

Fish getting ready for Wogs

The Texas Aggie Fish football squad, a little short handed compared to the past two freshman crops, got down to business this week in preparation for its opener, which is still nearly six weeks away.

With only 32 scholarship athletes on hand, the fish will have to work a little harder to get ready for the coming season, according to head coach Jim Keller.

That opener is slated for Oct. 7 with the TCU Wogs. Keller said, due to the lack of people, many of his athletes will have to go two ways.

The past two freshman recruiting years were boosted by the Aggies' Southwest Conference Championship in 1967. Those two groups, which had about the maximum allowance of 50 scholarship athletes, had 5-0 and 4-1 seasons.

Coach Keller is looking for help, which he says they are going to have to get from the 20 or 25 prospects who are trying out for the squad.

The starting of school two weeks earlier than usual helps the Fish this year, Keller said, because it gives them two weeks more to prepare for the season.

Freshman teams are allowed to go to work when school starts and that leaves five weeks this year. In past years they had only a couple of weeks to prepare, Keller noted.

Keller said, that usually four or five non-scholarship athletes make the squad and noted several prospective players from the early workouts.

They are Mike Bruton, a tight end from Nacogdoches Campbell; Duane Leftwich, a center from Hughes Springs; Rusty Poole of Victoria and Jim Pattillo of Alpine, both defensive ends and Mark and Winkie Benbow, cornerbacks from Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan.

Keller said it was too early to really tell anything definite about the squad but added they had been working hard and had a good attitude.

"Many of the players came from different systems and are still learning," he said, adding that it would be a while for them to get oriented to the program.

Only one casualty has been reported during the opening days workout and due to the length of time between now and the first game, offensive tackle Dan Sibley is not expected to miss any action. Sibley, from San Antonio Lee, pulled a hamstring muscle in Tuesday's workouts and is expected to miss about four weeks of work.

Players who impressed the Fish coaching staff during the first three days of workouts included Marc Green of Odessa who is working as both a safety and running back; Billy Wiebold, middle linebacker from Beaumont Forest Park; corner back Bobby Merren from Nederland; Grady Harris from Arlington and Pat Herring from Beaumont South Park, both wingbacks; split ends Eric Elkins of Dallas Jesuit and Bobby Hughes of Houston Sam Houston; and quarterbacks Tim Trimmier of San Antonio Lee and Mike Rigsby of Houston Smiley.

The Aggies recruited five players last year who played quarterback in high school and currently four of them are working out at the man-under spot.

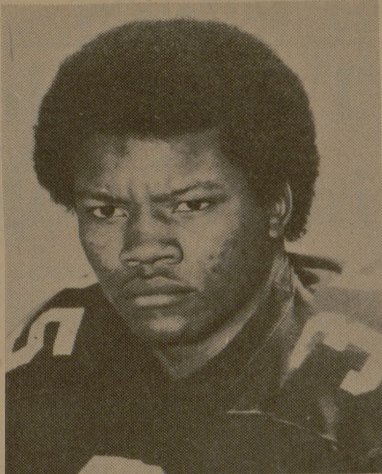

Only Trimmier and Rigsby are working solely at quarterback while Green from Odessa is working as a running back and safety. Terry Savage of Duncanville is working at safety.

Bill Nutt of Brenham is at safety and might be the punter.

Six former Aggie football players are working as student assistants in helping Keller coach the Fish this season. They are Jim Piper, Robert Stansberry, Waymond Lightfoot, Curly Hallman, Jimmy Adams and Ronald Cole.

The following is a list of Aggie fish on scholarships and the positions they are now working at for the team.

Charlie Billingsley, Odessa Permian, corner back; Mike Cady, Washington, D. C., offensive guard; Robert Dennis, Big Spring, defensive guard; Eric Elkins, Dallas Jesuit, safety; Ronnie Goodwyn, Lubbock St. John's, linebacker; Chris Hentzen, Dallas Jesuit, cornerback; Marshall Jackson, Nederland, defensive end; Dwight LaBauve, Lafayette, La., safety and fullback; Charles Murphy, Monahans, linebacker; Kevin Owen, Jacksboro, defensive end; Keith Rice, Nacogdoches, offensive tackle; Tommy Roderick, Brownwood, defensive guard and offensive tackle; Richard Semands, Houston Sterling, offensive guard; Gary Smith, Shreveport, La., tailback; Kevin Smith, Houston Westbury, defensive tackle; David Standish, Arlington, fullback; Mike Stautzenberger, Shreveport, La., defensive guard; Tim Sullivan, Dallas Jesuit, offensive guard; Darrell Taliaferro, Arp, center; Jimmy Tinsley, Dallas Kimball, linebacker; Bud Trammel, Dumas, defensive guard; Bill Williams, Killeen, defensive guard.

Rugby Club meet scheduled Tuesday

The Rugby Club of A&M will have its first meeting of the new school year in Room 2-C of the Memorial Student Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The club will elect officers at the meeting.

Twenty lettermen return to the Aggie squad, known as the "Wild Bunch" last year in the conference. Last season they had a 9-4-1 record and recorded six shutouts during the season.

That included a season-ending 49-0 shellacking of the University of Texas at Austin.

Maroons blast Whites in controlled game

The Maroons beat the Whites, 52-0, in a controlled scrimmage at Texas A&M Thursday and, afterwards, Coach Gene Stallings said he thought his squad was improving both offensively and defensively.

Quarterback Lex James and halfback Brad Dusek, a couple of sophomores, scored two touchdowns each while fullback Doug Neill, halfback Steve Burks and linebacker Mike Lord each scored once. Soccer-style kicker Pat McDermott booted seven extra points and a 23-yard field goal.

The Maroons represent the first units, both ways, while the Whites represent the second teams. The Maroon defense, led by linebackers Kent Finley and Lord and guards Van Odom and Boice Best. They let the White offense across midfield only once all afternoon and that came on a fumble recovery.

The Maroons got some splendid blocking up front from such as tackles Andy Phillely and Benny DeWitt; guards Jim Parker and Leonard Forey and center Ted Smith.

James hit 8 of 14 passes for 168 yards. Jimmy Sheffield, punting for both teams, averaged 46 yards on 11 kicks. His longest was 86 yards into the end zone.

Burks was the leading rusher with 74 yards on 9 runs. Dusek was a step behind with 73 yards on 15 tries. Neill had 65 on 9 runs, fullback Marc Black 50 on 11 and Dave Elmendorf 2 for 39 yards.

Rocky Self caught 3 passes for 33 yards and Hugh McElroy nabbed 2 for 88 yards.

Of the seven touchdowns, the longest came on a 9-yard run by Dusek. Lord's touchdown was a 25-yard runback of an intercepted pass.

The Maroon's offense opened with James at quarterback, Dusek and Self at the halves and Black at fullback. Neill alternated with Black while Burks shared duty as halfback with both Self and Dusek.

McElroy was the split end and Homer May opened at tight end. The tackles were Phillely and DeWitt and the guards were Forey and Parker. Mike Park and Ted Smith alternated at center.

Vince Lombardi dies from cancer

WASHINGTON (AP)—An era of professional football ended Thursday with the death from cancer of Vince Lombardi, the Washington Redskins' coach who reached legendary heights in the 1960s with the teams he led at Green Bay.

Lombardi, 57, believed deeply in the old-fashioned virtues which were stamped over all his teams—hard work, dedication and never give up.

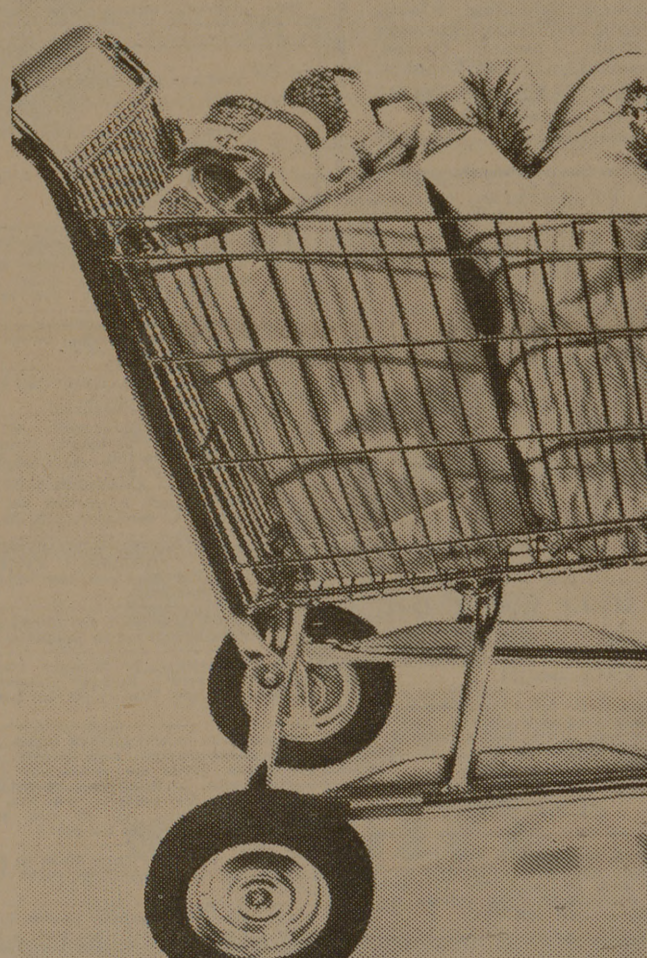

"Any man's finest hour," he once said, "is when he has worked his heart out, exhausted on the field of battle, victorious."

He believed that football was basically a game of blocking and tackling, with no fancy flirts intruding.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

what's in a NAME?

People ask for brand-name products because they have become known for dependability and service through the years. These names assure us of quality.

We, too, are known by our names. Mention of John Smith immediately inspires a positive or negative reaction, depending upon the man's reputation. A good name is indeed our most priceless, yet most perishable, possession.

Day in and day out, our thoughts, words and actions must be on the side of goodness, for it is today which determines tomorrow's past — for good or for bad.

If we could only perform each act and utter each word as if they were our last, those by which we would be remembered, then how great would be the significance of our names!

In this confused era where better can we turn for guidance and help than to the Church? Here we will discover the teachings of Christ — the most hallowed name of all.
