OSU seniors try for repeat of Soph year

By JOHN CURYLO
Battalion Sports Writer

Two years ago, the Ohio State Buckeyes won the national championship with a team made up mostly of sophomores.

Saturday night the Aggies face 27 of these players, 18 of them two-year lettermen, as they open their senior season.

Ohio State was 8-1 last year, losing to Michigan 24-12 in the final game of the season to tie for the Big Ten title. This year, Coach W. W. "Woody" Hayes has back 30 lettermen from that team, seven regulars each on offense and defense. Of these 30 lettermen, 17 play on offense and 13 on defense.

Offensively, the Buckeyes will start seven seniors, three juniors, and one sophomore. At split end is Bruce Jankowski, a 5-11, 192-pound senior who has caught 54 passes for 732 yards and eight touchdowns in his two years at Ohio State. He has been the leading pass receiver both years.

The tight end is senior Jan White, 6-2, 212. He has started all 19 varsity games in his two years, catching a total of 44 passes. He is a co-captain on offense this year.

From tackle to tackle, the line averages 221 pounds. Starting at the tackles Saturday will be junior Dave Cheney and John Hicks, a 240-pound sophomore who stands 6-3. Guards are Dick Kuhn, a converted end, and Phil Strickland, both seniors. The center is 6-2, 214-pound junior Tom DeLeone, who played in every game last year.

Rex Kern returns for his third year as the Ohio State quarterback. He is considered to be a strong candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After just two seasons, he holds the Buckeye record for total offense with 3,091 yards. Last year, he scored nine touchdowns and passed for nine. Kern's specialty is converting broken plays into long gains.

The halfbacks are Leo Hayden and Larry Zelina, both seniors. Hayden carried 63 times last year to average 5.4 yards per carry. Zelina who also punts, led the Big Ten in punt returns last year, including a 76 yard touchdown return against Michigan State.

John Brockington will try to fill the position vacated by the graduation of Jim Otis. He carried 45 times as a sophomore and 72 times last year. Brockington, 6-1, 216, scored six touchdowns by rushing last year.

Defensively, the Buckeyes use a 5-4 "Oklahoma" defense, sometimes switching to a 4-3. 4 seniors, 4 juniors, and 3 sophomores will start. The line averages 223 pounds.

The ends are senior Mark Debeve, a two-year starter at Ohio State, who scored a touchdown against Michigan State last year on a pass interception, and Kenneth Luttner, a junior who was moved to end a year ago.

Both tackles are sophomores. George Hasenohrl, 6-1, 240, was the top defensive lineman on last year's freshman team. Shad Williams, 6-3, 232, played four positions last year, but once he was played regularly at tackle, he excelled.

Jim Stillwagon is a 6-0, 220-pound senior who was named All-American last year at middle guard. He becomes a linebacker when the Buckeyes use a four-man line. Probably the best middle guard ever at Ohio State, Stillwagon has excellent lateral movement and is one of the hardest hitters on the team.

Senior Doug Adams and junior Stan White will open at linebacker for Ohio State. Adams has started two years and calls the defensive signals. White was used as a place kicker and reserve linebacker last year. He played freshman basketball at Ohio State and was a catcher on the varsity baseball team last spring.

At 6-0, 208, rover Jack Tatum, a unanimous all-American selection last season, has started all 19 games for Ohio State in his two years. He is a vicious tackler and a fine professional prospect.

Starting at halfback will be John Hughes and Tim Anderson. Hughes is a 6-1, 190-pound sophomore who played flanker on the freshman team and was an outstanding halfback and quarterback in high school. Anderson has started at the rugged five-yard halfback position for two years. He is a dedicated football player with speed, strength, and spirit.

One of the top safety men in college football, Mike Sensibaugh, another two-year starter, will not see action against the Aggies due to an injury. The starting safety will be Harry Howard, a junior who played behind Ted Provost last year.

The only apparent problem is complacency, with so many seniors who are used to winning. Pro scouts estimate that as many as 13 Buckeyes will go in the first three draft rounds this year.

In 19 years at Ohio State, Coach Hayes has a record of 125-42-7. His teams have won five undisputed Big Ten championships and one co-championship, three Rose Bowl games in as many appearances, and they won 17 consecutive Big Ten games on two occasions. During his career at Ohio State, the Buckeyes have been national champions three times and have led the nation in attendance per home game 18 years.

Tigers host Del Valle

The A&M Consolidated Tigers will be out to break a two game losing streak Friday night at 8 when they host Del Valle at Tiger Field.

The Tigers have lost to Dallas Carter 46-6 and Sweeny 35-19 in their first two games, and the main problem is defense as they have already allowed more points than the Tigers' 1968 team did.

Consolidated rolled off 354 yards in the Sweeny game but a blocked punt, interceptions and fumbles gave them excellent field position in the contest.

Coach Jack Churchill had special praise for two of his linemen.

"It's inspiring to see a 155-pound guard trap block a 210-pound tackle and George did that several times," Churchill said of George Fanguy who plays both offensive and defensive guard.

"Tackle Bob Price showed lots of improvement in our last game. In fact, our overall line play showed real improvement."

Mark Logan will start at quarterback for the Buckeyes replacing Jim Fenner, who broke his hand during the Sweeny game.

"Fenner has been a mainstay on our club and we'll really miss him. Logan has looked real sharp in practice and we are confident he'll do the job," Churchill said.

The football weekend at Consolidated starts tonight when the seventh and eighth grade teams visit Caldwell and the Junior Varsity hosts Marlin.

The Consolidated Junior Varsity is slated to play Marlin at 7:30 p.m. on Tiger Field while the freshman team will have an open date this week.

The seventh and eighth grade teams will play at Caldwell with the seventh grade game starting at 5:30 p.m. and the eighth grade game immediately following it.

Roger to start

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas coach Tom Landry said Wednesday Roger Staubach would start at quarterback against the New York Giants Sunday in their National Football League game in the Cotton Bowl.

"I think Roger did a good job against Philadelphia," Landry said of the Cowboys' opening 17-7 victory. "Roger's potential is great. With a little more experience, he will play even better."
