

A&M to award posthumous DVM degree at exercises

A&M will award its first posthumous doctor of veterinary medicine degree to a Houston native during graduation exercises Friday, Aug. 7.

College of Veterinary Medicine Dean A. A. Price said the wife and parents of Danny Lee Davis will accept the degree. Davis died May 10 from Hodgkins disease. He was 25.

The Waltrip High School graduate was a third-year veterinary medicine student. He attended classes in a wheelchair for six weeks prior to his death, maintaining a B academic average and attending all classes and clinics.

A spokesman reported Davis was in high spirits throughout his illness and was in class the Friday before his death.

Davis is survived by his wife, the former Jan Young of 2307 Hauerhill, Houston, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Davis of Route 3, Hempstead.

He attended South Texas Junior College and Tarleton State before transferring here in September, 1964. He was admitted to the professional veterinary medicine program in September, 1967.

Davis was named a Distinguished Student two trimesters, an honor for students with a 3.25 grade point ratio or better.

Mackin awarded emeritus status

Dr. John G. Mackin, biology professor, has been awarded professor emeritus status by the institution's board of directors.

The designation is effective Sept. 1, when Dr. Mackin retires from regular service after 21 years with the university.

Dr. Mackin was recommended for the honor by Dean of Science J. M. Prescott.

"International recognition for research has been accorded Dr. Mackin, who is one of the most productive scientists in his specialty," Dr. Prescott noted.

VanZandt joins coach staff

Lance VanZandt, defensive coordinator at West Texas State in Canyon, has replaced Dick Harris as defensive secondary coach.

Athletic Director and head football coach Gene Stallings announced the change.

Harris joined the staff in March and worked with the Aggies during spring drills. In making the change, Stallings said, "Things just didn't work out satisfactorily with Harris."

Stallings added that "Texas A&M is fortunate to secure such a well qualified coach as VanZandt at this late date."

VanZandt said, "This is a tremendous challenge. I'm looking forward to working for Coach Stallings and coaching Texas A&M's defensive backs."

The 31-year-old VanZandt worked at West Texas State the past two years. The Buffaloes set a school record with 26 interceptions last season and had 23 interceptions the year before.

Prior to that VanZandt coached the defensive secondary two seasons at New Mexico Highlands in Las Vegas, N.M. In 1967, New Mexico Highlands had 23 interceptions and the defense set six school records.

VanZandt was born in Amarillo, moved to Houston when he was six months old and then moved to Port Neches when he was five years old.
