"Quality First"

"People call me obscene names because I have long hair. I'm not intent on destroying America. I'd try to stop anyone who was." — Doug Smith, junior.

"Unity of blacks and whites is better than rebuttal. The Black Awareness Committee is a start." — Tony Jean, sophomore.

"You can't change someone who's a racist and a bigot." — Rudy Vavra, freshman.

A&M's soapbox forum

Mrs. Stanley Cass, junior, tells listeners about four POW's and 11 men missing in action in Indochina, all Aggies. She passed out petitions calling for humane treatment of POW's to be sent to the North Vietnamese delegation at the Paris peace talks.

"The Black Awareness Committee is structured by whites for whites to look at blacks, kind of like a sociological experiment." I think we need a black organization for blacks." — Allen Giles, junior. (Photos by Bob Stump)
