Rau unanimous choice

4 Aggies named All-SWC in baseball

Four members of the Texas A&M baseball team have been chosen to the 12-man Associated Press All-Southwest Conference baseball team that was selected by the league's coaches.

Lefthander Doug Rau, catcher Billy Hodge, first baseman Chris Sans and leftfielder R. J. Englert were picked to squad with Rau being one of two unanimous selections.

Rau, a junior from Columbus, had the kind of year that a pitcher usually dreams about but seldom gets. The southpaw was hit hard only once in 11 games and that misfortune came largely because of control problems.

He tossed seven complete games while the rest of the Aggie staffed totaled five. Rau gave up only 39 hits and seven earned runs in 73 innings. He recorded 82 strikeouts and walked only 20 while working on a 0.86 e.r.a. and a 9-1 record. His e.r.a. reached a low of 0.26 during the season.

"One of the best college pitchers to come along in several years," was the way Coach Tom Chandler described Rau. "He's able to set up hitters and get the strikeout when he needs it," Chandler said.

Billy Hodge, a graduate of Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan, made his first year as a starter a good one leading the Aggies in three offensive categories and tying for the lead in two others.

Chandler calls Hodge the best catcher in the Southwest Conference and he had the season to prove it, Chandler said.

Hodge, who was the backup man last year batting only .171 in 35 at bats but he hit .340 knocked in a club leading 27 runs and hitting five home runs to tie for the team lead with Boyd Hadaway.

"A real good clutch ball player who can get the big hit when you need it" was the way Chandler characterized All-SWC first baseman Chris Sans who like Hodge made a golden opportunity out of his first year as a starter.

The sophomore from Houston hit only .220 in 41 at bats last year but hit .282 with three homers and 18 runs batted in this spring.

R. J. Englert, Aggie leftfielder, didn't start the season as a starter but when given the chance turned in a sterling performance that may warrant him the SWC batting crown when official league statistics are released. The sophomore from Big Spring hit .400 driving in 10 runs.

"Englert had a good year," Chandler said, adding that "He's really happy to have him back for two more years."

League champion Texas also had four players selected including pitchers Burt Hooton and James Street who were selected as players of the year. Outfielder Jack Miller and third baseman David Chalk were also picked with Chalk being the other unanimous pick.

Baylor second baseman Skip Bathrop and outfielder John Dodgen were also named to the team.

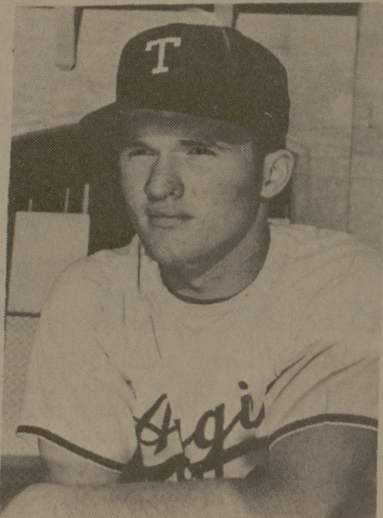

Texas Christian had two selections in outfielder Jeff Newman and shortstop Glenn Monroe. Righthander Ruben Garcia of Texas Tech was named Freshman of the Year and Rice Coach Osborn who guided the Owls to third place behind the Longhorns and the Aggies was named Coach of the Year.

All four Aggie selections return with at least one year eligibility and as Coach Chandler puts it, "I'm extremely pleased to have four members of Aggie baseball team selected to the All-SWC team for 1970."

Ellis, Butler in meet

Duke Butler and Richard Ellis of the Texas A&M golf team have been selected to play in the NCAA golf championships according to announcement by Dave Williams, golf coach at the University of Houston and chairman of the district 6 selection committee.

Butler and Ellis, the only seniors on the A&M squad that finished second to the University of Texas at Austin in the Southwest Conference race were picked along with four other individuals to represent District 6 in the championships.

Mike Jerome of Lamar Tech, Kurt Cox of Trinity at San Antonio, Garry Wolff of the University of Texas at Arlington and Don Brown of Baylor were also selected.

The complete teams of the SWC champion Texas Longhorns and defending NCAA champion Houston will also compete in the championships June 22-27 in Columbus, Ohio.

Ellis working on his fourth letter at A&M recently placed fifth in the SWC medalist tourney at Houston with a 299. Last year playing for the SWC champion Aggies Ellis was fourth in the medalist tourney with a 295. The Pampa senior played on championship teams in 1967 and 1969.

Butler working on his third letter for the Aggies attended A&M Consolidated High School before coming to A&M. Butler was tenth in SWC medal play last year and withdrew after shooting a first round 82 this season.

Steve Veriato, a third member of the Aggie golf team who played at the SWC medalist tourney finished tenth in the competition with a score of 306.

Hot Dierker blanks Car

HOUSTON (AP)—Larry Dierker fired a four-hitter for his eighth victory of the season as the Houston Astros rocked Bob Gibson and the St. Louis Cardinals Monday night.

Dierker, 8-2, struck out 10 on the way to his fifth straight complete game victory and Houston's first shutout win of the season. The Astros' righthander and Cincinnati southpaw Jim Leflore are the only eight-game winners in the majors.

Gibson, 2-3, was hammered for 12 hits and all the Houston runs in the 5 2-3 innings he lasted.
