mark. Chuck Smith upped his average to 11.9 with a 23 point spree against Tech Tuesday night with Bill Cooksey the other starter in double figures with an 11.6 norm. Pat Kavanagh is the fifth starter and is currently scoring at a 7.6 clip.

Niles is the leading rebounder for the Aggies, who have dominated the SWC on the boards, with a 10.4 per game average while Smith owns an 8.9 mark. But the Frogs are the second best rebounding team in the conference with Boyd and Hall doing most of the honors.

Fish Host Wogs To Start Spring Semester Schedule

By Mike Wright
Assistant Sports Editor

The Texas Aggie Fish take to the floor for the first time since their 70-63 loss in late January to the Rice Owlets tomorrow night at 5:45. The Texas Christian University Wogs will furnish the opposition as the Fish try to get back on the winning road this semester.

Coach Jim Culpepper's charges hold a 4-1 season record. This will be the first meeting between the Fish and Wogs, who lost last Tuesday night to the Texas Yearlings, 122-99.

Wog leaders in their loss to Texas included Norman Bacon who netted 24 points, John Hurdle with 26 points, and Mark Stone with 19 points. All three of the Wog leaders are from the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Bacon was all-district, all-metro and all-state (last season in leading Dallas Pinkston) to a district title. Hurdle was player of the year in District 4A-5 last year for Fort Worth Richland. Mark Stone was another player of the year in District 4A-10 playing for Fort Worth Paschal.

The Fish are being led by Jeff Overhouse, Bob Gobin, Wayne Howard, Bryan Mezger, Ron Eeten, and by clutch performances from the bench by Charlie Jenkins.

With the overflow crowd expected for the varsity contest, the Fish may well be playing before a large portion of fans as was the case against the Baylor Cubs.

Tickets

General admission tickets for Saturday's A&M-TCU clash will go on sale at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, with a capacity crowd expected to be on hand.

Reserve seat tickets are already sold out because of a large TCU demand and students and faculty are reminded to come early. Because, even though they get in on their activity cards they will also be barred when the doors are closed for the capacity crowd.

Netters Begin Play Saturday

Texas A&M's tennis team starts its season Saturday against St. Edward's University in Austin.

Coach Omar Smith has a young squad with two juniors, two sophomores and two freshmen in the top six.

The tentative lineup for the opening match will have Dickie Fikes, a sophomore from Corpus Christi Miller, as the No. 1 player, followed by Mike Hickey, junior from Houston Westbury; Lindsey Kroll, junior from Brazosport; David Chastain, sophomore from Amarillo Tascosa; Mike Mills, freshman from A&M Consolidated; and Lawton Park, freshman from Spring Branch Memorial.

The Aggie netters have 16 dual matches on the 1970 schedule along with four major tournaments—Pan American Intercollegiate, Corpus Christi Intercollegiate, Rice Intercollegiate and Oklahoma City Intercollegiate.

Southwest Conference play starts April 4 against Texas Tech in College Station.

Every Man a Philosopher

Everybody holds some view about life and its meaning. Whatever confronts us in our daily round is the substance out of which we weave our "philosophy of life."

But merely to have an isolated thought or an opinion does not help us find a foundation on which to base our entire lives. We need encouragement and guidance.

The message of the Church has been, through the ages, concerned primarily with the deeper meaning of life. It lends wisdom to those who are striving to relate themselves to the total pattern and purpose of human existence. It helps us maintain a reasonable stability amid the flux of human endeavor and events. It helps us relate the totality of all that has been, is now and ever shall be.

Let the Church help you weave these golden threads into the finished fabric of life.
