Horns Win; Pressure On Ags

Behind the sparkling pitching of James Street and Burt Hooten the University of Texas at Austin Longhorns swept a doubleheader from the Rice Owls in Houston Thursday to remain undefeated in 12 Southwest Conference games and move ahead of Texas A&M which is unbeaten in 11 games.

Street won his eighth game of the year without a loss by winning the opener 2-1 and Hooten, who made the All-American team last year as a freshman, pitched the Horns to a 5-1 verdict in the second game.

The third game of the series is scheduled for 1 p.m. today in Houston.

Texas A&M gets a chance to keep the pressure on when they face Texas Christian in a three-game series today and Saturday on Kyle Field.

Coach Tom Chandler has nominated lefthander Doug Rau who has an 8-0 record and a 0.29 era to pitch the first game of Friday's doubleheader and senior righthander Dave Benesh will pitch the second.

Chandler said he was undecided on who would start the third game.

Ags Named 1st In SWC Track

The names will be the same, only the times and distances will change in the 55th annual Southwest Conference track and field meet Friday and Saturday at Rice University in Houston.

Eleven former champions will be in the field as defending champion Texas finds itself rated third behind Texas A&M and Rice, both flashing exceptional strength in the dashes, relays and field events.

Of the 75 individual place winners (five places in each of the 15 individual events, not counting relays) in the 1969 SWC meet, 37 return.

The track and field championships get underway at 2 p.m. Friday with finals in the pole vault, discus and javelin, with preliminaries in the running events at 5 o'clock.

SWC meet record times have already been bettered in six events this season and another has been tied.

Those returning include champions in nine events, with the 440-yard dash and mile runs each boasting two champions. Texas' David Morton, the 1968 winner and SWC record holder, and Curtis Mills, the 1969 champ and world record holder, both return in the 440. SMU's Stan Hill, mile winner last year, returns to try for two straight over '68 titlist Fred Cooper of Texas.

Carl Mills of TCU, who soared 25-8 1/4 in a wind-aided conference-winning jump last year, has a 24-5 this year to trail Baylor freshman Danny Brabham (24-7 1/4).

R. J. Leads Way In SWC Hitting

Texas A&M left fielder R. J. Englert who broke out of a slump with 3 hits in a doubleheader with Houston Saturday holds the top hitting spot in the Southwest Conference according to the latest statistics released by the Conference.

The Big Spring sophomore carries a .420 average to lead all hitters and only Skip Balthrop, of Baylor at .403 is over the .400 mark.

The Aggies have three other players in the top 20 with catcher Billy Hodge's .381 for second and first baseman Chris Sans' .337 ranking him sixth. Second baseman Butch Ghutzman is 19th with a .292 mark.

Junior lefthander Doug Rau of the Aggies is the Conference's leading pitcher with 0.29 earned run average and 8-0 record. Texas James Street won his eighth game without a loss Thursday but his era is higher than Rau's at 0.78.
