According to the Webster Dictionary, fornication is defined as the "illicit (unlawful) sexual intercourse on the part of an unmarried person."

According to the Word of God, in the King James Edition of The Holy Bible, fornication (or premarital sex) is dealt with as follows:

I Cor. 6:13-20 "... Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by His own power. Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. What? Know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? For two, saith He, shall be one flesh. But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What? Know ye not that your body is the Temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

I Cor. 10:8 "Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand."

II Cor. 12:21 "And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness (lustfulness) which they have committed."

Eph. 5:3-7 "But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather of giving thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ nad of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: For because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them."

Heb. 13:4 "Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: "But whoremongers and adulterers God will judge."

co-eds and everyone else on campus, including those who sport flare bottoms and a beard or mustache.

As for my lack of maturity, my asine behavior, and my ignorance, I feel these are matters that were not disclosed in my letter of March 17, but if you, Mr. Steven, can see all that and not see the idea represented, then possibly I possess these ignorant qualities of which you speak in your letter of March 19.

I would further like to thank Mr. Stevens for fighting for my "right to be ignorant", but I feel it is not necessary. If there ever came a time for me to fight for my rights as a citizen, due to an attack on the U. S. by someone trying to take these rights, I would then shun my civilian clothes and don those of the military and fight along with you. Until then, I still reserve the right to think for myself, and wear what I want to wear.

I believe that the Battalion's policy of printing all of the letters sent it, including obviously prejudiced ones, is the only morally acceptable thing to do. The fact that a reader can be confronted with new if opposite points of view shows that the Battalion believes in educating its readership with two (or more) sides of a current hassle. Letters to the editor are particularly good at making people think and reason, because only a writer's thoughts are confronting the reader, and not a certain code of behavior or dress. The result is a higher level of reasoning as well as the recognition of the fact that there are other interest groups and minorities. One does not see the writer and instantly stereotype him into any particular group or behavior code.

The same old material may seem to be reshaped again and again, but if it's reshaped long enough, maybe we'll get something done about it. Some of the factions referred to in Mr. Norton's letter — such as the COEDS — have no real means except The Battalion to use to communicate with the rest of the student body, to air their gripes and complaints. Refusal to print these letters will most certainly cause further division of the student body, and hopes for any small amount of progress will vanish. Then Mr. Norton's hopes of a concrete student unity will be just a dream, just as the real desires of these "factions" are dreams now.

I think the Listen Up column is doing a great job in providing a "battleground" for students to make known their immature prejudices. This is the first communication of any kind, among students, that I have seen at A&M. A&M is behind almost every institution in the nation in providing both sides of an issue. Letters-to-the-editor provide one way of seeing both sides, even if they are biased as is everything seen or heard in newspapers, radio, TV, and even what your friends say. It takes the mature individual to sift through both sides and then make an objective decision concerning an issue. For trying to make The Battalion more of a student newspaper, I say to the editors — Right On!

... speaking, whipping out, yell practice, bonfire, whooping ... Women never have nor never will contribute to these traditions which are responsible for the spirit and heritage of A&M." Mr. Craver's recent evaluation of the role of the female at Texas A&M must have been quite disturbing to the many Aggie coeds who served coffee and sandwiches in the cutting and stacking areas this past fall, to those who have greeted an abrupt "howdy" with a similar but not so impersonal response, and to those who have risked physical manhandling in attending Tuesday and Thursday night yell practices. Admittedly, no Aggie coed has ever whooped at me nor whipped out to me as I walked across campus, but then I haven't really expected them to do so.

What is it Mr. Craver that makes maleness a prerequisite for pride in the "reputation, spirit, and heritage" of Texas A&M? Have you discovered some new genetic factor which at birth is instilled only in future male Aggies? Over one thousand female students subject themselves daily to routine whooping and inadequate campus facilities for women. They do this, Mr. Craver, for the same reason that you subject yourself daily to the physical demands sometimes accompanying "good Aggie bull." They feel the same chills that you and I feel when that Fightin' Texas Aggie Band strikes up the War Hymn, the same ecstasy that we feel in victory, and the same agony we experience in defeat. In short, they are Aggies ... Why not give them a chance?

Aggies,
Fifth Wheel?

What the hell is a fifth wheel? This question has been asked repeatedly the past two days. A fifth wheel is a person who has been left out of the system—who doesn't fit in. We feel that student government should make the necessary effort to incorporate all the fifth wheels into the decision-making process. In the past, too many offices have been held by those who seek only titles and honors, who have been unwilling to give the time and effort to make student government real.

We of the Fifth Wheel Committee pledge ourselves to the principle that student government at A&M should become a forum in which all perspectives may be heard and responsible changes implemented.

Charges have been made that this campaign is an attack against a certain segment of our campus, specifically the Corps of Cadets. These charges are unfounded. We are not anti-corps. We are pro-A&M and pro-student government. Indeed the very essence of our philosophy is to insure that all perspectives are heard and their influence felt. To be anti-student government would be the height of hypocrisy.

Others have voiced concern about the "benefits" of an organization of this type. Our primary purpose is to see that you, as a student, are fully aware of our candidates' views and qualifications. How many times in the past have you voted and merely circled the name that sounded the most familiar? No wonder student government has failed to represent you.

It is our hope that by April 23 you can be thoroughly familiar with what we stand for and the direction in which we hope to move student government at A&M. Remember, that while we hope to have an impact on the future of student government at A&M, the ultimate direction will be determined by you, the students.
