A Time For Reaffirming

311 Church Avenue

Civil liberties seem to be somewhat out of fashion nowadays. Even recent public opinion polls show that many of the American people think the Original Bill of Rights has a subversive ring. Yet foreign visitors to America still observe that Americans enjoy freedoms that are unparalled elsewhere. It is ironic but understandable that the freeest people could be indifferent to the legal and historical basis of their freedom. Yet within all men, regardless of their particular lot in life, there is a flame of self-respect and a belief in on'e own essential worth. There comes a time when a man wishes to speak the truth as he understands it and be free from tyrannical reprisals. There comes a time when a man wishes to carry out freely those activities which are essential to a full life for himself, his family, and his

Perhaps on this 50th anniversary of the American Civil Liberties Union we can take time to reaffirm our belief in the Bill of Rights and the United States Consittution. The Brazos Civil Liberties Union extends our invitation to everyone to strengthen their belief in these doctrines.

The Brazos Civil Liberties Union offers their assistance wherever Civil Liberties are being threatened. We have done much in the past but till much more is needed. Our membership ranges over a wide political spectrum of citizens but we are united in our concern for the ideas expressed in the Bill of Rights. If you need our help or if you want to help, please contact us at Box 656, College Station, Texas.

The A&M soccer team, on the winning road after a slow start, belted winless TCU, 8-1, scoring three goals in the first half and adding five after the break.

Coach Bill Wright changed his forward wall in the second half after Pastor, Garza and Captain Gibril Fadika scored first half goals. The change must have been a good one as the Aggies bombed in five goals including two apiece for Englishman John Retner and Carlos Silvera and one by Cas-
