

Troops may be out by next summer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said Wednesday the last U. S. combat troops "will be coming out of Vietnam" by next summer.

The Pennsylvania made the comment to newsmen at the start of Wednesday's Senate session when asked to amplify remarks made Tuesday to newsmen in Washington and in a political speech in Harrisburg, Pa.

On both occasions he predicted President Nixon would have a favorable report to the nation in mid-October on the Vietnam situation and probably would announce an accelerated troop withdrawal schedule.

Nixon already has said that another 150,000 troops would be withdrawn by next April, putting the figure remaining there at about 280,000 if the schedule is met.

Administration officials also have stated repeatedly over the past months that the U. S. "combat role" would be ended by next summer.

Scott said "something more than 200,000" U. S. troops probably would remain in Vietnam for some time to come.

When pressed for a definition of "combat" troops, however, Scott said he could not speak with any authority.

He did say that air strikes by U. S. planes probably would continue as long as U. S. troops were in Vietnam and needed to be protected.

Scott did not say whether he would favor turning over to the South Vietnamese soldiers the job of guarding American non-combat support troops.

Administration officials have said that even when the "combat role" of U. S. forces ends, security forces probably will be needed as long as American troops remain in substantial numbers.

Diebel to assist United Drive here

R. Clark Diebel has been named associate director for Texas A&M's "United Drive," announced Dean of Science J. M. Prescott, campaign director.

Dean Prescott said Diebel, the university's controller, will be in charge of the financial aspects of the campaign to support College Station's United Chest and Bryan's United Fund.

The one-week "United Drive" opens Monday, coinciding with the start of campaigns in the two communities.

Texas A&M's new policy, Dean Prescott noted, allows university personnel to contribute to either the Bryan or College Station drive.

Contributions not designated for either fund, he added, will be divided between the campaigns in proportion to their budgets.

Astros finish up

HOUSTON (AP) — Pinch-hitter Bob Watson poked a run-scoring single in the ninth inning Thursday night to give the Houston Astros a 5-4 victory over San Francisco and extend their season-closing win streak to seven games.

27 engineers to help freshmen with projects

A&M's visiting engineer program will bring 27 professionals from 20 Texas industries to the campus October 5-9 to consult with 930 freshmen students in Engineering Design Graphics, Dr. James H. Earle, department head, announced.

Student teams are working on a campus car service center, a franchise study, manufacture of an educational toy, a children's entertainment center, or a problem of their own choosing, Earle said. Presentations of solutions will be made when the visiting engineers return in December.

Earle said the program serves to motivate new engineer students by bringing them in contact with practicing members of the profession. A total of 291 engineers have participated since 1966.

Power and Light scholarships for their electrical engineering studies at A&M.

Awards were presented to the students Tuesday by Pitt Pittman, TP&L engineer of Dallas who studied under one of the scholarships at the university.

Bill Ranton, TP&L employe relations assistant manager, was also present for the awards. Pittman received his B.S. at A&M in 1966 and afterwards earned a master's degree in electrical engineering.

Zemanek and Shankle received $600 a year TP&L scholarships. Mostyn was presented a special one-time $120 award.

Campus unrest report supported despite Agnew

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three prominent Republicans backed up the report of the President's commission on campus unrest Wednesday and disagreed with the interpretation placed on it by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew.

And the commission's youngest member, Joseph Rhodes Jr., a 22-year-old Harvard University fellow who has been embroiled in controversy with the vice president since shortly after being named to the commission, said it was regrettable that Agnew had attacked the report while the President was still out of the country.

The Republicans were White House counselor Robert Finch, and New York's Sen. Charles E. Goodell and Mayor John V. Lindsay.

Finch, appearing at St. Martin's College in Lacey, Wash., disagreed with Agnew's criticism that the report was imprecise.

Finch said the report "gets very precise as to what innova-

Twin 200 races will not be held

DETROIT (AP) — The inaugural Texas "Twin 200-S" United States Auto Club Indy championship car and stock car race, scheduled for Oct. 25 at Texas International Speedway near Bryan has been cancelled, the speedway's directors announced today.

Les Richter, president of American Raceways, Inc., under whose management Texas International Speedway operates, said the race was cancelled because of a major shift in the management and the realignment of operations.

Ben Parks and Les Richter, recently appointed chairman of the board and president of American Raceways, respectively, and Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery, a nationally recognized auditing firm, are still formulating plans for carrying forward a concept to present auto racing at the track.

William J. Smyth, executive director of the U.S. Auto Club, expressed disappointment that the time factor involved in a complete management change-over would not permit the Texans to see A. J. Foyt, Johnny Rutherford, Jim McElreath, Lloyd Ruby and other Texas drivers competing for the first time with their Indy cars in their home state this year.

Latest peace plan has 'nothing new'

PARIS (AP) — The United States said today that a careful review of the Viet Cong's latest eight-point plan for peace has turned up nothing that could advance a negotiated settlement of the Vietnam war.

South Vietnam also told the 86th session of the Paris peace talks that it has tried in vain to discover something new in the plan, presented Sept. 17 by Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the Viet Cong's top delegate. South Vietnamese Ambassador Pham Dan Lam issued an urgent reminder that his country is very much a part of the war and insists on a major voice in any peace settlement.

U.S. Ambassador David K. E. Bruce told the conference that "I have seen nothing which leads me to revise my opinion that your fundamental demands seem unchanged." These demands—unilateral U.S. withdrawal and a new Saigon government—have already been rejected by the United States.

Bruce said the demand for the removal of Saigon's president, vice president and premier remains unacceptable. He implied that to make such a demand was a "breach of our agreement" to begin plenary talks.

Bruce and Lam expressed their positions as speculation mounted that secret talks between North Vietnam and the United States had begun on the basis of Mrs. Binh's self-styled "peace initiative."

Bruce and his deputy, Philip C. Habib, must report to President Nixon in Ireland this weekend on the status of the talks. Last weekend Nixon sent his principal counselor, Henry A. Kissinger, to Paris to confer with the delegation.

Bruce said when he took over the U.S. delegation recently that he had been given broad latitude by Nixon to seek a settlement but could only exercise the latitude when the other side showed some flexibility.

Mrs. Binh's proposals have drawn U.S. interest and could be the signal of this long-sought flexibility. U.S. delegation sources, however, were extremely reluctant to expound on this possibility.

Mrs. Binh, told the conference today that she considered the U.S. answer to her plan a "negative" response. The United States, she said, has turned down the date she had set for the total withdrawal of U.S. troops and has thus exposed more clearly "its scheme of prolonging its war of aggression."

Ride 'n Shoot to be held for local youth

A "Ride 'N Shoot" will be conducted for children on October 4 and 11 from 2-6 p.m. at Pleasant Acres.

Proceeds will be used for the purchase of equipment in the program of You-Tomorrow, a non-profit educational corporation for the benefit of youth.

The Forrest Trail Riders Pony Club and the Twin City Junior Rifle Club will sponsor the event. Members of the Pony Club will lead horses for children to ride. Members of the Rifle Club will assist in range firing.

The "Ride 'N Shoot" is a fund-raising project for these clubs, as well as for Bivouac Lodge, a camping club, and Post 1836, Boy Scouts of America.

In case of rain, the event will be re-scheduled on successive Sundays.
