will hold its annual Student-Professor Banquet Friday at 7 p.m. in Sbisa Dining Hall.

Dr. Herman Brown, associate professor in the Agricultural Education Department, said the banquet will recognize outstanding students and a top professor. The event also promotes better relations between students and Awards will be made to the outstanding junior and senior in the chapter, with a $125 scholarship going to the junior.

The scholarship is based on need, chapter activities and overall grade point ratio.

A Distinguished Service Award will be made to someone outside the university. Brown said the honor will go to an individual who has made significant contributions in the area of vocational agriculture.

Midwest Video Picks New Sales Manager

Harold D. McCullough, 47, was named sales manager for Midwest Video Corp., Alton Risinger, general manager, said Thursday.

"McCullough brings solid sales experience and a dedication to working in the public interest", Risinger noted. "He will strengthen our organization at a time of growth and expansion of the cable network which serves all of Bryan-College Station."

Formerly vice president of sales for the American Coin Meter Corp. of Bryan, McCullough also served as executive vice president of the Canadian subsidiary of Ald, Inc.

"I'm pleased and proud to join this organization", McCullough said. "Television is an important part of our life, and, of course, a community antenna brings us the benefits of many fine stations in addition to our own community's Channels 3
