

Tenure Statement

dropped, the AAUP wants assurance that Texas A&M now has the process policies," Dr. Davenport said.

He said he thinks if the Board of Directors made the changes recommended by the local AAUP chapter, it would improve the university's position with the national AAUP.

"If the national AAUP has to ask the university to make the changes, this will be just another factor in our relationship to be resolved," he said.

Dr. Davenport added that if the local chapter approves the committee's report, a copy will be sent to the Board of Directors.

Acting A&M President A. R. Laedecke said that the statement as passed by the Board of Directors compares favorably with any others he has seen.

"I'm sure there are revisions that could be made," he said, "but it seems to be a comprehensive and adequate statement."

The AAUP committee report also listed 10 other "less serious" changes in the statement passed by the board.

The first six of these require that the policy statement must be amended in order to apply specifically to Texas A&M University.

In the opinion of the committee, the statement passed by the Board of Directors:

1. "... fails to specify the procedures by which notification of tenure will be made.
2. "... fails to specify the procedures by which notification of non-reappointment will be made.
3. "... fails to specify either the composition or the manner of election of the Faculty Committee on Academic Freedom, Responsibility, and Tenure.
4. "... fails to specify the procedures by which notification of terms of employment will be made.
5. "... fails to specify either the composition or the manner of election of the Faculty Advisory Committee.

The committee added that the Faculty Committee on Academic Freedom and Tenure "should be empowered to determine whether a hearing should be public or closed and the meaning of a "closed hearing" stated. Both points have been omitted in the board statement."

The AAUP report lists other changes made by the board which it says, make questionable its intention to follow the policies described:

1. "... creates doubt as to whether leave time incurred for the benefit of the university will count as probationary-period service.
2. "... creates doubt as to whether the rights and responsibilities of faculty members apply to all faculty members.
3. "... creates doubt that a faculty member suspended during a hearing procedure will receive pay while suspended.
4. "... specifies that the Faculty Committee on Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure will have certain duties but seems to leave at its discretion the performance of other equally important duties."

80 Schools Closed By Anti war Protests

By The Associated Press

More than 80 colleges and universities were officially closed today in the growing campus protests against the war and the killing of four students at Kent State University in Ohio.

Most of the activities were peaceful but there were incidents of violence that brought National Guardsmen to schools in Kentucky and Illinois and new clashes at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Students at the University of Missouri and Syracuse University burned effigies of President Nixon during rallies.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan closed the entire state college and university system totaling 28 campuses until Monday, asking that the 300,000 students reflect "on the grave sequence of current events."

He also asked the state's 92 two-year junior colleges with 750,000 students and the state's private colleges with about 100,000 to close, and many of them did.

"I want to make it very clear that closing the campuses ... is not in any way giving in to those who preach and practice violence," he said in a statewide television talk. "This four-day period is support for those who believe in nonviolence."

Pennsylvania State University, with 18 campuses, was ordered closed. Ohio State University was closed by its president shortly after Gov. James A. Rhodes said all Ohio schools experiencing unrest should be shut.

The National Student Information Center at Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass., said 258 school had reported they were participating in the anti-war strike.

Gov. Louis B. Nunn of Kentucky ordered state police and National Guard troops "with mounted bayonets and live ammunition" onto the University of Kentucky campus to enforce a curfew. But the guardsmen were told not to load their rifles.

His action came after 750 students ignored a 5 p.m. curfew ordered by university President Otis Singletary after an Air Force ROTC building was burned. "My decision was to wait until the campus was half burned down with lives being lost or to act," Nunn declared.

Steve Bright, president of the Kentucky student body and a leader in the demonstration that prompted the action, termed it "completely absurd and unnecessary."

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie called 5,000 Illinois National Guardsmen to standby alert. The troops had standing orders not to load or fire their weapons without direct orders.

Some 450 troops relieved police Wednesday night in patrolling Southern Illinois University at Carbondale after a clash that left nine students and 12 policemen injured.

State policemen across West Virginia were placed on alert late Wednesday by Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr. for possible duty on the tense West Virginia University campus in Morgantown.

Young protesters dodged clouds of tear gas to hurl rocks and firebombs at police and National Guardsmen on the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison.

An old frame house that was used as extra administration office space was firebombed early today. Small fires flared at several places on the campus Wednesday night, and barricades were thrown up in the streets and burned.

Officials said more guardsmen had been activated and might be brought to the capital today. In three days of violence more than 60 persons have been arrested in Madison.

Weary National Guardsmen continued their exodus today from Kent State University, on orders of Gov. Rhodes. The move was opposed by Ronald Kane, the Portage County prosecutor who said, "The situation is still a potentially eruptive and explosive one."

Thirty-five students occupied the ROTC offices at the University of Montana Wednesday for less than three hours. They left after the administration agreed to suspend ROTC activities for the duration of the current anti-war boycott. The takeover was the first such protest in the history of the state.

Three students were stabbed and five others were struck by cars at a barricade Wednesday in protest incidents at the University of New Mexico. One of the injured was reported in serious condition.

The campus protests were precipitated by the President's decision to send U.S. troops into Cambodia. The size and intensity of demonstrations grew when National Guardsmen killed four students at Kent State during a demonstration.
