Ags Stop Bears But Not Tech

The Texas A&M tennis team defeated the Baylor Bears 5-1 in a Southwest Conference tennis match here Monday afternoon after a disappointing weekend showing saw the Aggies lose to Michigan State and Texas Tech in their first conference match.

The Aggies suffered their fourth 5-4 defeat of the season Friday to Michigan State as they dropped two of three doubles matches after splitting the singles matches.

Dickie Fikes, the Aggies' number one singles player, won the first match over Dusty Rhoads to start the Aggies off right but they dropped the next two matches before Tommy Connell and Mike Mills won to even things up.

Fikes and David Chastain defeated Tom Gray and DeArmond

Briggs 6-4 in their opening set but the Spartan twosome came back to win a hard-fought 14-12 third set after tying the match with a 6-4 win.

Lindsey Kroll and Lawton Park scored the Aggies' only doubles win over Mike Madura and Rick Ferman, 6-4 6-2.

The Aggies dropped their conference opener Saturday to a good Texas Tech team 6-0.

Aggie Coach Omar Smith said he feels the Raiders should battle Texas to the wire for the runner-up spot behind Rice.

Tech lost its conference opener to the Owls in Houston Friday, 5-1.

While Tech was defeating the Aggies the unheralded SMU Mustangs tied the Longhorns 3-3.

The Aggies won their first conference match Monday with a 5-1 decision over Baylor.

A&M journeys to Dallas Wednesday to play the Mustangs who placed one notch behind the Ags a year ago in fifth place. A&M won last year's dual match, 4-2.

Rice leads the Southwest Conference play after Monday with a 5-1 mark with Tech holding down second with a 7-5 mark.

Baylor's 1-5 record is last and TCU has not yet played a conference match.

Results of the Baylor match are:

Singles:
Dickie Fikes, A&M, def. Jerry Luft, Baylor, 8-6, 8-10; 6-2.

Bruce Crumley, A&M, def. Larry Kohler, Baylor, 6-2, 6-4.

Tommy Sheives, Baylor, def. Lawton Park, A&M, 8-6, 7-5.
Tommy Connell, A&M, def. Jack Vacne, Baylor, 6-2, 6-3.

Doubles:
Fikes and Connell, A&M, def. Luft and Kohler, Baylor, 6-3, 6-3.

Golfers Whip TCU Frogs; Play Texas Today on Road

BARNEY WELCH

The Texas A&M golf team opened defense of its Southwest Conference golf crown Saturday with a 4½-1½ win over TCU and play Texas in a match that could decide the SWC champion this afternoon in Austin.

The Longhorns defeated Rice 6-0 last week and Saturday nipped SMU 3½-2½ to give them a 9½-2½ record.

Steve Veriato shot a 70 to lead the Aggies and defeated the visitors Don Dodgen 2-1.

Richard Ellis won his match 3-2 over Eddie Vossler of TCU while shooting a 71.

Tommy Johnson and Duke Butler shot 75's for A&M but Butler was beaten by Leroy Pearson, 4-3.

Johnson defeated Henry Ellis, 1-up.

Last year the Aggies nipped Texas 3½-2½ to lay the foundation for a 2½ match lead over Texas. Tech was third 10 matches back of the Aggies.

Welch Appointed To Aggie Staff

Athletic Director and head football coach Gene Stallings has announced that Barney Welch, a former Aggie football star, has been hired as recruiting coordinator and assistant football coach at A&M.

Welch, a well-known SWC football official and an insurance man in College Station, will join the A&M staff in September.

"Barney is a great individual and I know he will contribute a great deal to our program," Stallings said.

"I love A&M and I love athletics," Welch said. "I think a great deal of Coach Stallings and his staff and I want to contribute as much as I can toward's A&M's athletic success."

Welch was born in Hico, Tex., but grew up in Stephenville where he played high school football, basketball, tennis and track. He entered Texas A&M in September, 1941 and played freshman and sophomore football before entering military service.

He served 36 months as a technical sergeant in an infantry unit of the Third Army in Europe.

Following his discharge, he returned to Texas A&M and played football in 1946 and 1947. He was a halfback, outstanding pass receiver and defensive back.

He was graduated in January, 1948 and immediately became director of intramural athletics at A&M. In 1961 he went into the insurance business with Mercantile Security and has been with that company ever since, except for a one-year stint of active military duty.

Welch, now 47, was married to the former Jane Porter of Stephenville in 1943. They have a son, Russell, 26 and a daughter, Mrs. Neill Wait, 21.
