Olivas Elected Head Of Dairy Organization

Frank Olivas, a junior from El Paso, was elected president of the student affiliate of the Southern Division of the American Dairy Science Association (ADSA) last week at a meeting of the Southern Division of the ADSA in Memphis, Tenn.

Olivas was one of three representatives of the Dairy Science Club at the meeting.

Kennie Hall, a senior from La-Grange, won second place in an undergraduate paper contest and Larry Lane also attended.

Dr. C. W. Dill and Dr. G. T. Lane, associate professors of Animal Science also represented the local organization.

Dr. R. E. Leighton, club adviser, was elected adviser for the organization for next year.

Fish Sweetheart Deadline Friday

The deadline for nominations for Freshman Sweetheart is Friday, class president Bill Darkoch noted, adding that nominations should include a color picture to be turned into the Student Programs Office in the Memorial Student Center.

The sweetheart will be presented at the Freshman Ball scheduled for Feb. 28 in Duncan Dining Hall. Theme for the ball is "Age of Aquarius".

Tickets for the ball are now available from all freshman council members and at the Student Programs Office, Darkoch said.

Help is also needed to decorate Duncan Hall for the event, Darkoch said, adding that anyone who wants to help or has a question concerning the ball can call him at 845-2578 or contact him at Room 8-F Puryear Hall.

Air Conditioned Dorm Sign-Up Scheduled

Students now living in civilian residence halls, who wish to move to an air-conditioned dormitory will be able to do so Wednesday and Thursday on a first-come, first-served basis, announced Allan M. Madeley, housing manager.

Changes can be made between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on both days, Madeley said.

Students who wish to move are asked to report to the Housing Office and pick up a room change slip to be processed through residence advisers and counselors.

All moves must be made within 24 hours after the new assignment, Madeley said.

If any additional fees are owed, they must be paid before the student will be issued a new key, he said.

Students are asked to bring their fee receipts to verify payment.

17 to Attend Planners Meet

Seventeen A&M students will attend the annual meeting of the Gulf Southwest Chapter of the American Institute of Planners Friday and Saturday in Houston.

A&M Coordinator Mrs. Pat Caporina of Bryan, urban planning graduate student, noted the keynote speaker and special guest is Edgar Goff, a founder of the Watts, Calif., Urban Workshop. Goff is currently employed by Skidmore, Owins and Merrill and Arthur D. Little Co. in Washington, D. C.

Conference theme is "Advocacy Planning."

"Advocacy" is associated with the efforts of professionals to directly assist and promote the specific interests of the socially and economically disadvantaged, Mrs. Caporina explained.

Other speakers include Bob Hartsfield of Caudill, Rowlett and Scott, Architects; O. Jack Mitchell, Urban Research; Joe Villarreal, Houston Model Cities Program; the Rev. Earl Allen, Hope Development Inc.; Dr. Blair Justice, City of Houston, and Bill Brandon, VISTA.

Mrs. Caporina said the Holiday Inn-Central is meeting headquarters with many of the programs scheduled at the University of Houston.

The A&M chapter will man a hospitality room at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Dr. Primer to Discuss Illegitimate Children

Dr. Charles A. Primer will discuss parentage of illegitimate children Friday in a Health Education Seminar here.

The Tyler physician will speak at 4 p.m. in the Architecture Auditorium, announced Dr. Carl W. Landiss.

Sponsored by the Health and Physical Education Department, Dr. Primer's presentation is the first seminar in the department's spring series. The seminars are conducted for A&M graduate and undergraduate health education majors and are public-free presentations, noted Landiss, department head.

Diplomat of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Dr. Primer has been in private practice in Tyler four years.
