Powerful Hogs, Aggies clash

By CLIFFORD BROYLES Battalion Sports Editor

The Texas Aggies and the Arkansas Razorbacks are working on strings of fives, and as far as the Aggies are concerned it's gone far enough.

Saturday at 1:30 p.m. the Aggies and Hogs will get together in the 44th meeting of the two teams, with A&M looking to break a five-game losing skid and the Raozrbacks zeroing in on their sixth straight win.

The eighth-ranked Hogs will bring a little bit of everything into Kyle Field, with a good passing attack, a good running game and an overall good defense the main ingredients.

Arkansas has experience, and quarterback Bill Montgomery is a good example. Montgomery, a senior two-year letterman, is one of 15 two-year lettermen high on the UA depth chart.

Montgomery has completed 53 of 95 passes this season and although he isn't rated in a class with Archie Manning of Mississippi or Jim Plunkett of Stanford as a passer, the Texas native leads the type of offense that makes one forget about the quarbalanced attack, having gained 1424 yards rushing and 1362 yards passing in their first six

They lead the nation in scoring, with an average of 42 points a game, and are fourth in total offense with 464.3 yards a game and 12th in passing offense with 227 yards a game.

They can do it either way, and when they run, their bread and butter is tailback Bill Burnett, who has scored 10 touchdowns this season giving him 46 career touchdowns. With a good day Saturday, he could take over the Southwest Conference career scoring lead.

For receivers, the pair has Chuck Dicus, who has caught 21 passes giving him a career total of 113 for more than 1800 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Senior linemen Bruce James and Dick Bumpas, linebackers Guy Parker and Mike Boschetti and monsterman Bobby Field all are earning their third letter for an Arkansas defense that led the nation in scoring defense last year and this season has given only 11 points a game.

Rick Kersey, who was injured leading rusher with 326 yards. will start at cornerbacks.

early in the season, may be at Neill has 301 and Dusek, who his defensive tackle post for the led with 42 against Baylor, has

The Aggies will counter with nothing even close to comparison statistically, so it will have to be decided on the two and one half hours of combat Saturday after-

Quarterback Lex James has third place in the conference passing with 81 of 160 for 1228 yards this season. Montgomery is the fourth leading passer.

Tight end Homer May has developed into the top receiver on the squad, having caught 21 for 396 yards and four touchdowns. That's more touchdowns than any other SWC receiver can lay claim Flanker Johnny Gardner earned himself a starting berth on Coach Gene Stallings' new alignment before the Baylor game and went out and caught four passes including one for a touchdown. Joey Herr, who has caught eight passes, or Hugh McElroy who has caught 18 will line up at split end.

Brad Dusek, Doug Neill and Steve Burks, the Aggies' corps of running backs, will take turns in the backfield. Burks is the

Ted Smith will start at center, Robert Gerasimowicz and Andy Philley at the tackles and Jim Parker and Leonard Forey at the guards in the Aggies' offensive

Defensively, A&M will again line up with the five-man line they used for the first time against Baylor. Sophomores Max Bird, Boice Best, Gary Martin and Kent Finley will line up around junior Van Odom in the defensive line. Bird has recovered three fumbles and Odom one for this season.

Linebacker still will be a question mark. Grady Hoermann and Dennis Carruth are scheduled to start, with Mike Lord and Steve Luebbehusen still below par physically.

Dave Elmendorf, the Aggies' leading thief with three interceptions and three fumble recoveries, and David Hoot, who has caught three enemy aerials and recovered one fumble, will line up at the safeties.

Ed Ebrom and Bland Smith

Ramp ten women win

Hall rolled to a 6-0 win over a team fielded by University Women Thursday night in a powderpuff football battle viewed by more than 100.

The victors, who got their name because Law Hall has only nine ramps, were coached in the encounter by Ralph Alonzo and David Hall.

Linda Parkhurst, Jean Pfluger and Kendra Ward starred for the University Women throughout the contest. UW once drove deep into Law territtory late in the game, but a fumble on fourth and goal stopped the march.

Quarterback Connie Karchen raced 60 yards for the game's only touchdown in the second period.

After the powderpuff encounter, Law President Terry Van Dyck said the game was "a tremendous boost for our program and the hall."

"It should be quite a gain further interaction between versity women and men,"

Members of the winning squ were Kendra Ward, Cynthia an Gracie Crane, Marcia Bee, Je Henery, Ann Funderburk, sten Duren, Connie Karch Cindy Sebesta, Linda Parkhur Reenie Turk and Jean Pflug

The Church... For a Fuller Life... For You...

Now there are two "snaggletooths" in the family. What fun Jerry had trying to duplicate his own toothless grin!

I smiled, remembering his first "jack-o'-lantern" and how he had howled with fright at the eerie smile of the funny-faced vegetable. Jim and I had to work hard to convince him that "jack-o'-lanterns" were fun. Now, just a few years later, the "jack-o'-pumpkin" is one of his special

How easy it is to shape the attitudes of a little child. It seems to Jim and me that Jerry is like a sponge, soaking up thoughts and ideas from the things we do and say. His points of view reflect our own.

That's why we know how important it is for all of us to go to church every Sunday. It was there we learned the love for God that enriches our every day. We want this dominion and joy to become a part of Jerry's life, too.
