

Rice Keeps SWC Lead; But Bears Continue Fall

HOUSTON (AP)—Rice kept a firm hold on the top spot in the Southwest Conference basketball race Tuesday night, dropping the Arkansas Razorbacks 85-78.

Rice led 44-27 at the half, then hung on in the face of an Arkansas pressing defense to increase their lead to two games in the race.

The win leaves the club with an 8-2 conference record and put the Porkers alone in the cellar as a result of SMU's win over Baylor.

Tom Myer, a junior from Camden, Ind., led Rice, smoking in 36 points. The sharpshooting guard hit 15 of 22 from the field and was perfect at the charity line, going six for six. Arkansas seems to bring out the best in Myer. He also had 36 against the Razorbacks at Fayetteville a year ago and both are career highs.

Rice shot 50 per cent from the field and a markedly improved 84 per cent from the line. Arkansas hit 42 per cent from the floor and 83 per cent of its free throws. Rice's position in the SWC race

TWU Alumnae Schedule "Remember When" Panel

The Brazos County Chapter of the Texas Woman's University Alumnae Association will meet at 7:45 p.m. Thursday in the Texas Room of the Bryan Building and Loan Association Building.

A panel discussion, "Remember When," will be hosted by Mrs. Eloise Johnson, class of 1919.

A short business meeting will follow to discuss the March style show, which is the club's money-making project this year.

was aided by A&M's win over Texas Tech Tuesday night and by Texas' victory over TCU. That leaves the Owls in first place, two games ahead of TCU, Texas Tech and the Aggies, all tied for second at 6-4.

DALLAS (AP)—Gene Phillips, the Southwest Conference's leading shotmaker, poured through 33 points Tuesday night to pace Southern Methodist to a 70-66 upset of the Baylor Bears.

The loss dropped Baylor to a 5-5 SWC slate while SMU is 3-7. Baylor is 12-8 for the year and SMU 4-16.

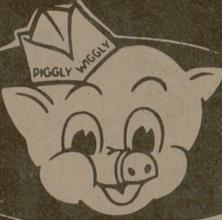

A crowd of 6,000 watched as SMU built a 37-35 halftime lead in the see-saw battle.

Phillips popped in 14 field goals and was 5 for 5 from the charity strips as he scored almost half of SMU's points. Bobby Harrison added 15 to the cause.

Baylor's Tom Friedman and Willie Chatman paced the cold Bear attack with 17 points each.

Baylor blew opportunities to tie the game in the closing seconds when it was twice whistled down on traveling violations.

High-scoring Tommy Bowman and Larry Gatewood were guarded closely by the Mustangs. Bowman scored only nine points while Gatewood chipped in 13.
