Aggies go north again

The Texas Aggies journey to the land of the giants Saturday as they bid for a comeback and redeem themselves against the Big Ten, when they face the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Kickoff is slated for 1:30 p.m. (EDT) with a crowd of about 75,000 expected.

Michigan, currently ranked ninth in both the Associated Press and United Press International polls, has probably what is the tallest football team in the country.

Every member of the Michigan defensive front four and the offensive line, except the center, stands at least 6-2 and defensive left tackle Tom Beckman is the tallest at 6-7.

The Aggies will face for the second straight week a defending Big Ten co-champ and the only team to defeat the Ohio State Buckeyes since the University of Illinois did it in 1967, 17-13.

The game will be the first ever between the two schools. The last time the Aggies have played a Michigan school was in 1959 when they upset highly ranked Michigan State 9-7.

It will be the fourth game for the Aggies, yet will be the first time they have been able to scout their opponent. They were the season opener for Wichita State, LSU and Ohio State.

Coach Gene Stallings has made several changes in the lineup for the contest but only one will involve a starting position.

Sophomore Gary Martin—6-0, 236—from Houston St. Thomas has moved into the starting left defensive guard in place of Boice Best. Alongside him will be defensive ends Todd Christopher and Max Bird and right guard Van Odom. Ralph Sacra has moved to second team defensive left end.

Linebacker Dennis Carruth, who missed the first three games because of a shoulder injury, will be available for duty for the first time this season and will be second team linebacker at all three positions. Steve Luebehusen is still on the injured list and will not make the trip.

Grady Hoermann and Mike Lord will man the other posts. Lord was credited with 20 tackles against Ohio State after having 23 against LSU.

Ed Ebrum and Bland Smith will line up at the cornerbacks, with Dave Elmendorf and David Hoot at the safeties. Lee Hitt and Robert Murski will back them up, as Chris Johnson is still injured.

Mike Bunger, who played second unit strong safety, has been moved to offense and will line up as second team left halfback behind Brad Dusek.

Lex James will run the controls again, with Steve Burks at right halfback.

In another move Stallings moved Marc Black from fullback to right halfback behind Burks.

Doug Neill will be the fullback and Doug Robbins will back him. Hugh McElroy and Homer May again will man the end posts.

Benny DeWitt, Jim Parker, Ted Smith, Leonard Forey and Andy Phillely will play the internal offensive line and will be backed up by Robert Gerasimowicz, Buster Callaway, Mike Park, Oscar Castillo and Mike Fields, respectively.

With only one sophomore in the starting lineup, Michigan will counter with a veteran unit that has a tradition of winning.

Last season Michigan had an 8-2 season record, losing only to cross-state rival Michigan State and Missouri. They also lost 10-3 to the University of Southern California in the 1970 Rose Bowl game.

That tradition has swept on into the 1970 campaign. The Wolverines opened with wins over Arizona and Washington.

Neither win, however, has been convincing as the offense has not moved the ball, but oh, that defense.

Led by junior Tom Darden, the rover, middle guard Henry Hill and linebacker Marty Huff, the Michigan defense has not allowed a touchdown and has given up only a 104 yards rushing on 71 attempts. Although they've allowed 324 yards passing, you can expect that when a team defenses the run that well.

Huff has intercepted three passes and Darden two for the Wolverines, who have picked off seven enemy aerials.

Juniors Preston Henry, Billy Taylor and Glen Doughty form a top nucleus for the Michigan ground gain.

Quarterback Don Moorhead is highly rated but has failed to click effectively on his passes in the two opening contests. Moorhead has completed 17 passes of 48 tried for 235 yards and his leading receiver is split end Paul Staroba a two year letterman who has caught eight passes for 106 yards.

Tight end Paul Seymour has caught five passes for 50 yards to rank next. Paul is the brother of former Notre Dame pass catching star Jim Seymour. Wolverine defensive end Phil Seymour is the cousin of the pair.

Taylor, Hill, Huff and defensive tackle Dan Dierdorf were all given honorable mention in several All-American team line ups last season.

Michigan coach praises Elmendorf

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan quarterback Don Moorhead has not yet got untracked this season, and Saturday it won't be any easier to shake his early season doldrums.

If he is ready to get in gear Saturday he must contend with a tough Texas A&M safety man named Dave Elmendorf.

"They've got one of the best football players anywhere in Elmendorf," said Schembechler this week at a press luncheon.

"That guy could play anywhere. He'd make a great running back."

"He's also a heck of a punt return specialist," Bo added.

Frogs, Hogs battle in SWC play

One conference game, two Big Ten opponents, three games with California teams, and LSU for the third straight week make up the Southwest Conference schedule Saturday.

Texas looks for its 23rd consecutive win in Austin at 4 p.m. when they play UCLA. The Bruins are 3-0, having beaten Oregon State 14-9, Pittsburgh 24-15 and Northwestern 12-7. They are led by Dennis Dummit, one of the best passers and field generals in the country. Two Texans, Arthur Sims of Fort Worth and Gary Campbell of Ennis, lead the UCLA ground game. The Longhorns, 2-0, are sparked by Eddie Phillips, their new quarterback. He is the eighth leading rusher in the nation, having gained over 120 yards in each game.

California, 1-2, is Rice's homecoming foe Saturday night in Houston. Rice, who romped over VMI 42-0 in the opener and lost to LSU 24-0 on fumbles and interceptions last week, will be out to make up for last year's 31-21 loss in Berkeley. After losing to Oregon 34-21 and Texas 56-15, Cal beat Indiana last week, 56-14. Rice is 11th nationally in total defense with guard Roger Roitsch and linebacker Dale Grounds leading a veteran crew.

University of California-Santa Barbara will be the third West Coast team to invade the Lone Star State Saturday night as they play Texas Tech in Lubbock. The Gauchos have lost all three games this year, as they are filled with junior college transfers. Tech defeated Tulane 21-14 and Kansas 23-0 before losing to Texas 35-13 before a record Lubbock crowd of 53,124. Quarterback Charles Napper is hitting 52.2 per cent of his passes, while Doug McCutchen and Miles Langehennig are the SWC's No. 4 and No. 10 rushers, respectively.

Baylor will be the third straight SWC team to travel to Baton Rouge for a game with the Tigers. The Bears are 1-2, having beaten Army 10-7. The Bayou Bengals stomped Rice 24-0 after the opening game upset loss to A&M, 20-18. Baylor lost to Pittsburgh in the fourth quarter last week, 15-10. Pitt scored all of its points in the last period of play.

Besides the A&M-Michigan game, the other Big Ten-SWC contest is SMU at Northwestern. The Wildcats are winless, having lost to Notre Dame 35-14 and UCLA 12-7. SMU's only victory against two losses was a 34-21 win over New Mexico State. Tailback Gary Hammond scored four first period touchdowns against NMS last week, following losses to Oklahoma 28-11 and Tennessee 28-3. The Mustangs are led by NCAA pass-completion champion Chuck Hixson.

The SWC game pits Arkansas (2-1) visiting TCU (1-1-1) in a night game. In the last 15 years, the SWC winner or co-champion has come out of this game eight times. It will be a battle of quarterbacks, as Razorback Bill Montgomery faces Horned Frog Steve Judy. Judy had his first 300-yard total offense day against Arkansas last year.

Arkansas Shoats blast SMU Colts

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—The Arkansas Shoats ripped the Southern Methodist Colts 30-13 Thursday night in a Southwest Conference frosh football game.

Tailback Dickey Morton of Dallas Kimball paced Arkansas carrying 24 times for 171 yards and one touchdown on a six-yard run.

The Shoats intercepted three passes off the arm of heralded Colt quarterback Casey Ortez. They also recovered two fumbles.

Arkansas took a 17-7 lead at the half on Morton's run, a 22-yard field goal by Butch Davis, and a five-yard keeper by quarterback Pete Tolley of Dallas Jefferson. The other scores came on Wayne Miles' one-yard plunge and Rick Emerson's 14-yard gallop.

The Colts tallied on a one-yard run by fullback Bill Thomas and Alvin Maxson dashed 42 yards for a TD.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

Wheels in Motion

When the gears of a machine mesh together in motion, things begin to happen. Wheels turn, and power is transmitted to every part of the mechanism.

Prayer is something like that. Individual prayer is a vital and sacred thing. Each of us has moments when we—and we alone—must turn to God.

And collective prayer—mass prayer—can be a tremendous force for good too. It is as if thousands of "spiritual gears" suddenly were meshed together into a unit directed by a single purpose.

On Worldwide Communion Sunday, remember the power of collective prayer. Join with your neighbors throughout the globe by attending church and praying both for peace and for each other.
