Owls, Eagles Get Plucked By Aggies

By Mike Wright
 The Aggie thincads flexed their track muscles Saturday to outclass Rice University and North Texas State University here. The Aggies tallied 68 points; North Texas, 53; and Rice 49.

The Aggies won seven of 16 events in compiling their scoring total. Aggie winners were Ronnie Lightfoot in the shotput with a heave of 57 feet 3 inches, Marvin Taylor with a leap of 6-9, and the 440-yard relay team composed of Scotty Hendricks, Curtis Mills, Marvin Mills, and Rocky Woods. The team was timed at the finish line in 40.1.

Curtis Mills won the open quarter with a 47.8 reading. This was the first time for him to run the event outdoors because of an injured ankle.

Other Aggie winners were David Prince in the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.7 seconds. Freshman Donny Rogers finished third in the event at 15 flat as did Glen Blahuta. Marvin Mills and Rockie Woods battled down the 100-yard dash to finish in a dead heat at 9.7 seconds. After deliberation Mills was awarded first place. The mile relay finished well ahead of Rice University with a 3:13.5 clocking.

Also placing for the Aggies in various events was Ben Great-house at 6-7 and John Taylor at 6-4 in the high jump to give the Aggies the top three slots in the event. For the second week in a row, A&M has dominated this event to add to the point total.

Sam Skinner placed fourth in the mile run at 4:22.3. This represents the best time for him this year in competition. Lightfoot finished third in the discus with a throw of 154-7/8. Lightfoot was bothered with a sore arm in the latter part of the event.

Willie Blackmon and Dennis O'Brian crept into the finish of the 880-yard dash to place third and fourth. They were clocked at 1:54.1 and 1:55.9 respectively. Rogers finished second in the 220-yard dash with 21.6 seconds. Larry McIntyre and Harold McMahan finished third and fourth in the pole vault with 15 feet. McIntyre was awarded third on fewer misses.

Golfers Go To Austin Meet

The Texas Aggies' golf squad will compete in the Morris Williams Invitational tournament Friday and Saturday at the Morris Williams Municipal course in Austin.

The meet is for 54 holes, 36 on Friday and 18 on Saturday.

A&M's players include Richard Ellis, Duke Butler, Dean Faucett, Steve Veriato, Tommy Gilbert and Tommy Shelton.

JAVELIN TOSS—Marc Black lets loose with a 211'-5/8" toss to place third in that event. The Aggies won the tri-meet with North Texas State and Rice University. (Photo by Mike Wright)

Ags Begin 7-Game Stand On Kyle Field Diamond

By Richard Campbell
 Battalion Sports Editor

Coach Tom Chandler is trying his best to get the 1970 Aggie baseball team some competition before they open conference play Friday against Baylor and the schedule this week shows it.

Weather permitting, that's getting to be the name of the game so far with six of the A&M contests nixed because of bad weather, the Aggies will play seven games at home this week. Tuesday afternoon they kick it off with a doubleheader with the Sam Houston State Bearcats, who have already given the Cadets both of their losses en route to an early 3-2 mark.

The Aggies will host Houston Baptist in another twinbill Wednesday afternoon and then open a three-game stand against the Bears Friday and Saturday. On Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday the doubleheaders will start at 1 p.m. at Kyle Field and Saturday's single game will start at 2 p.m.

The Aggies' San Antonio trip this past week was very successful as they nailed down three victories, beating St. Mary's 5-2 and 5-0 and then blanking St. Edward's of Austin, 8-0.

Thus far, only one regular is hitting over .300 for the Aggies and the Cadets have but a .244 overall mark. Billy Hodge, the starting catcher, has collected four hits in 12 trips for a .333 mark. Centerfielder David Elmendorf, with four hits in 19 plate appearances, has belted two homeruns and a double for 11 total bases.

Southpaw Doug Rau and right-hander Paul Czerwinski each has a 1-0 pitching mark while Dave Benesh is 1-1 and Charles Kelley is 0-1. Rau and Benesh are slated to pitch against Sam Houston State Tuesday.

Otherwise, Aggie starters will be Hodge, catcher; Chris Sans, 1b; Butch Ghutman, 2b; Jim Raley, SS; Danny Ragland, 3b; Larry Smith or R. J. Englert, 1f; Elmen-

Netters Travel To Rice

The well-traveled Aggie tennis team will hit the road again this weekend when they journey to Houston to participate in the 12th annual Rice University Invitational Collegiate Tennis Tournament Thursday through Saturday on the Jake Hess Tennis Stadium on the Rice campus.

Coach Omar Smith's netters have played seven of their ten dual matches away from home this season and despite having only one senior, Bruce Crumley, they have won 6 of those 10.

Dick Fikes, David Chastain, Crumley, Lindsey Kroll, Carl Jaedicke, Lawton Park and Mike Mills will man the rackets for A&M against the 16-team field.

Competition in the field could be tougher than the court they are playing on as the young Aggies face some of the top teams in the nation in Trinity, Rice, Corpus Christi, Brigham Young and Utah. Defending champion Trinity is back to defend its team title which it won by nipping the Rice Owls 19-18. Trinity finished third in the NCAA Tournament last year and Rice fourth.

Mike Estep of Rice defending singles champion will return to defend his title but in the doubles division Trinity's sophomore doubles team of Bob McKinley and Dick Stockton will not because Stockton is currently out with a broken foot. McKinley will have Paul Gerken, who transferred from Stanford as a playing partner in this years tournament.
