

Ten thousand mourners crowded into G. Rollie White Coliseum for the memorial services.

Former President Lyndon Johnson was there.

Eight student leaders served as pallbearers while another 40 students formed an honor guard for Gen. Rudder.

Many Officials Attend Rites for Gen. Rudder

Funeral services for Major Gen. James Earl Rudder, president of the Texas A&M University System and a hero of the D-Day invasion of France during World War II, were held here last Wednesday with dozens of dignitaries, including former President Lyndon B. Johnson, in attendance.

Rudder, 59, died March 23 in Saint Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston of circulatory collapse caused by a severe kidney infection. He had undergone brain surgery and three ulcer operations since first being hospitalized Jan. 29.

More than 10,000 mourners packed G. Rollie White Coliseum for the memorial service.

Mr. Johnson, himself recuperating from a heart ailment, was joined at the services by Gov. Preston Smith; Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes; Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin; Frank C. Erwin Jr., chairman of the University of Texas board of regents, and other state political and educational leaders.

The services were conducted by the Rev. James B. Argue of Little Rock, Ark., a family friend and former pastor of the College Station United Methodist Church.

Rudder, who served as Texas land commissioner from 1955 to 1958, was buried with military honors in the College Station City Cemetery.

Members of the Ross Volunteers fired a 21-gun salute at the conclusion of the ceremonies as buglers played "Silver Taps."

Military Professors Awarded Medals

Air Force Maj. George F. Heinrich of Kalamazoo, Mich., received the Distinguished Flying Cross and ninth Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal among eight awards given here.

Col. Keith C. Hanna, professor of aerospace studies, pinned the decorations on six Air Force Institute of Technology officers-students and Staff Sgt. David M. Erwin, commissioning NCO in the Aerospace Studies Department.

Sergeant Erwin, who has been with the AFROTC detachment since last May, was cited with the Air Force Commendation Medal for service as chief clerk of the European Weather Central, Detachment 40, 28th Weather Squadron, at High Wycombe AS, England.

Major Heinrich's DFC and Air Medal cluster was awarded for service in Southeast Asia. The citation with the Distinguished Flying Cross cited extraordinary achievement as an RF-4C aircraft commander flying out of Tan Son Nhut Air Base.

Commendation Medals also went to Capt. Ronald M. Kimball, Capt. George H. Moeller and Capt. James W. Pero.

Capt. Daniel A. Mutuska was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal. The 12th Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal was presented to Capt. Herbert P. Ozment.

University Information Wins District Awards

University Information walked away with the most awards in competition sponsored by the Southwest District of the American College Public Relations Association, announced Director Jim Lindsey.

Lindsey said ACPRA judges presented A&M four first place and three second place awards during the meeting in Hot Springs, Ark.

In the two overall categories, A&M took a first place in the Publications Improvement Program and tied for first in the Public Relations-Publications Program category.

Associate Director Lane Stephenson's news story on a speech by the late President Earl Rudder won top honors in the General News category and a display board presentation of A&M's new recruitment brochure took a first place in Posters and Promotional Flyers.

Second place awards were presented in the Student Recruitment, Deferred Giving and Annual Giving Program categories.

Lindsey noted Texas A&M received more awards than any of the other 75 colleges and universities in the Southwest District, Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico make up the district.

Dorsey McCrory, development director, was a panelist for a "New Ideas in Big Donor Clubs" program during the three-day meeting.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Official notices must arrive in the Office of Student Publications before deadline of 1 p.m. of the day preceding publication.

Applications are now being taken for the 1970-71 position of editor of the Texas A&M Agriculturalist, the student agricultural magazine. Obtain forms at the Student Publications Office, Services Building, 9114

To be eligible to purchase the Texas A&M University ring, an undergraduate student must have at least one academic year in residence and credit for ninety-five (95) semester hours. The hours passed at the preliminary grade report period on April 6, 1970, may be used in satisfying this ninety-five hour requirement. Students qualifying under this regulation may now leave their names with the ring clerk, Room Seven, Richard Coke Building. She, in turn, will check all records to determine ring eligibility.

Orders for these rings will be taken by the ring clerk starting April 20, 1970, and continuing through May 25, 1970. The rings will be returned to the Registrar's Office to be delivered on or about July 10, 1970.

The ring clerk is on duty from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday, of each week.

PO Celebrates 8th Anniversary

Xi Delta, the A&M chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, celebrates its eighth anniversary this week.

The local chapter of the national service fraternity was founded March 26, 1962. There were 20 charter members.

Xi Delta has grown since then to over 300 members. There are more than 100 active members now on campus.

This semester's pledge class is the sixteenth in the history of the chapter. Officers for the pledge class are Milton Nielson, president; Bruce Clay, vice president; Mike Vidrine, secretary; and Vidal Gonzalez Jr., treasurer.

The pledge class has been named after Gary Beckom, a sophomore who received a compound leg fracture while working on the bonfire.

Andrew Williams, pledge master, said pledges are required to complete 45 hours of service this semester and to work on at least five projects. APO projects this semester will include putting flags around the drill field for all military reviews, helping with the upcoming local Boy Scout Circus and running the Aggie Blood Drive.

Williams said the local chapter has already given out over 5,000 free gift-pax and class magazines, and will be participating in the APO Sectional Conference in Houston April 10-12.
