Experienced the word for '70 Aggie Coaches

Young and experienced are the words for Head Coach Gene Stallings' coaching staff this season.

The newest addition to the staff is Harven Aschenbeck hired earlier this summer. Aschenbeck, an outstanding defensive tackle on A&M's 1967 SWC championship team, will work with the defensive unit.

Aschenbeck, who completed his eligibility in 1968, worked with the fish last season as a student assistant and worked with the varsity last spring, also as a student assistant. He will be a full-time varsity assistant this fall.

This will open Stallings' sixth campaign at the Aggies helm and his third as athletic director.

A CAPTAIN of the undefeated 1956 Aggie team, Stallings spent seven seasons as an assistant to Bear Bryant in Alabama. He returned here late in 1964, and in 1965 his team won three games, including a 14-10 upset of Georgia Tech. The following year, the Aggies led the conference standings until mid-season and weren't eliminated from contention until the final week.

Born in 1935 at Paris, Texas, Stallings became an all-around sports star at Paris High School, where he captained football, basketball and golf teams. He lettered all three years at A&M in football and was all-conference his junior year.

ELMER SMITH, in his sixth year as assistant head coach under Stallings, will be serving his 17th season on the Aggie football coaching staff this fall.

Born in Casa, Ark., Sept. 15, 1907, Smith was graduated from Danville High in 1927 and received his bachelor's degree in economics from Hendrix College in 1931. He received his master's degree in physical education from Peabody College in 1952.

One of the great all-around athletes ever to come out of the state of Arkansas, Smith competed in football, basketball and track at Danville High and football, basketball, baseball and track at Hendrix College.

For his athletic feats, both as player and coach, he is a member of Arkansas' Hall of Fame.

He coached two years at Hamburg High and compiled an 18-1 record. Then he was an assistant at Hendrix College, Centenary before serving in the armed forces during World War II.

He was head coach at Southern State College from 1946 through 1953 and had a 54-27-3 mark. He came here in March 1954, to join Paul Bryant's staff and has been here ever since.

DEE POWELL dives into his sixth year on the Aggie football staff and his fifth as head of the Aggie defense. Powell was graduated from A&M in 1957 after playing three seasons of varsity football as center and guard.

After receiving a degree in physical education here, Powell joined Alabama's football staff and worked with them in spring training. After spending five years in the Air Force as a jet pilot he rejoined the Alabama staff in March, 1963, and was there two seasons before coming here.

Powell worked with both the defense and offense at Alabama but has specialized in defense here. He recruits for the Aggies in the Houston area.

BUD MOORE is in his fifth season as head of the Aggie overall offense and will be coaching the offensive backs in the fall.

Moore was born in Jasper, Ala., Oct. 16, 1939, and was graduated from West End High School in Birmingham in 1957 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Alabama in 1961.

He competed in football, basketball, baseball and track at West End and played football and baseball at Alabama.

Moore coached one year at Gadsden, Ala., High School and served three years as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky. He joined the Aggie staff in January, 1965 and served as offensive line coach one year before being named head offensive coach.

Moore competed in two bowl games as a player at Alabama, the Liberty Bowl in 1959 and the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1960. He coached for the Aggies in the 1968 Cotton Bowl.

He recruits for A&M in the San Antonio area.

JACK HURLBUT, quarterback coach, is starting his sixth with the Aggies after joining the staff in January of 1965. He tutored the defensive backfield for a season and was given charge of the quarterbacks and has held that position since.

Hurlbut was a quarterback-defensive back at the University of Alabama and saw action in three bowl games — all wins. The Crimson Tide beat Arkansas in the '62 Sugar Bowl, Oklahoma in the '63 Orange Bowl, and Ole Miss in the '64 Sugar Bowl.

He was graduated from Alabama with a degree in physical education in 1964. From there he went to Galveston Ball High School where he coached the junior varsity for a year before coming here.

He was a four-sport letterman at Aldine High School in Houston and was captain of the football, baseball and track teams his senior year.

Hurlbut recruits the Northeast Texas area for the Aggies.

CHARLES BRADSHAW, offensive line coach, is a newcomer to Aggieland and the Southeastern Conference.

Bradshaw joined Stallings' staff last January 1 following 15 years coaching experience in the Southeastern Conference at Alabama and Kentucky.

Bradshaw was a standout in football and basketball at Lane High in Montgomery, Ala., where he won all-state honors as a center-linebacker.

He played end for four years at the University of Kentucky. Bradshaw returned to Lane High as an assistant football coach and head track coach. Lanier won the state title in football in '51 and took the state track crown in '53.

He went to Kentucky in '58 and served as an assistant coach for five seasons before joining the staff at Alabama where he was an assistant coach for three years.

From '62 through '68, he was head coach at the University of Kentucky. He'll recruit for A&M in the Fort Worth-Waco area.

BOBBY MARKS, receiver coach, joined the Aggie staff in February, 1969, after a very successful tenure at Houston State High School. He was an All-SWC end for A&M in 1957.

Marks was graduated from Warren Easton High School in New Orleans, La., in 1954 where he lettered in football, basketball, and track, and earned all-state honors in football.

He earned a degree in physical education following an outstanding career for Coach Bear Bryant here.

He was an assistant coach at Nederland and Houston Jones before taking over the reins at State High School. In three years there his teams won 28 and lost 11.

He recruits in the Gulf Coast area.

JOHN PAUL YOUNG, linebacker coach, is one of the most recent additions to the Aggie staff.

Young, a West Texas native, was an outstanding linebacker himself for three years at Abilene High and for four years at the University of Texas at El Paso. Young earned all-conference honors at UTEP and was captain of the 1961 team.

He stayed on at UTEP as linebacker coach after getting his bachelor's degree in physical education in '62. A three-year star
